March 24: Just when Crocodiles seem about to overtake Les Skunks, they have the misfortune to meet up with Les Skunks and Les Skunks give them the business. Said business consisting of a two and totals win for Les Skunks featuring the win was B Agnew 817 and C Bradley 608. Carol H. by the way, came up with a neat 802 in her triple effort. G. Oakes was the losers' best with 626. Chumps still feel comfortable in the third slot with a two and totals win from the Unreliables. The Unreliables won the first spang but faltered badly in the next two draps. A 67 from B Johnston, Monkeys with T. Masales coming up with a 630 triple, overwhelmed Ritters in the first, but Ritters got to rolling in the next two for a two game win. They couldn't overcome the big lead Monkeys pulled up in the first so had to be content with a 4-3 split. Top scores in the singles were M. Hurst 212, J. Fryer 224, D. Huddick 205, A. Williams 254, J. Hurst 206, P. Lawson 231.

Industrial - Commercial

March 26: While Beardmore fice's were putting the boots to Reliable Taxi for a two and totals win, A-1 Delivery were picking up four points via a two-game win from Station Hotel with the net result of Taxi and A-1 are all snafued up at the top of the league. Beardmore's E. Ryan with a 679, along with H. Gimmer's 653, head of the winners for Station Hotel. Goy's Cartage are making a stretch run for a play-off spot and the two and totals win from Acton Auto Body keeps them alive and kicking. Best score in this last go came from Acton Auto Body. O. Chapman's 601. Almost forgot to mention D. Van Pleet's 430 double. He goes through the motions for Goy's. By the same token, E. Lawson of Reliable had a 479 double.

Beardmore

March 24: Rolling Room are again booming up as a threat in the second series. They all out with Curry with only three weeks left in the schedule has the leading Upper Leather looking back over their shoulders in a perturbed fashion seeing as how Upper Leather were getting the short end of a 5-2 go from Outside. Beamhouse kept the boys in check with a two and totals win from Chrome. The boys were really trundling on the upper platform were P. LeSueur 737 (341), G. Masales 720, A. Roach 701 (319), J. Pink 776 (317). On the next level were B. Brooks 611, H. Lambert 634, J. Dunn 625, A. Lillie 604, I. Masales 611, J. Zajac 611, M. Lafferrere 618, C. Hubbell 613, H. Lambert 607, G. Cunningham 601.

Acton Ladies

March 26: Suddenly it's spring and Eisen's are out of last place. In fact, by busting out all over with a three-game win from Prouse Motorettes, the Eisen girls have barreled up to the fourth spot. Prouse Motorettes had sported Frank Prouse sitting on the bench. Better he "stood in bed". The girls were jittery and blew the duke J. Knight hit for a 775 tricot and it led Cooper's Drug Store to a two and totals win from Lovell Bros. P. Fryer of Lovell Bros. tried hard to offset the Knight's score with a neat 677. Mildred Bell's came home abreast in the first two games with Pega Punks, then the latter decided enough was enough and powerhouse the last one for a one and totals win. Crispwing singles on the score sheet were B. Woods 234, R. Hulford 219, M. Hoare 202, B. Anderson 210, V. Cochrane 221, V. Arbie 220, J. Burt 208, V. Baker 205, P. Lawson 202, I. Breen 210, N. Hurst 219, E. Loutlet 251.

Legion Ladies

March 24: Dim Wits crowded back up alongside Crifines on the top rung when they met up with the crabsire leaders and took them for two and totals. Doodle Bugs revived their play-off hopes when they made every game a winning one from Half Wits. M. Reid was the star of the night's bowling with a 607 tricot. Coming up with those big single games were S. Foley 221, P. Aung 226, J. McKnight 208, J. Bullough 235, M. Cooney 219.

Ledger's I.G.A.

March 24: E. Huxter, who threaded a string of 263-200-105 for a 667 triple was "Mr. Big" in the Party Dolls' two and totals win over Susie-Qs. The win brought the Dolls right up on the Susie's heels. E. Thompson crashed through with a 203 single to uphold the honor of the fan sex in the bowling field.

Mason Knit

March 25: Bobby Pins and Happy Gang hooked up in a duel that could have meant a change in leadership, but the Bobby Pins, by packing in one big game and totals, still have first place in their grasp by two points. J. McCrea was the "blonde bomber" for the Happy Gang with a 607 triple. Highlanders nosed out Gabby Gals for the first two and then turned on the heat in the finale to make it a clean sweep. J. Masales with a 615 triple paced the winning Highlanders. Sky Larks vacated the cellar at the expense of Alley Cats by rugging up a two and totals go on the win register. H. Goodwin sparked the Sky Larks with a neat 608 triple. The brass ring for singles went to C. Wallis 208, F. Perkins 225, A. McLaughlin 231, S. Owen 231, M. Ware 230, L. Toth 229, M. Bennett 213, D. Tyler 201, S. Roy 248, E. Robertson 200.

