Rev. A. H. McKenzie Addresses Acton W.I.

Mrs. George Fryer was hostess for the November meeting of the Acton W.I. and as president presided and conducted the business. Donations were noted to two appeals, five dollars to the Mental Health and twenty-five dollars to the Scout Hall addition.

A special meeting was announced to be held in Milton and an invitation to visit the Hannockburn W.I. later in the month was received.

The program was arranged in keeping with Remembrance Day. The roll call was responded to with a name from Acton's Roll of Honor and the motto, "Benefits of Service" was presented by Mrs. H. L. Bennie.

The hymn, "O Valiant Heart" was sung and Mrs. Fryer read the homemaker creed.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie, minister of Knox Presbyterian Church was the guest speaker and brought an inspirational message. Mrs. R. L. Davidson on behalf of the group expressed the thanks to Mr. McKenzie and also to Mrs. Fryer for opening her home for the meeting.

The hymn Abide With Me was sung to close the meeting. A social time was enjoyed during the lunch period.

BALUNAFAD Community Sale Realizes $200

The meeting opened with the theme song, "Good and the Lord's Prayer" in union. The scripture was taken by Mrs. Shortz. The minutes were read and approved. Plans were made for a Schneider supper to be held in the church.

Mrs. McEnery had charge of the program, giving a reading, "What Price Glory?" Roll call was answered by a favorite patriotic song. Lunch was served by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. T. Given, assisted by the hostess. Two birthday cakes were served. It being Mrs. J. Given's birthday and others that same week. The meeting closed with the Queen.

Archie Kenner and Gordon Chambers of Boscawan, Man. spent the week-end at their uncle's. Mr. and Mrs. R. McEnery, also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEnery.

High School News

On November 12, the Acton High School junior football team ended an undefeated season by defeating Georgetown 9-1 in Georgetown. It was Acton's second win over the boys from the "paper town".

Georgetown drew first blood on a 30 yard single in the first quarter. In the second quarter, Acton evened the score with Jim Frank kicking a single. The scoreboard showed 1-1 at half time. In the third quarter, Frank booted his second single to give Acton a 2-1 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, Acton moved the ball 30 yards in three plays with Bill Greer, Mel Callan and Jim Frank carrying the mail. On the next play, Bill Churchill plunged five yards for the touchdown. Jim Frank converted and Acton had a 9-1 lead for keeps.

The home team fought hard to get back in the game but couldn't crack Acton's defense which had outstanding performances from John Kerschman and Harold Watson. The whole team deserves a big pat on the back for their performance.

Acton line-up: ends, Lawson, McDonald, Ruddick, Watson; tackles, J. Bakker, Newton, Dawkins, Jimmy Holsted; centre, Phee; backs, Frank, Greer, Churchill, Callan, G. Baker, Williams, Kerschman.

On Tuesday, November 12, the Acton girls played host to the Milton volleyball team. The game was composed of three parts—the first two eight minutes each and the third, four minutes.

Acton was slow in getting started and Milton won the first round by the score of 12-6. In the second and third periods the local team emerged victorious, defeating their opponents 9-6 and 8-6. The match was refereed by Mrs. Galloway. Mrs. Morgan of Milton, along with Dianna Newton of Acton, acted as linesmen. Score keepers from both schools kept track of points.

After the game, both teams went into the school for doughnuts and juice.

Saturday, November 16 was a most exciting, eventful and busy day for the girls of Acton High school. The girls, as members of Acton's high school volleyball team, attended the CWOSSA volleyball tournament at the John Ross C.V.I. in Guelph.

Chesterly, Orangeville, Durham, Paris, Waterloo, Oxford and Acton high schools all participated in the round robin schedule. Paris was victorious. Because of lack of facilities for practice, the girls of Acton were called to play in Guelph.

Mrs. T. Justin returned home on Sunday from hospital in Guelph where she underwent an operation. Misses Doris and Donna Fountain were in Toronto over the week-end to see the Santa Claus parade on Saturday. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Woodhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alton and Ian, Guelph were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cutting, Marjorie and Bubbles.
