

Over 300 Interested Spectators View Night School Student's Work

The display of the projects of Action Night School attracted about 300 interested people to the public school auditorium Monday evening. Handicrafts, arranged attractively around the walls, were inspected. A short program was presented followed by the serving of coffee and cookies.

New courses, this year, were accounting and tailoring. Proposed courses for next year were highlighted at one table, with examples of sketching, rug hooking and silk screen printing. Mrs. W. Beatty and Mrs. F. Van Wyck of Acton had taken the silk screen printing course from Mrs. Hoey, a noted designer who lives at Eden Mills. Art teacher, Miss Dorothy Stone of Stewartswood was another pupil. Her work attracted much comment.

Walter Pope of Georgetown taught accountancy, elementary and advanced typing pupils, whose teacher was Miss Jessie Galloway of the high school staff, had a small display.

The copper tooling exhibit was particularly striking, with a variety of articles. Mrs. Ewart Leyland was teacher again this year.

Spring and winter hats caught the ladies' eyes. Mrs. Frank Black of Georgetown taught the class.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie Conducts Service

Friday evening Rev. Andrew McKenzie of Knox Church, Acton, conducted pre-communion service at the Presbyterian Church.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed Sunday morning with a good attendance. Rev. A. McKenzie officiated. During the service Rev. A. McKenzie officiated for the baptismal ceremony for the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swanson. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnston of Acton, grandparents, and Mrs. H. Dyer, Rockwood, great-grandmother. A baptismal font made by Mr. Richard Harris, caretaker of the church was used for the first time. This was made last summer.

During the service Friday evening, two were received into membership of the church.

Weather over the weekend was an improvement of the brand of weather the previous week. Pretty hard on the fuel system in homes and business places.

By all appearances, a hydro pole on Valley Road missed being hit Saturday evening, as the marks of a car ploughed through the piled up snow from the village tractor and blade.

Miss Edna McNabb of Toronto was a recent visitor at the home of her father, Mr. Arch McNabb.

Dr. and Mrs. K. B. Waller, who were out of town for a few weeks, arrived home during the weekend.

Ash Wednesday was observed at St. John's Church last week with the rector, Rev. E. H. Jones officiating.

The Women's World Day of Prayer was held in the Presbyterian Church with a good attendance. Members of the three churches in the village took an active part. Rev. Fred Williamson of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, was guest speaker for the occasion.

Gas Appointment

Alex Blackwell New Manager

District manager for United Suburban Gas since the company commenced business in this area two years ago, James F. Robertson has been transferred to Hamilton where he will become manager of dealer services in a new department created by the company. His successor is Alex Blackwell, 12 Young St., Georgetown, who has been promoted from district foreman.

Mr. Robertson was a member of North Halton Golf Club, the Georgetown Lions and Curling clubs. An Esquinton native, he is the son of Mrs. M. Robertson and the late John F. Robertson, formerly of Acton.

Mr. Blackwell has had many years' experience in the natural gas field. A native of Dunnville, he first worked there with Dominion Natural Gas, later serving for 20 years as manager of the Port Colborne & Welland Gas Co. at Caledonia. Before joining United Suburban two years ago, he was possible. He referred to the help provided by the Chamber of Commerce and other interested groups.

Ontario Fire Marshal W. J. Scott pointed out that Halton was the first county in Canada to effect a county-wide program of mutual fire aid. In the intervening five years, no less than 25 other Ontario counties had followed Halton's example, and in Halton itself the number of municipalities had doubled, with each municipality having its own fire department.

Mr. Scott added that it was his hope and ambition that eventually every municipality in Ontario will be fully organized for fire protection. The fire marshal referred to the energetic leadership given by the late Reeve Lauder of Oakville in formulating the plan.

Mr. Scott presented to the city of Ottawa, the province of Ontario plaque as winner of the fire prevention award for large cities. The presentation to Chief Shaw was made by Charles S. Morgan of the National Fire Protection Association.

Our money making projects for this year were as follows: Valentine dance in February; a rummage sale in May; a booth at the Fall Fair, at which members sold knitted articles and aprons and held a draw for a dressed doll and bassinet; a cache and penny sale in November; a sale of baking in December; and our sale of cards and wrappings as in other years.

On Remembrance Day in November, our Chapter was represented in the parade to the cenotaph, and on Decoration Day in June, the members took part in the parade, and decorated the graves of servicemen and decorated Chapter members with plants and flags.
