MR. AND MRS. ED McHUGH are shown following their recent wedding in St. Paul's United Church, Milton. The bride, the former Pauline McMillan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillan of Milton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McHugh of Acton. The couple are residing in Milton.

Spring Vows in Milton Church Pauline McMillan Weds E. McHugh

St. Paul's United Church, Milton, decorated in white mums and snapdragons on a green corda background, was the setting for the spring wedding of Pauline Jean McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillan, of Bronte St., Milton, to Edward McHugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McHugh, 112 Guilph St., Acton.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Graham on Saturday evening, April 19.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress featured a long bodice of lace which formed points over the full-layered skirt of tulle applique with matching lace. The appliqued neckpiece was headed with iridescent sequins, and she wore a tulle headpiece jewelled with beads and sequins, which held her fingertip veil of silk illusion net. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with white stephanotis.

Wilma Watson, Milton, friend of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of white embroidered nylon over turquoise taffeta. She carried a cascade of pink carnations with turquoise tulle. Bridesmaid Marjorie Ware of Acton wore a matching gown of white embroidered nylon over pink taffeta, and carried a cascade of blue carnations with pink tulle. Both gowns were ballerina-length with matching shoes and feathered hats.

The groomsmen were Gordon Holmes of Acton and others were Herb Duda and Wilson Alkonby Jr., both friends of the groom from Acton.

Soloist John McHugh, brother of the groom, sang The Lord's Prayer and Because, accompanied by Mrs. H. Magee on the organ.

Receiving 55 people at the reception in the Union Hall, Milton, the bride's mother chose a gown of powder blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by the mother of the groom who wore a dress of navy blue flowered crepe, with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The hall was decorated in anapragmas.

For the honeymoon trip to the Northern States the bride chose an embroidered white sheath dress, black patent leather shoes and purse, white hat and gloves, and a powder blue coat. She wore a corsage of red roses.

They are residing in Milton. Guests attending were from Acton, Milton, Toronto, Brampton, Georgetown and Glen Williams.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honored at three showers. On March 28, Miss Wilma Watson and Miss Marjorie Ware held showers for the bride at the Watson home for Milton and Acton friends. On

Explain Food Preparations At Friendly Circle Meeting

Wednesday evening of last week, the Friendly Circle of the United Church had as their guests the ladies of the Christian Reform Church. The meeting was held in the Sunday school room of the church.

Canadian Foods and How to Prepare Them was the program for the evening. The ladies on a panel explained foods and how to prepare them. Mrs. Edna N. Liss took part and told many of the tricks of the trade in preparing Mrs. Charlotte Ledger told about canning goods and the different sizes and qualities and how price and quality was determined.

Mrs. Dorothy Hayswood spoke on squash vegetable marrow, and brooch and told of the many tasty dishes that could be made from these vegetables. Mrs. Doris Kendall explained sweet potatoes and pumpkins and how to cook them in a number of different delicious ways. Mrs. Mary McKenzie considered why Canadian women should use their own produce on the table. Mrs. Frances Wilson discussed how Canadian women cook potatoes in many different and appetizing ways.

Mrs. Joy Bothwell very ably explained the best of different combinations for sandwiches fillings. Mrs. Pauline Symon made a plate of vegetable soups for which she prompted several questions from the guests.
