

THE PINAL MEETING of the Public Utilities Commission was held at the Utilities Office on Thursday, December 19, with Commissioners R. Everdell, C. Lindsay, and Secretary-Treasurer the above members of the commission all present. Pictured J. McGeachie. Chairman J. Stewart thanked the members for front row, left to right, are Mayor E. G. Tyler, Chairman J. J. their co-operation during the past year and expressed regret in Stewart, Commissioner F. G. Oakes; back row, left to right, losing the services of retiring Mayor E. G. Tyler.

Church Group Receive Gifts From Stocking

Jolly Old St. Nick, with Mrs Sants to help him, visited Priendly Circle meeting at United church on Wednesday evoning, and laden down with largest Christmas stocking ever seen in Canada, dutributed presents to the ladies of the group

The origin of the stocking, which was approximately 12 feet length, dates back to 1800, when the present owner, who owned a made for his wife.

The suit worn by Mrs Banta was also made at this mill and only worn by the family

The ladies formed a line and gifts were handed out to each lady in passing-with cheers and bells, Manta wished everyone a Merr Christmas, Mrs. Santa was Mrs. Ida Olsen and Santa, Mrs. Irene Douglas.

The group in charge had decor- ember 27th ated the church room with streamers and a beautiful tree Mrs Fran Leyland read the Christmas stery When I Was a Little Girl". Mrs.

Doris Kentner led in prayer. and Silent Night, in two parts, by the Explorer group of Action Untted church Two duets were ten dered, by Hartne, Levland and Loslie Ann Duby, and Marguet

Davidson and Leslie Ann Duby Christmas carols were sung. The

Get acquainted games were tent and requested the water auper-"Know your Local Newspaper" have them sent to the OWRC

A buffet luncheon was served | been taken to have E Braids sign Pauline Symon and her group for in his subdivision the lovely Chaistmas party.

Greetings were received from several out-of-town former members and out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Stella Adamson. Waterloo A social time was en-Joyed by all.

Santa Claus Visits Acton Y's Men's Club

The regular meeting of the Y Men's Club took the form of Christmas party, complete with turkey, a tree, a visit from Santa Claus and dancing. Among the guests were Mrs. Lorne Masters. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kratz of Kitchener. Rev. Gordon Adams was guest speaker and his theme was the windom of the Wise Men.

The jolly gentleman who delivered the gifts was hone other than Y's Man Doug Mason, Jack Carpenter enlivened the program with danger involved in this area when his. jokes and stories, and the Christmas carolling was staged by a group of six ted by 'Mrs. Jack if the commission had been in- cludes these four special seasonal Carpenter.

program and dancing, were a fit | owner ting and happy atmosphere where ry Christmas to one another.

Lorne Doberthein, as chairman flooding the house. for the party, was master of ceremonies for the evening and the whether the meter was shut off or people; success of the party was due to his not if the tank was not drained, itorganization.

Friends were sorry to hear of the passing away of the father of | Waterworks Mr. R. Bean formerly of Acton.

P.U.C. Receives Protesting Letter Utilities Office to Close Saturdays

A letter of protest from a resid- | Hydro Accounts Utilities Commission meeting on and remissed Thursday, December 19.

Declaring the taxes were too high in Acton and stating payment on the on the water and light bill could Lakeview aubdivision objected D PHISEL SEW

Enclosed in a letter to the PUC office was a pust-dated check for payment of the account.

Asked when the account was due McGeachie noted that the ac count was due on November 20 and the first notice had been sent out on December 3 and a final notice immed on December 13th The check received was dated Dec-

The commission, after a lengthy discussion, instructed the secretary treasurer to inform the meter readand a poem entitled "Christmas er to return the check and shut the moter off

The commission resolved to or The ladies enjoyed carol singing | der the Public Utilities office to closed on Saturdays commencing

December 28 It was understood that if any account falls due on the Saturday an extension would be allowed to the next day of business. Secretary-treasurer notified the new girls in attendance were call- commission that Len Owers of ed to the front, where Miss M Z the OWRC had taken tests at Bennett told them the history of the spring and although they were the origin of the Friendly Circle clear they showed a chemical con-played Mrs. Adams' group won the intendent to take further tests and contest, and 'Mrr Annetta Van Following the reading of the Fleet won the "Feed the Turkey" minutes of the previous meeting F Oakes asked what action had

Mrs. Edna Stewart thanked. Mrs. an agreement to install street lights J McGeachie informed the commusion an agreement had been drawn up and mailed to Mr. Braida, who had refused to sign it. At an earlier meeting, it was dis-Galt and Mrs Jean Wilhelm from cussed that Mr Braids had made a verbal agreement to install street as a subdivision. commission that Mr. Braids denied having made any promise to do so Mr. McGeachie was instructed to the statement was recorded.

