LEGION NEWS

Anyone not attending the Stag last Friday night will surely miss the wonderful entertainment by Vince Moniford and his entertainers. The troops from Hampton provided a full evening of music and laughter for the large turnout of Legion members. Present with Mr. Moniford were two attractive girls who entertained with ringtones, on the accordion singing and tap dancing. Accompanying Vince with his sense of witty songs and riffs were his son and a young girl. All five of the troops kept the ball rolling as they were applauded time and time again for an encore. Following the entertainment a hot lunch was served. Let's have a full turnout for the next one. Don't forget the Decoration Day service this Sunday. Parade forms up at the Legion Hall at 11 a.m. to march to the C.N.R. station. Don't forget the general meeting on Monday evening. A big turnout would be appreciated. The executive have planned to show some films. Come out for the meeting and pay for the movie.

CHURCHILL

Comrade O. B. Brown, has returned from the hospital still convalescing at his home. Branch will be home from a quick recovery. Long time morning last week about a little thing trip a few of the lads took on north when the thing was completed. Some of the boys, Hank, Hal, and Tom, and some of the lads, turned out to have the proper clothes. They have a couple of big ones. The lads and Bill, even came home without even a tiny one to be about. Check up lads, we all know it was the weather and Branch is looking forward to the day when you return home with a large enough catch to supply a fresh fish dinner for the members lads. Lads from the front of the party would be Hector Lambert and Hugh O'Brien, leaving up to manage a team in the Minor Sports league this summer. Mr. E. E. case of M.H. can't beat him. No doubt you will recall some of the lads by the two lads got into last year during the ball season. It was all in a day's work. As for the donations for the Bruce Andrews Fund can still be found in E. A. Patrick.

Executive Secretary To Visit Overseas

Mrs. Kenneth Knox, former executive secretary of the Canadian Save the Children Fund, left Canada on Tuesday, May 27 to visit the overseas branches working with children throughout Europe on behalf of the Fund. While in Europe, Mrs. Knox will attend the International Union of Child Welfare in Geneva, Switzerland and the World Child Welfare Congress in Brussels, Belgium. The primary object of her visit will be the opening of a Nursery Demonstration Centre, built and equipped through the contributions of Canadians in Trieste, Italy. Mrs. Knox will also take this opportunity to see personally the Bahemof Children's and Babies home in Germany where for some years the children have been clothed by Canadian donations. She will also visit the Hospital for Crippled Children at Herznager, Austria, to which the Canadian Fund contributed $20,000.00 and in whose name four avenues are dedicated. She will witness at first hand the destitution and poverty which the full-worked in Greece must constantly deal in particular visiting the Save the Children Fund home established to train nurses in child care, and a leper colony whose blind child members are of particular concern to the Canadian Fund.

Hold Presentation For Local Newlyweds

A presentation was held last Friday night at Westside School for Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Swackhamer on the occasion of their recent marriage. There was a good turnout to wish the happy couple the best of luck. The evening was spent playing cards. Mr. E. Davidson was the chairman and called Mr. and Mrs. Swackhamer to the front. The address was read by Mrs. J. Lightle and they were presented with two step-up tables in blond wood and two lovely table lamps. Mr. and Mrs. Swackhamer thanked their friends very appreciatively. Several people gave congratulatory speeches. Lunch was then served by the ladies. The sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to the family of Clinton Swackhamer, who passed away last week. The funeral was held Monday from the United Church, Hillsburg. Interment was in Churchill cemetery.

Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Les Swackhamer and family and Mrs. Al Swackhamer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dirk Van Gossen in Hamilton last Friday. On Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner were hosts at a winter road for the teachers of Acton public schools. All had an enjoyable time.

United Church Group See Dress Modelling

The Friendly Circle of Acton United Church met in the home of Mrs. Tamis Tronade on Wednesday of last week. The group in charge had as their feature program "Fashions for 1958". Modelling the future "chic" fashions were Mrs. Helen Kemmer, Mrs. Jean Youngblood, Mrs. Ruth Miller, Mrs. Shirley McKinnon, Mrs. Marie Chapman, Mrs. Pauline Symon and Mrs. Marjory Struthers. These dresses were designed by the models. A special dress designed by Mrs. Tamis Tronade and modelled by Mrs. Shirley Armstrong was so designed that it could be worn for day or night. It could be worn for a nightgown or an afternoon dress and with a very few alterations, an evening gown. Mrs. Nora Foster read an article from a fashion magazine telling the origin of the chemise. The writer indicated the chemise is here to stay. Prizes were awarded for the most original trimming on the gown. First prize went to Mrs. Freda Perkins, second to Mrs. Fern Layland and third to Mrs. Edna Bellis. Mrs. Edith Jenning, presided for the business. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Irene Macleod and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Nella Van Fleet. Mrs. Shirley Armstrong gave a report from the official board and it was decided to give another $200 to the building fund. Plans were discussed for the picnic and it was decided to go to the smorgasbord in Kitchener. A lovely lunch was served by the group in charge and a social time was enjoyed by all. Mr. Ruth Miller read the scripture.

WILL VISIT HERE

E. L. Crawford will appreciate a hearty welcome when he calls on friends of the Lord's Day Alliance in Acton. The aim of this organization is to preserve the Lord's Day in its integrity and to secure for the whole community the right to its full enjoyment and to promote the privileges of all Canadian citizens to their freedom from unnecessary toil on Sunday, our national weekly day of rest.
