March 31: Leo Skunks are still ambulating along in first place by virtue of a two game win from Unreliables. They almost made a clean sweep but the Crocs snapped up the second game by five pins. Monkeys were out to grab one and needed points when they took Chumps in to camp for the big edge of a 5-2 go. This was the only go to produce the big triples. A Williams 601, J Hurst 639 and G Hulford 736. ## Over 200 Children Roam Park In Annual Easter Egg Hunt

Over 200 children participated in the annual Easter egg hunt sponsored by the Acton Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday of this week.

Flocking to the park by the scores, children began their search for the valuable slips of paper hidden throughout the area, that meant the possibility of a big prize.

Officials earlier had hidden colored slips of paper in the park and the children who within the hour recovered the most pieces of paper were rewarded with Easter eggs spread evenly.

In the race against time, children were seen running to and fro from pillar to post, rooting among the tall grass and even peering longingly into the waters of Fairy Lake in hopes that a fish might appear with a few slips for them.

Came time to tally up the slips and eager children crowded around the judges some with one slip and others with a mitt full.

Dave Docherty, Y. Secretary, shouting above the din called out the winners of the combination boxes and lined up to receive their prizes were Jack McKenney, Fred Landry, Mary Grishow, Harold Braam and David Papillon.

Other winners of large, medium and small Easter eggs are: Victor Boach, David Beerman, John Price, Derek Braam, Margaret McKenzie, Julie Papillon, Vince Houseman and Gordon Williams.

All children entering the contest were rewarded with an all day sucker, and as the last child to leave the Y was departing the secretary began the chore of picking up the sucker wrappers left behind by the tired but happy gathering.
