

THE CLEAN-UP SHOWS Boy Scouts washing their dishes in the stream, after they finished their dinner, on their hike Saturday. With many new scouts being added to the scout patrols this year, the increase in the Girl Guides, Brownies and Wolf Cubs, made an extension to the Scout House necessary. A campaign for funds is in progress and the Boy Scout Committee ask assistance from the citizens of Acton for donations to offset the increased costs.

MEAL TIME for the Scout Hike on Saturday shows a variation of tastes from pork chops to wieners and beans. After a rigorous hike through the Caledon mountains, the scouts were ready for a filling meal and a rest.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Thanksgiving Theme Of Blair Auxiliary

Mrs. H. Ranshaw was hostess to the Blair Evening Auxiliary for the Fall Thanksgiving meeting. The president, Mrs. Handley, opened the meeting with the call to worship. Those assisting in the program were Mrs. Webb and Mrs. D. Inglis.

Mrs. Andrews read a very interesting paper prepared by Mrs. A. T. Moore, who was unable to be present. Much information was given about missionary work and many searching questions were asked which each one present must ask themselves.

The program used was a service of thanksgiving prepared and distributed by the Adult Work Committee of the Women's Missionary Society, W.D. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The service was written by Miss Gholia Kelly, a member of the committee. Misses Marjorie and Lois Greenleaf sang the beautiful hymn, "In the Garden."

Mrs. W. Robertson thanked those who had made the program so interesting. A delicious lunch was served and a happy half hour was enjoyed by all.

OBITUARY

John E. Kingsbury Interred in Acton

The death of Mr. John E. Kingsbury occurred on Thursday, October 24 at Guelph General Hospital.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kingsbury and was born in Esquimaux township 51 years ago. He had lived in this district all his life except for a period of two years which he spent at the West Coast. In August, 1955 he married May Evans of Vancouver.

Mr. Kingsbury, a machinist by trade, had been employed at Avro Aircraft Ltd. and was a member of Lodge 717. Although the deceased had been in failing health for the past year, his death came as a shock to his many friends and neighbors.

The funeral service was held at the Rumley funeral home, Acton, and was conducted by Rev. G. A. B. Moore of Rockwood United Church, of which Mr. Kingsbury was a member. Interment took place in Fairview cemetery.

The pallbearers, all old friends, were Alex McPherson, Alex Neel, Mac Maude, Cameron, Kitching, Orrie Lamb and Wilbur Patterson. The many beautiful flowers bore testimony to the friendships he had enjoyed so much. His nephews and nieces were the flower of the town.

Mr. Kingsbury is survived by his wife, Mrs. May Evans, and two brothers and one sister, all of Vancouver, Robert, Mrs. C. Hodgkinson (Beaumont), Guelph, a stepdaughter, Mrs. Lloyd MacDougall, lives at MacGregor, Manitoba.

W. I. Ladies Enjoy Bus Trip

A bus load of 38 Women's Institute ladies and their husbands enjoyed a trip to Oakville on Wednesday night and were taken on a tour through the Ford plant and enjoyed lunch at a restaurant.

The autumn Thankoffering of the different mission organizations was held on Sunday night. Mrs. Ernie McEnery acted as chairlady.

Miss Young and Mrs. F. W. Shearill took the devotional on the hostesses and the Sermon on the Mount. The C.G.I.T. took part in the singing and two Mission Band boys took the offering.

Mrs. Black introduced Padre Young of Guelph as guest speaker. He gave a very wonderful address, giving each one present much to think about. He took as his text the Sermon on the Mount. Padre Young stressed we should always build on a solid foundation.

Mr. Neelon very ably thanked Padre Young for his fine address.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rennie and two boys of Orangeville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alger of Hamilton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEnery.

Mr. Tom Mack is under the doctor's care with sciatica. We hope he may soon be able to be out again.

Comrade Ab-Irwin has the poppy canvass lined up and canvassers have been briefed on their territories. As usual, the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary are playing an important role again this year in the canvass.

We now have large parking facilities and if all members co-operate in parking their vehicles, there should be room for all.

The Legion Ladies' Auxiliary are keeping up their standards of serving fine meals and prepared dinner for the Rotarians from Milton, Georgetown and Acton on Tuesday evening.

Don't forget the Minor Sports meeting tonight (Thursday) in the Legion Hall. Come out and lend a helping hand to Minor Sports in Acton.

Well, Dude had quite a go last Tuesday keeping the dart losers in hand as the competition increases. On the evening's play, team no. 3, captained by George Hall, and team no. 7, captained by Bill Nicolak, tied for first place. In second spot were teams no. 2, with Hughie Smith at the helm, and no. 4, with fireman Pat Waldie blowing the siren.

Settling for third position was team no. 6, with leader, Eric Paigo and team no. 1, with Ivan Kilby leading off. Last but not least was no. 5 with eager Stan Collett holding his boys back for the finals.

Team standing to date in nos. 8 and 7 tied for first; nos. 1, 3 and 4 tied for second; nos. 5 and 6 tied for third and team no. 8 bringing up the rear.
