S.S. Association Holds Assembly

The annual convention of Brampton Sunday School Association was held last Tuesday evening June 2 at Mimico United church with a fair attendance. James Lowry was chairman for the occasion.

Following a brief devotional period, some discussion relative to Sunday school work was carried on. Rev. Mr. Hazelwood was guest speaker for the occasion. The convention is slated for Eden Mills United church next year.

Aniversary Service

The 25th anniversary services of the United church were held Sunday with large congregations. Rev. Professor W. Morrison Kelly, M.A. B.D., S.T.M., Old St. Andrews Emmanuel College, Toronto, was the anniversary minister. Rev. G. A. Moore conducted the services.

Special numbers by the choir were also enjoyed. Subjects of the visiting minister for morning and evening services were, Life Goes On and Jesus Challenges to Men.

Before and after the morning and evening services, the tower broadcasting system was carried out, with treasured carillons which were very pleasing to those outside the church.

O.A.C. Visit

Sunday afternoon, the grounds of the O.A.C. in Guelph were a mecca for lovers of spring flowers, which were in fine bloom. Irises were the predominating flower, which were a sight to those who took advantage of the opportunity.

Members of the Guelph Camera Club were present, also Don Hilda and daughter Donna, and Richard Harris. Photographic conditions were not so good owing to cloudy weather but, towards evening, brighter weather conditions were available for viewing the flowers and plants in the main greenhouse and photographing special blooms.

Dedicate Window

An item of special interest, to Rockwood people was carried out Sunday at Chalmers Street United church, Guelph, when Wayne Hosking, nephew of the late Henry A. Hosking, took part in an unveiling ceremony of a window, the gift of Mrs. Henry A. Hosking.

Rev. D. G. Paton accepted the gift on behalf of the congregation. Rev. John Ward also took part in the service. He was pastor of the United church in Rockwood when