been forwarded to the town from police efforts to keep such drivers some subdivision residents as to the 1 off the roads. structed to shut off a water meter

The dinner and address, with the in a house on Queen street; by the He informed the commission that goodwill, patience, courtesy and the Y's Men joined in saying Mer. | the hot water tank had frozen and considerateness for all other users apparently when it thawed it burst, of the roads: He was told that irregardless of trians, especially children and old-would still freeze.

proved for payment:

Sewerest

ini expressid regist

Chairman J J Siewart at the judgement offered by E C Tyler, jecting to a final notice threatening close of the mostly expressed his retiring Mayor, and council repreto turn the moter off if the bill was appreciation with the suffative with Complision mil tales and their ment in the part of their their the

Entiting mill, had the stocking when a final notice for payment Professional Acts Entertain Beardmore's Christmas Party

Over 350 children and parents; disappear with the usual customwere on hand to greet Santa Claus ary black hat and magic wand and entoy a program of variety acts at the annual Beardmore Company Christmas party, held this year in the auditorium of the Robert Little public school on Friday afternoon

Before the arrival of Santa, the audience enjoyed the anties of a trained seal act that had the child en rouring with Laughter as 'Jimmy" the seal performed his many, tricks of balancing balls, blowing horns and singing, under the handling of his master, James Tiebor The Tiebor family have been parcels to the anxiously awaiting in this work for 48 years, performing with Ringling Brus and other well known circuses

tained the children as the husband and wife team from Australia. dressed in Buffalo Bill contume and Annie Oakley style dress. coiled ropes around and b.oke the unorthodox manner attributed to professional performers Cheers went up as Santa arrived in all his splender to distribute balloons with a 22 calibre rifle in R R Packer acted as chairman for the program and for the dis-A magician act held the clidle, tribution of the gifts. Santa was en spellbound as 'Car' the assisted by staff members of the magician made articles appear and Beardmore Company plant

Christmas Eve

Four Ways Not to Get Killed

OBITUARY

Ontario's 2,000,000 car directs are to 4. Take it casy a holiday season ar the best possible way they can anyone express their seasonal spirit of gencrosity, good cheer and consideration for others W B G Reynolds, recently appointed Provincial Commissioner of Mrs. Annie Lazenby Highway Safety, today commended police and press throughout On- Buried in Fairview turio on their current campaigns for sensible and sober driving in the lights as soon as his land was sold year-end holiday season, a time when happy families have all too Secretary-treasurer informed the often in the past been tragically broken up by fatal or crippling dowing a lengthy illness. raffic accidents.

develop a climate of opinion which resided since In discussing the matter, the condemns people who insist on commission agreed not to take any driving cars when they are fatigued besides her husband to mourn her action as the property was private or have been drinking, a public loss. Thomas and Robert, both livland and previously complaints had attitude which offectively backs up ing at home.

On the positive side the Safety it had flooded during a rainstorm. | Commissioner's prescription for a Commissioner C. Lindsay asked safer and happier Christmas inpointers for Ontario motorists:

1. Translate your Christmas season goodwill toward all men into

2. Watch constantly for pedes-

: 3. Make it a habit to allow more engagement of their daughter space than you think you need: ber Eileen to Eugene McElhinney son The following accounts were ap- tween your car and the vehicle of John McElhinney and the late shead; for coming to a stop at in- Mrs. McElhinney tif Milton. The 4,088.07 tersections: wherever you might marriage will take place January 748.12 need to stop unexpectedly;

seing strongly inged on the eve of should be a time when hurry tand hristman 1967, to think of careful, with it the kinds of speeds that ourteous driving in holiday traffic kills is obviously of no profit to

Thursday, December 19, at the Rumley tuneral home for the late Mrs. Annie Lazenby who passed away Sunday, December 15, fol-

Daughter of the late George Ontario's daily toll of prevent- Worthy and Mary Anne Goodcheck the minutes of Planning able accidents has nearly always, child she was born in England in Board and council to ascertain if during the last ten days of the 1887. She married Robert Lasenby year, soured much above the year's in England and came to Canada in A request was carried from coun- average. If this sad state of at- 1938 where they first resided in cil to allow flooding of a piece of fairs is to be remedied in Ontario, Timmins and moved to Crewson's land in the Glenies subdivision, for this year, we must, he points out, Corners in 1906, where they have

Mrs. Lazenby leaves two son-

Rev. E. Jones conducted the funeral service from the Rumley funeral home. Interment was in Fairview cemelery, Acton. Pallbearers were Florw Turner and George Lazenby, nephews, Jack Airdrie. Ken McDonald, Leonard Cripps and Jack Croft were front row, left to right Councillor W Cook, Reeve J Brunelle, Councillor G Barbeau and Councillor F Wetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Plouffe of Ballinafad wish to announce the 11th, 1958.

