

Dublin Women's Institute Plan Fall Fair Displays

A large number of members attended the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Willard Britton, First Line, Esquimaux Mrs. M. Nellis, the president, occupied the chair and opened the meeting with the singing of the hymn "The Lord's Prayer" and the Institute Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call was responded to with a gift for the Halton Cancer Society.

Miss Rogers

Satisfactory reports were given of the penny sale and eucbre recently held at the Parish Hall, Acton. There was discussion and plans made for displays at the fall fair.

Miss W. McIntyre, Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. Willard Britton were named a committee to arrange details for the sale.

Points in the central were detailed which revealed that Mrs. C. M. Davidson's group were winners and Mrs. Clark Armstrong and her group will entertain the winners at dinner at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Thompson.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. Kennedy, Mrs. G. R. Somerville, and Mrs. M. McCullough, served a dainty lunch and all enjoyed a social time.

Several members brought quilt blocks which they had made for the Salada Tea Competition.

Guest Speaker

Peter K. McWilliams of Milton, was guest speaker, and outlined the good work that is being done by the Canadian Cancer Society, and showed a film supporting his address. It was a very timely address, and was enjoyed by the ladies.

Mrs. Norman Elliott gave a very enjoyable reading. Plans were made for a booth at an action sale in the neighbourhood. Mrs. George Robertson expressed the thanks of everyone to the speaker for his interesting and informative address, to all who had taken part in the program and to the hostess for the use of her home.

MR. AND MRS. T. MACK of Ballinacod celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Tuesday, March 18, at their home. Many friends, neighbors and relatives called on the couple to offer congratulations. Besides many lovely gifts, the couple received a telegram from the Premier and letters from members of Parliament.

Honor Local Couple On 49th Anniversary

Funeral of the late Mark Green, who passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, last week, was held at the family funeral home, Acton. Sympathy is extended to members of the family. Interment took place in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Two large bouquets of flowers which were at the funeral home, were placed in the Presbyterian Church in Rockwood, during service Sunday morning.

Work is going ahead in connection with preparations for the new bridge in the highway. A bulldozer from Acton was busy on Monday moving stumps on the side of the river adjoining Frank Stout's farm land. Guard railing along the highway adjoining the river was also removed. Logs in place for the bridge base are on the ice at present.

Miss Ada Waller of Hamilton was a week-end visitor with Dr. and Mrs. K. B. Waller.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young spent Sunday in Toronto.

Well cubs we have four more stars: Don Harris, Dave Chapman, Eddy Hubbell and Jim Paul.

Thanks to the help of Mr. McKnight and Sisters Neil Franklin and Don Harris, eight tests were passed last week! You boys of 11 and over had better really work as this is your last year in cub.

In the point system the Grey Six is leading at present with 41, the Red Six has 38 and the Blue is trailing with 34.

Remember you can make or lose points with your behaviour. It is up to you Sixers to keep your Six from losing points.

Mrs. A. M. McPherson Hostess for Meeting

Mrs. A. M. McPherson, Arthur St. was hostess to the members of Knox Ladies' Aid, Tuesday afternoon, presided over by Mrs. Wm. McLeod.

A worship service included the hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus." Mrs. Carl Hansen read the scripture lesson pertaining to the Easter story and Mrs. E. Grindell led in prayer.

General business included the report from the name committee regarding the work completed, with file laid in two rooms.

The new chairs and tables for the Sunday School were on order and delivery was expected very soon.

New projects were discussed for the spring but no definite plans made. Invitations were received for several coming events and a night chosen to attend Holy Week Service as a group.

The business period concluded with the hymn, "I Love to Tell the Story" and the Mizpah benediction.

During the social fellowship hour Mrs. H. H. Davidson read two appropriate poems on Springtime and Easter.

Miss G. Somerville conducted an interesting contact on "Though Our Grandmothers Did Not Enjoy." The winners were Mrs. S. Matthews and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and committee. They were given a vote of appreciation by Mrs. A. J. Murray.

Miss Jeanne Tovell, visited on Monday with Mrs. Margaret Tovell, Acton.

Spring is a treacherous highway time. Watch for ice slicks hidden on the shady sides of hills. Watch always for the unexpected.

