Mrs. W. Kirkwood Opens Home To Women's Institute Meeting

Mrs. William Kirkwood was the hostess for the May meeting of the Women's Institute. The meeting was held at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Norman Schaefer was the guest speaker. The meeting opened with the playing of the national anthem. Mrs. Kirkwood presented a report on the work of the institute during the past year. The report was well received and the women were glad to hear of the success of the institute. Mrs. Kirkwood also presented a report on the work of the home. The report was also well received and the women were glad to hear of the success of the home. The meeting closed with the playing of the national anthem.

Turkey Supper
The turkey supper held in the United Church on Tuesday night was quite a success. About 250 enjoyed the delicious supper. A short program of piano duets, a chorus by the Sunday school children, a solo and a trio by the given's sisters, a reading by Mrs. Jesse McEnery and music by the McEnery orchestra, was presented. Mr. Neelon quite ably acted as chairman.

Special Service
Mother's Day service was held in the church with Mr. K. J. Halifax, who is graduating the last of this month from Toronto College, as guest speaker. He gave a very fine sermon relating to Mother's Day. The junior choir sang and Mr. Neelon and a friend, Tom George, a student friend in college whose home was in India, sang a duet. "The young Sun be as Scarlet, It will be as White as Snow." Mr. George has been visiting with Mr. Neelon the past week.

Local Views
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean on the arrival of a fine bounding log boy in Guelph Hospital. Maurice Baker and Arnold McEnery, who are in Toronto General Hospital, are improving nicely and hope to soon be home. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Speers of Caledon visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery on Friday. Miss Lois Campbell, R.N., of Guelph, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery on Sunday. Miss Annie Gibson of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gibson on Sunday. Passes Recently Jerry Kentner, a life-long resident of Baltimore, passed away Sunday morning in his sleep after a short illness. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kentner. He is the last of the family. The funeral, which included Joseph and Mrs. Tom Hughes, will be held at the home of Mrs. Tom Hughes, 125 Main St., on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment was in the cemetery.

St. Alban's Guild Holds May Meeting

The regular meeting of the St. Alban's Ladies Guild was held in the Parish Hall on May 7 with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. G. Harbeau, was in the chair. The meeting opened with the Guild prayer, followed by a hymn. Mrs. R. Healey read the scripture lesson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer's report was given. Among the business discussed was the necessity of keeping the supply of Guild dishes in good repair, and increasing the number of settings. It was decided to have a visiting committee be a part of the executive newly elected each year. It was felt that the fall bazaars should follow a Christmas theme, and final plans were made for same. Mrs. B. Dolphin, Mrs. V. Mallocks and Mrs. A. Newton were appointed conveners for a wedding reception which the Guild will cater for.
