

HEADING UP THE MOUNTAIN TRAIL are members of "A" troop of the Acton Boy Scouts during their day-long hike on Saturday. The hike part of Boy Scout training, took them to the Caledon Hills where Scouters H. Coles and R. C. Custer, led them through the mountains. During the day the scouts were accompanied by the District Commissioner, David Dills, Cubmasters Murray Scoyne and Ron Smith.

RECEIVING THEIR "Coat of White Paint" are Brian Robinson and Steve Goy as Cubmaster Murray Scoyne ties the white neckerchief that depicts acknowledgment to Cub Scouts until requirements for investiture are completed. The two boys were welcomed by the Cubs last Thursday evening before the going-up ceremony, at the Scout House.

W.I. Sponsor Euchre Hold Sale, Auction

In spite of various other attractions, a fairly good crowd attended the euchre Friday night sponsored by the Women's Institute. Prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. L. Buck and Mr. H. Sunter. Mr. Elgin Awrey received the travelling prize. Mrs. E. Fisher and Mr. Frits De Haan held the lucky tickets on the layer cakes.

A sales table was well patronized and at the close an auction was held of the remaining articles. The ladies are well pleased with the receipts which will be used for various worthwhile projects in the community.

Mrs. James Walker, Miss Mary Robertson, Mrs. R. Gracey and Mr. Mark Woodhead, all of the Bradford district, were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McGarr and family, Guilph, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hills of Toronto spent the week end at their farm on the first line. Their daughter and son-in-law, M. and Mrs. Milton and baby son are living at the farm while their new home is being built near Toronto.

Church services were cancelled at the local Presbyterian church on Sunday due to anniversary services at Burns church, Erin. A number of the local members attended the services.

Miss Joan Aitken of Western University, London, was a weekend visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken, Toronto.

Mrs. Barry Clarke visited Saturday with her father, Mr. Wylie at St. Michael's hospital, Toronto. Mr. Wylie was seriously hurt in an accident at Georgetown some time ago and is still in serious condition.

A number from here attended the funerals of Dr. J. Abbott at Erin and Mr. I. Hamilton at Acton last week.

Mrs. Norman McKenzie, Linda and Billy, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kingsbury and family at Rockwood.

Friends of Barry Clarke Jr. will be pleased to learn he is now able to be around following a badly broken hip suffered in a barn fall in the summer holidays.

C.G.I.T. News

The C.G.I.T. held their regular meeting on Monday, October 28, with Mariene Hunter, Julie Holmes and Dorothy Duffield conducting a worship service.

The meeting being held in the form of a Halloween party, costumes were judged and Sue Walters won first prize with Barbara Norton and Dorothy Duffield second.

The meeting closed with taps, after which a delightful lunch was served.

Y.M.C.A. Sells Candies To Buy Equipment

This week children of the Y.M.C.A. are canvassing door to door selling package candies.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward buying equipment for the Y, states Y secretary Dave Dushoff.

With quite a number of packages still to be sold, the Y.M.C.A. Board urge the purchase of candies from the kiddies to assist in buying much needed equipment.

Many Visitors In Local Homes

With Mrs. Lane on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Shepperd of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lane of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane of Georgetown.

Mrs. Wilson Wiley visited with her niece, Mrs. A. C. Patterson, last week.

Miss Helen Mills of Toronto spent a few days with her parents prior to her departure for Bermuda later this week.

The Mac Cuscos were without hydro and one telephone line was out of order after a car broke off a pole east of the village on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Spitzer were guests at the Carley - Fern wedding in the Church of St. Edward the Confessor, Willowdale, and the reception following in the Prince Arthur House, Toronto.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Wm. Edwards on the death of her brother, Mr. Allen Aeselin, of Milton, in hospital in Oakville on Saturday.

Miss Quinton, junior teacher at S.S. 8, attended the teachers' convention at Oakville on Friday.

Extra police will be on duty this evening to discourage any Halloween vandalism.

Mr. and Mrs. Wansbrough Honored on 25th Anniversary

A very happy occasion was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wansbrough, 442 Roxton Road, Toronto, on Saturday, October 26 when relatives and friends arranged a surprise party to do honor to the bride and groom of 25 years ago.

Among those present were the bride's mother, Mrs. Craddock, her brothers, Cyril and Lorne and their wives and families, her sister, Mrs. George Daley, the groom's sisters, Mrs. Gordon Mackay and her husband and family, Mrs. Anna Smith of Acton, his brother, Roy Wansbrough and his wife and a number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wansbrough have two daughters, Carol and Lenore, one son, Robert, and one grandson, Timothy Wansbrough. His remaining sister, Mrs. Frank Day, Rockwood, was unable to be present on account of illness.

Mr. Wansbrough has been actively engaged in cabinet manufacturing and sales for the last 30 years. An address and presentation of folding money was made by Mr. Roy Wansbrough and Mrs. Gordon Mackay, which was fittingly responded to by Harold and Kathleen.

Good wishes were expressed that they might be spared to enjoy many more happy, prosperous and healthful wedding anniversaries. The delightful occasion was enjoyed by all present.

PROCLAMATION POPPY DAY

WHEREAS, 42 men of this town gave their lives in defence of Canada and the democratic world;
AND WHEREAS, the memory of their service and sacrifice is a source of inspiration to all citizens as our nation faces new difficulties and dangers;
AND WHEREAS, their memory is kept ever bright by the annual wearing of memorial poppies in their honor and the honor of all other Canadians who died in war service;

NOW THEREFORE, I, E. G. Tyler, Mayor of the Town of Acton, do hereby proclaim Saturday, November 9th, to be Poppy Day in the Town of Acton and do urge that all citizens observe the day by wearing the memorial poppy of the Canadian Legion.

E. G. TYLER,
