Headliners Highlights
One of Acton's promising young bowlers, Al Roach, turned on the heat and came up with a 338 single to win the Gordon's Hardware award. Leo McGiloway can latch onto some of Bob Riddsdale's haberdashery. No one topped his 350 trounce. Dot Earle can call up 128 and have the "Tops Cleaners" do a spot of cleaning on the strength of that 723 triple. A neat 284 from Pauline McMillen shows we got the name right. This happened while yours truly was bowling inter-county at Oakville wins her IGA groceries. Sae Radford, Jill Morton, Cliff Wedge and Ray Toth were the budding sewer winners for the bottled products of Heinrichs, Seven-Up and Coca-Cola. Inter-county gang were at Oakville last Saturday on their way home. Next Saturday the boys go thataway to Streetsville. Coach Green wants to remind the Acton team to bring along their fur lined parkas for the trip. Nice to have Sunny Township drop in on us again. Get Jack McCutcheon to tell you how your truly opened up his big fat mouth and put his foot in it last Saturday evening. The laughs on me. And that antigay winds it up. Adios.

League standing: Beardmore 108, Sportsmen 101, Arrows 100, Leaders 89, Wolves 81, Headpins 82 (by golly, are they out of last place?), Tatters 54, Jets 51.

Teen-n-Under
March 1: Spitfires lost the first to Hound Dogs but were home free in the last to make it one and three. Teddy Bears roped and threw the Mustangs for two game loss while the Hawks were zooming high to shut out the Bear Cats. The doughty doublers on the morning's play were T. Wilson 305, W. Mason 300, Ian Jeffers 334 (201), Jim Bullough 343, P. Homer 377, K. Andrews 333, B. Shannon 364, E. Toth 400 (218). Some of our knee-high midgets are beginning to come up with respectable games. Dot Thompson 85, Dianne Angell 66, Jill Hurst 126, Jackie Bullough 97, Jill Morton 125, Lydia Woods 78. That's a fair score, considering some of them can barely hang onto the ball.

League standing: Spitfires 70, Teddy Bears 68, Hawks 59's,
