Williams' 620 was the tops for the winners with a 643 from W. Ridley being the losers' best. Unrelentable, with D. Until Guy's Cottage rallied and dimmed their light. The third was the clincher and it was Guy's Cottage. They dropped the decision and lost plenty of yartage. "Tugs a rough go between the 'call and haul' boys and the Station Hotel 'roll boys'. The winners had it in the clutch with B. Agnew 630 and G. Walker 404 (double) leading the hit parade. Action for the losers was headed up by D. Heston 600, B. Williams 643 and D. Van Fleet 603. Buckman 605, Reliable Taxi were in high gear for the first two against A-1 Delivery but the A-1 clan turned on the heat in the finale to snare one and the singleton for totals. Avro-Orenda Mixed

March 14: When the leading Bees met up with the second place Sportmen, it looked as if the Sportmen might throw a setback at the Bees, especially as the Sportmen wrapped up the first game quite handily. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Writer Pens Objection To Political Tactics

Oakville, Ont., March 15, 1958

The Editor, Free Press, Acton:

Dear Sir:

This afternoon, I had the pleasure of visiting Acton and in my travels called at your local Conservative Committee. I have in conversation with the group in charge, I was told that my presence was not an issue in this election.

Around the corner, I visited a friend who showed me a leaflet on the closing of the Wool Combing Co. which was distributed by the Conservatives a day or two before the election last June.

In view of the above indifference of the Conservatives to unemployment, I had to agree with my friend that the Wool Combing leaflet was no more than a political trick to gain votes at the expense of people out of jobs.

I am surprised that the Conservative candidate would condone such callous tactics because I believe the people of Halton, no matter what their political leanings, are deeply concerned about the follow out of a job.

Sincerely,
A. L. Whiting
