

Elect Officers, Plan Projects For Acton Women's Institute

Mrs. William Denny, Brock Avenue, was hostess for the April meeting of the Acton Women's Institute. Members sang the W.I. Creed and repeated the prayer, to open the meeting, with the president, Mrs. George Fryer, presiding.

The roll call was answered by naming "a flower I intend to plant in my garden this year" and paying of fees. Several quilt blocks were brought in but owing to the information regarding the "Salada" competition coming so late, the size of the blocks was not in accord. It was decided to withdraw from the contest.

Invitations were received to send two members to the T.H. annual dinner meeting Mrs. George Hargrave and Miss Marjorie Hall were chosen.

Reports
Mrs. G. Fryer reported on the plans to have water and drainage supplied for the bath in the park. The president and conveners all gave reports of the activities in their department the last year, reviewing the many fine meetings held during the past months.

Mrs. Wm. Hallentine, a member of the Federated Board, was in charge of the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

New Officers
Past president, Mrs. R. L. Davidson; president, Mrs. George Fryer; first vice-president, Mrs. George Lazenby; second vice-president, Mrs. George Hargrave; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Maddox; branch directors, Miss Betty Young, Mrs. R. Brown and Mrs. C. Mapleston; district director, Mrs. R. L. Davidson.

Auditors, Mrs. William Denny, Mrs. P. Anderson, work group, Mrs. Earl Lambert, Mrs. L. Maslin; youth committee, Mrs. G. Fryer, Mrs. W. Maddox, Mrs. Marjorie Hall; pianist, Mrs. Gantley; flowers and cards, Mrs. Holloway; gifts and prizes, Mrs. R. Brown, Mrs. C. Nellis.

Conveners agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. I. Harris; home economics and health, Mrs. Buckland; citizenship and education, Mrs. Marjorie Hall; historical research and current events, Mrs. George Lantz and Mrs. R. Brown.

New Members
Some new names were added to the membership and the losing group in the attendance and roll call contest will provide the entertainment for the May social meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Lambert. The meeting closed with singing "The More We Get Together."

The committee served refreshments and were pleased to use the gift serviettes adorned with daffodils, the symbol of hope, to introduce the cancer campaign. A vote of thanks was tendered to the hostess and all present for their cooperation during the meeting.

Water Y's Club Hold Practice For Swim Show

Chris Denny attended the Father and Son swim meet at the Guelph YMCA pool on Thursday, April 10, and successfully completed his trials for a five star event.

Jim Buckland, swim instructor, reports the club now has four five star swimmers.

On Friday evening the club prepared for their summer swim show to be held in the park and the swimmers showed excellent timing in their synchronization swims, as coaches Joan Smith and Jim Buckland put them through their paces in the Guelph pool.

Y Secretary D. Ischert reported the main problem is providing transportation from Acton to the Guelph pool for the Friday classes. He requests any interested citizens to phone him at the Y.

LIMEHOUSE

Presbyterian W.M.S. Hear Guest Speaker.

Mrs. A. M. Brewston of Georgetown was guest speaker at the Easter thankoffering meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian W.M.S. held at the home of Mrs. Kirkpatrick on Wednesday evening.

Having been a nurse in India, she brought a very interesting and moving story of conditions there.

There is a great need for help in providing missionary and maintaining them. Mrs. Brewston was introduced by Mrs. Benton and thanked by Mrs. Smethurst.

Mrs. E. Kain, accompanied by Mrs. Roughley at the piano, sang two lovely solos. Scripture was read by Mrs. Roughley and Mrs. Smethurst led in prayer.

The text word answered in a verse of scripture was Faith. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served to the 22 attendees.

Guest Preacher
Pastor Moti Lal of India was guest preacher with Rev. A. Calder at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday. A large congregation listened to a splendid speaker even after the service ended.

Benefit Euchre
Quite a number of friends and neighbors of Gary Scott attended a benefit euchre and dance, sponsored by the Women's Institute in Limehouse, Memorial Hall on Thursday night.

Prize winners at cards were Mrs. Charles Jones and E. Lewis, second prizes going to Mrs. J. Crichton and Roy Culp. Following dancing, the W.I. served lunch.

Gary's father, Earl Scott, thanked everyone for their kindness on Gary's behalf. Gary recently began to walk for the first time since he was injured May 17, 1957. We wish him continued improvement.

Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. E. Coburn and children of Toronto visited the Roughleys on Thursday.

Joy Patterson spent her Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith at Weston.

Y Table Tennis Draws Interest During Easter

During the Easter holidays, an impromptu table tennis tournament was held on Thursday, April 10, with 18 members present taking part.

The ladies' tournament saw Carol Bradley defeat Georgina Nolan 21-10 and Elaine Bradley defeat Pauline Marks by the same score, in the semi-finals.

Carol was acclaimed champ for the day in the finals when she topped Elaine 21-13.

In the boys' competition, Brian McCristall was in top form as he wrestled the crown away from Don Price in the semi-finals. Don Price conquered Keith Mattocks 11-6 and Brian McCristall defeated Michael Churchill 11-8.

In a whirlwind wind-up Brian applied pressure and had Don bouncing from pillar to post as he whipped him 21-10.

The winners and runners-up received Easter eggs for prizes.

Mayor W. Cook Stresses Safety

The moral responsibility campaign for safe driving now being conducted by the Ontario Department of Transport, Mayor W. H. Cook of Acton pointed out today, merits the closest attention and co-operation of all the drivers and pedestrians in the province, all of the time. As the campaign slogan puts it, "You are morally responsible for safe driving."

"Right now," Mayor Cook emphasized, "is the best time for drivers and pedestrians to re-examine their own personal actions and responses to the changing traffic picture, and to accept moral responsibility for avoiding the conflict that brings on accidents."

Knox Church Group Visit Halton Manor

The Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian church made their annual visit to Halton Centennial Manor on Wednesday, April 9.

They were accompanied by their minister, Rev. A. H. McKenzie, who brought greetings and an Easter message. E. A. Hansen and members of Knox church choir were also present and presented the cantata "He Lives Again."

Lunch was served to all and a lovely evening of Christian fellowship was enjoyed.