Exports now account for about one fifth of Canada's national production, compared to almost one-third 30 years ago.

It takes friendly people like Jean Mailer...

...to serve friendly people like you.

Many things make good telephone service possible, but none is more vital than good telephone people. Jean Mailer is a typical example. As a skilled telephone operator, courteous and efficient, Jean symbolizes the thousands of people who help to make telephoning more enjoyable for countless Canadians in communities large and small.

Whenever you require assistance, friendly telephone people like Jean Mailer are there to help you—at any hour of the day or night.

This assurance, that there is a capable alert operator always as near as your telephone, is one of the many little things that make your telephone service such a truly good value.

(Intended for last week)

Mrs. MacPherson opened her home for the Ladies' Aid meeting on Wednesday evening, March 12. The president, Mrs. G. Aitken, presided. The devotion, "New Testament for an Unfinished Task" was given by Mrs. B. Bruce. The study book, "The Church by the Land Beyond" was read by Mrs. Ward Bruce.

The roll call, "An Irish Joke" proved very humorous. Business items were discussed. Final plans made for the taking sale to be held on the Guelph market on Saturday.

Mrs. McEwan, leader of the program, gave a splendid paper on the motto, "I Believe, So What?" A piano solo, "The Roses of Picardy" by Mrs. McKenzie was much enjoyed. A reading, "Miss Mahoney Goes to the Dentist" was given by Mrs. W. Bruce in her usual fine style.

A word contest was given, the winners being Mrs. Aitken and Mrs. Fuller. All read respectively the sixth chapter of Luke. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. MacPherson, after which sandwiches, cake and cookies were served by the hostess and her assistants.

Church Meeting

The Christian Women's Fellowship of Everton church held their monthly meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. D. G. Robertson, in the village. The secretary, Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury, read the minutes and thank you notes. Roll call was responded to with "A Commandment".

Two minutes' silence was observed in memory of two departed members. Mrs. John Alton was leader for the program, "Effective Women of the Church".

This took the form of an interview with four ladies of the early church: Priscilla, Mrs. Alton, Dorcas, Mrs. D. Stewart, Phoebe, Mrs. H. Horlop, Lydia, Mrs. D. G. Robertson. A thoughtful and sincere worship service was led by Mrs. H. Horlop.

During the business session, Mrs. H. Justin reported substantial proceeds from a lunch booth at the Robertson sale. An invitation was accepted by the O.P.P. Ladies' Aid. The ladies accepted an offer to cater to the Young People's banquet early in April.

Following the benediction, sandwiches, cake and tea were served and a social chat enjoyed.

Saturday morning Mrs. B. Clarke, Mrs. F. Fisher and Mrs. W. MacPherson were in charge.

O.P.P. Visit

Constable Frank Petty of the O.P.P., Guelph detachment, visited the local school on Tuesday afternoon and showed a film on safety. The constable answered the numerous questions. The children were quite enthused when shown the police equipment.

SUPPORT GOOD GOVERNMENT FOR A GREATER CANADA

DIENBAKER'S DYNAMIC PROGRAM GUARANTEES A BETTER LIFE FOR ALL OF CANADA'S PEOPLE—SOLID PERFORMANCE—NOT EMPTY PROMISES

- Old Age Pensions and other Social Security Payments increased to help the many who need state assistance. A revised system of Social Security under study.
- Tight Money Eased to aid business and industry; $300 million in new money to aid housing.
- A healthy agriculture based on guaranteed annual prices set in advance of the crop season; an end to dumping foreign farm products in Canada's home markets.
- A vast program of Public Works to provide needed facilities and to ease unemployment.
- A new deal giving added funds to the Provinces, in turn aiding the municipalities and helping the farmer and the home owner.
- Unemployment Insurance benefits extended, especially to ease seasonal unemployment problems.
- Income Tax reductions benefit 4 1/2 million taxpayers; 100,000 Canadians in lower tax brackets taken off the tax rolls.
- A huge program of natural resources development launched to develop new industries and to create scores of thousands of new jobs.

"Let me tell you that as long as I lead the Government of this country no one will suffer. I know the needs of the humble, the average Canadian. I know their ambitions, their hopes, and their feelings."
