District Lawyer Addresses Catholic Women's League

The Rockwood and Oustic Catholic Women's League held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Frank, Rockwood, with Aldo Braida, district lawyer, as guest speaker.

Mr. Braida's subject was "Wills and Estates." He explained in detail many generally unknown facts that, if known, will save much time and expense such as the phrase, "I hereby revoke all for..."

Dublin W.I. Plan Projects At May Meeting

Mrs. William McIntyre was hostess for the Dublin Women's Institute meeting last Thursday at her home on the Town Lane, Nassauwaya. Mrs. M. Nellis, the president, was in the chair and presided for the opening exercises.

Mrs. A. Neer, the retiring secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting before handing the books over to Mrs. C. Armstrong, who called the roll. The roll call for this meeting was answered by "Naming a community project that you would like to see carried out."

It was decided to again have the contest for answering the roll call properly at the meetings and Mrs. A. Neer and Mrs. D. Moffat were named captains of the two groups. The July meeting will be held in Dublin school and the Nassauwaya W.I. ladies are to be guests.

Discussion took place about the proposed division of Halton County Women's Institutes. The members were in favor of remaining as at present. It was decided to have a member attend the "Third Year local leaders' training school."

Mrs. George Robertson reported on attending the T.H. dinner. Plans were made for preparation of articles for Milton and Acton Fall Fairs. There was considerable discussion regarding the annual bus trip but no final decision was made.

Mrs. J. A. Van Fleet reported on preparations for the Decoration Day parade on June 1 and asked for sandwiches $10.00 was also donated toward the expenses. Mrs. George Robertson and Mrs. H. Blyth had attended the Halton County Cancer Society dinner and Mrs. Blyth reported on it.

Mrs. Pearl Kennedy exhibited a quilt book containing about a dozen blocks, which had been shown and was awarded the prize at the District Annual at Norval. The quilt blocks had been all beautifully made by hand, all of different patterns, and were bound in a beautifully covered book. The ladies were very much interested in the originality and beauty of the handwork.

Mrs. Sandra Blyth, accompanied by Mrs. George Robertson, sang two songs very delightfully. Mrs. William McIntyre reported on her trip to Guelph O.A.C. to attend the Officers' Conference early in May. Mrs. Charles Thompson was courtesy convener. Mrs. Willard Britton, Mrs. N. Elliott and Mrs. C. McIntyre assisted the hostess in serving a delicious lunch.