Acton Children To Demonstrate On Television

Mrs Eileen Buckner will be de monstrating "Music and Move ment" on CKCO Channel 13 on Monday, December 20th at 110 The Acton children taking part will be Paul Costerus, Terry

- Many special Christmas church been featured in town this past

The Town Mouse, however, turned up his long nose at the rough country fare. "How is it, my friend," he exclaimed, "that you can endure the boredom of living like a toad in a hole? You can't really prefer these solitary rocks and woods to the excitement of the city. You are wasting your time out here in the wilderness.

A mouse, you know, does not live forever, one must make the most of life while it lasts. So come with me and

In the end, the Country Mouse allowed himself to be persuaded, and the two friends set out together on their journey to town. It was late in the evening when they crept stealth-ily into the city, and midnight before they reached the great house where

On the table of the splendid banquet room were the remains of a levish feast.

the Town Mouse lived.

I'll show you life and the town."

will be at the plane

Acton and Guelph Pianists Receive Medals at Recital Two young plants a from Acton Mrs Scull with a flower figurate and Gustph received Trinity Tea- as a token of appreciation for the mas resitul by pupils of Darothy ience. Richardson Scull, held in the Sanday at head team of Acton United church Tuesday evening

Huckey John Donathe L. S Maning Africa was a real plane. The medals were presented Mrs Kathleen Diggle of Guelph by the music teacher Dorothy Rubardson Scull, Georgetown, who congratulated the two girls for achieving such a high standing in their respective classes the class of 25 pupils, presented; Roses ther's bronze medals at the Christ- music teachers hard work and Ja"

Parents and frames attended the recital, which was followed by gather and refreshments and cathange of Christmas gifts. w to Mr E Scull in the cole of Ban': Claus but minus the beard and red

The program included the fol lowing selections. Ruth Ann Lawtherland. At the Skating Hink, Hurst, The Sleigh, Diane Ironside,

Garbage Collection

Carbage collection this week will In on Friday instead of Thursday, town officials announced Owing to the holiday on Thursday garbage will not be gathered until the following day. All home owners are asked to have their garbage in proper contellers and any papers should be tied securely in order to have all garlage picked up promptly, Town Foreman A Kirkinsa explained.

The milder weather has spealed the skating for the children

Sheron Bredley, Brahma Lulle-Gerry Root, Toy Soldiers, Sandra by Barbara No ton Blue Swans, Irwin, From a Wigwam, Birky Ir- | Donna Landsborough, Bilver Bells, onaide, The Singing Mouse, Jill Suranne Adams, Melody, Donna Lastger, Drifting Moon, Busan A Little Walts, Ter.y and Judy Heard, Caprice, Ella Juny and Papillon, A Merry Dance, Decar Dorothy Richardson, Scull, duet, Cochrane, At the Ice Ballet, Mar - Rendervous, Jean Lidken, Rhaptlyn Cripps, Hark the Herald An- | sorfy, Ella Jany, Bong Without gels Bing, Janet Adams, I Saw Words, Ruth Landsbourough, Peel Three Ships, Diane Swackharrer, Prelude; Mary Jane Force, Bon-Barbara Norton, on behalf of At Play, Sheldon Blow, Garden of ata; Helen Landstorough, A Moonlight Bleigh Ride

The Country Mouse and By AESOP

On the table of the splendid ben-NCE upon a time a Country nuet room were the remains of a Mouse who had a friend in town lavish Yuletide feast. It was now the invited him, for old acquaintance's turn of the Town Mouse to play host sake, to pay him a visit in the coun-He ran to and fro to supply all the try at winter holiday time. Though guest's wants. He pressed dish upon plain and rough and somewhat frugal dish and dainty upon dainty upon in his nature, the Country Mouse him as though he were waiting on a opened his heart and store in honor king. The Country Mouse, for his of an old friend. There was not a part, pretended to feel quite at home, carefully stored-up morsel that he did and blessed the good fortune that had not produce from his larder-peas and wrought such a change in his way barley, cheese parings and nuts-to please the palate of his city-bred

But in the midst of his enjoyment. just as he was beginning to feel contempt for his frugal life in the country, the sound of barking and growling could be heard outside the door. "What is that?" said the Country

Mouse. "Oh, that is only the master's dogs." replied the Town Mouse. "Only!" replied the visitor in dis-with my dinner." At that moment the door flew open and a party of revelers, together with two huge dogs, burst into the room good-bye, whispered in his ear: "This fine way of living may do for those who like it. But give me my barley bread in peace and in security in preference to your dainty fare partaken with fear and trembling." Moral: A crust caten in prace is better than a banquet partaken in may "I can't say that I like music

The affrighted mouse friends jumped from the table and concealed themselves in a far corner of the chamber.

At length, when things seemed quiet, the Country Mouse stole out from his hiding place, and bidding his friend

HEODORE NOWODZINSKI O 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.