Acton Mixed

March 25: Jokers broke the first place tie when they out-rolled the Rock-n-Roll for the big side of a 5-2 go. Green's 800 was best for the winners with B. Martin slanting a 715 for the losers. Rovers, after perching snugly alongside of Jokers in the first place spot, came a cropper when Goons larrupped them for the works. R. Hulford's 704 triple highlighted the win. Trying for the honors but getting nothing were N. Martin 602 and E. Ryan 606. Swing and Sway took the first game from Smoothies and then Smoothies lowered the boom and grabbed the last two and totals. Smoothies' big nose was J. Knight with a bang-up 719 triple. D. Scoyne was top trundler for the losers with 638. The single shooters were Jack Bullough 236, H. Townsend 302, H. Tuffin 228, M. Storey 212, H. Rogers 223, P. Turkoar 258, M. Townsend 203, B. Acton Teachers

March 27: With G. Booth leading the way with a 648 triple, Pin Ups made every game a winning one and the seven point win jumped them up into first place. B. Andrews with 761 was the traid blazer for Pulverata and every game went into the Polecats' win column and instead of being lonehose, 11 Polecats at the bottom of the heap. Polecats are now in second place. Some of the singles are worthy of mention, O. Carmon 266, H. Rogers 260 and a 208 from Holy W., who ever she is he may be.

Headpin Highlights

The inter-county boys hooked up with Streetsville in one of their ace no quarter take no quarter. It was all dollars and dimes and the Actonians won two, but dropped the odd point for totals. Acton has a four point lead. Next week the trek is Milton way. This coming Saturday some of the boys go Toronto way to hit the Molson. Hottest bowler in the inter-county was four batsman, Hill Williams. Twice this sometimes bowler, sometimes freeman dashed out from his bowling in answer to the fire alarms. The Seven Up, Bonhart's and Coca-Cola refreshments were served by the hidden scores of Dianne Angell, Carol Goodwin, Ver Rosch, Pat Homer and Terry Waterhouse. Four-year-old David Chetwin tried his hand at bowling together afternoon. Knocked the pins over for a score of 37. A double winner was Joan Knorr 17. With a 775 triple and 298 single she was both the I.G.A. goosie and the Tops Cleaners' cleaning job. Phil LeSueur didn't strain any muscles by sneering this week and trundled a 341 single. It was the Gordon's Hardware award. It's a case of Bob seeing Bob this year around by the hand, then headed them into oblivion as far as points were concerned, although O. Waters did come up with a 661 tricot for Tatters. In the fourth and final shut-out of the night, Headpins ambled down the win trail with nary a backward glance. It was a total win. Wolves, D. Mulcator surprised herself and mates when she wound up top bowler with a 648 triple. B. Drinkwater with a 601 triple to rally the Wolves into a win but it was not to be. On the single theme, we have J. Chetwin 221, J. Irvine 201, I. Breen 242, M. Pope 221, J. Pope 211, G. Tyson 231, A. Johnson 205, V. Greygoose 206, T. Swift 206, E. Swift 240, G. Richardson 206, A. McGowan 202, D. Milligan 234.

Avro-Orenda Mixed

March 28: Well, it's a rat trap offence, mates! race for the top three teams in the Avro-Orenda league. Top three teams are grouped under a four-point spread. It all came about via the shut-out route. Arrows pierced the Bees' hides in the first seven-point game with the Earle combo of D and E trundling 665 and 606 respectively to pace the winners. Only two to get abuzzin' was A. Buxter with 619. Sportsmen weren't lying up to their necks in the night. Leastwise Jets didn't think so. They grounded Jets for the works with T. Davison showing the Sportsmen the way home with a 652. In the third shut-out of the night, Leaders with G. Booth busting out a 677 effort, led Tatters around by the hand, then headed them into oblivion as far as points were concerned, although O. Waters did come up with a 661 tricot for Tatters. In the fourth and final shut-out of the night, Headpins ambled down the win trail with nary a backward glance. It was a total win. Wolves, D. Mulcator surprised herself and mates when she wound up top bowler with a 648 triple. B. Drinkwater with a 601 triple to rally the Wolves into a win but it was not to be. McGowan 202, D. Milligan 234.

Teen-n-Under

March 28: Well, it's Teddy Bears turn to take over first place. They roped, hogged and threw the Mustangs for a total loss and a five point win. Spitties reluctantly surrendered first place when the pesky Hound Dogs came anappin' and assumin' at them for a total win. Hawks after losing out in the first go to Bear Cats, got to cracking in the last canto and wound up with the right side of the 2-2 go. Top double shooters were K. Andrews 314, C. Wedge 307, P. DORRIN'S DECLINE

CALGARY (CP) - Only 16 licensed houses were kept in Calgary in 1937 except in Stampede Week. In 1930, the city licensed 171 houses in dances, packing companies and bond firms. Now only the stockyards and a packing house keep teams. One of the three remaining blacksmiths, hammering at a truck axle, said, "I couldn't make a living today just shoeing horses."

Knox Heather Club Hold March Meeting

The regular meeting of the Knox Church Heather Club was held at the home of Mary Mann on March 26th, with Alice Waldie presiding. Gladys Davidson opened the meeting with prayer and Laura MacFarlane read the scripture from John 19: 1-7. Roll call was answered by 19 members and a guest for the meeting.

After the secretary's and treasurer's reports were adopted, Helen Maron read an invitation to the club from the Daughters of Knox to attend their last dinner on April 19.

In discussing the general business, it was decided that the club members would attend the church service on Wednesday, April 2nd for the week of prayer. Members are to meet in the classroom.

Alice Waldie expressed her thanks to the girls who made the tea and baking such a success. After the reading from the study book by Myrl Kirkness, the meeting closed with the Mazza benediction.

An enjoyable game of "Tilly Williams Laces" was played by the members and then all enjoyed a delightful time over tea, coffee and sandwiches.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Mann for the use of her home. The April meeting is to be held at the home of Gladys Davidson, R.R. 3.
