

CONLY WITNESS to Tuesday morning's robbery at Don Bex-ton's jewellery store was his plaster jewellery model. Neighbors caught only a glimpse of the man who snatched over $700 of merchandise after smashing the show window with a stone. Mr Bexton is pictured pointing to the shattered

Eighty-Fourth Year.-No. 3.

Acton Iree

Yen Pages-Savan Cents.

Washrooms Opened

Washroom facilities at the new change station in the park were opened for the first time to the

On Friday the job of installing

Members of the Board of Parks

Management decided to open the washrooms as soon as possible, although the hiring of a full-time park attendant is pending The Parks tourd members were heat-ant about completing the building with the installation of windows until there was some supervision.

Even before the building was ready rocks were pelted at woodwork and metalwork Two doors

The staff of Acton high schund has increased by one last year there were It teachers Miss

Greatde is leaving to teach in Ottawa, unit two teachers have

Mrs D A Smith of Guelph is taking the 10 week summer course at the Ontario College of Education in Turonto She will be teaching science and social studies here in Miss Griselds Boyanta has had

Principal E A Hansen points out

ed A storeroom is being fitted up

The "old" part of the school-just four years old-is being paint-side is being painted, and part of 'A donation of $5.00 has been

Two-Hour Program

the inside considerable experience as she

Increase Statt

change rooms are still closed the 800 feet of sewer lines and 400 feet of water pipe to the station

Saturday at Park

public Saturday

had been completed.

had to be repaired

Three New Industries On Kitchener News

Growth of industry in Acton was the topic of an item on the Kitchoner television station newscast Tuesday night

Films showed the site where Micro Paties will build, the exterior of the Wool Combing building which will house Canada Packers chicken processing and the impressive interior of the H K Porter plant, which is to begin operatuna shortly

Bob Ridsdale's stove is being prepared inside for the opening of a new men's wear store Proprietor also has a store in Georgetown, Henry's clothing store

The large plate glass window

ACTON, ONYARIO, THURSDAY, JULY 17th, 1958 indentation of the cool lake, in a perfect shady setting. Some

THE PARTY AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF THE PA

TUESDAY'S HEAT, which culminated with thunderstorms at were out in boats and others fishing. Groups rested beneath night, attracted crowds to the swimming beach at the park, the trees throughout the attractive park-and some even lay Toddlers to grandparents, all enjoyed a refreshing dip in the out flat in the blazing sun, working studiously at their tens.

Thieves Get $700 Loot with at least $700 worth of watches and jewellery after mushing the corner from the Mill St store runwindow of Don Bexton's jewellery ning down John St toward Church was smashed with a large stone store in the pre-dawn hours Tues-crystal and crushed jewellery.

med the streets

Mrs. Bruce Shormaker heard the Lodge jouned 5,000 Orangemen | The Guelph lodge won first prize from five counties when their an- for marching at Brampton Mrs C K Browne, a member of St Pieces of watch boxes were also must 12th of July "Walk" was held in Brampton on Saturday, Popula- Harmony Ladge, Landon, also attion of the town of Brampton, 14.- tended celebrations in the Flower

wakened by the crash as thousands of spectators jam-Rt. Wor C. K. Browne, well- morning, before setting out for the replaced Tuesday afternoon known Acton Orangeman and a festivities in Brampton Music of member of Guelph Lodge No 1331, the local fife and drum band atattended his 80th parade on Satur- tracted many speciators as the day. Mr Browne, who is 88, has group marched about Acton's main church while Father Morgan is been taking part in July 12 celebra- streets

Members of the Acton Orange | tions since his boyhood

600 people-was just about doubled city About 50 members of the Acton laidge paraded in Acton Saturday

BARK AREAS indicate machines and furnaces in the large floor plan of the interior of the new H. K. Porter plant. Maintenance foreman Alex Leslie and plant superintendent G.

W. Parsons look over the plan this week as machines are being moved in, repainted deep green and installed. Work on several furnaces begins soon. The Porter plant in Toronto goes on holidays this week, with work resuming at the first of August in Acton instead.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs.

Roard members present were M.

Barbeau, Mrs Fryer, Ab Irwin and

Plan Happy Reunion

On Sunday, July 30, Mr. and Mrs.

James Robertson fly from Prest-wick airport, Scotland, and are ex-their daughter. Mrs. Frank Simkiss.

Knox Ave Mr. Robertson has not seen Mrs. Simkiss in 11 years, and it will be the first time he has seen his son-in-law and grandchildren,

They are expecting to have a very happy reunion at the airport.

Also in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. A. Ewing of Round Lake,

Mrs. Robertson was on a visit to Acton two years ago.

At Malton Monday

Mayor Walter Cook

since Sunday charges have been F Cleave

Payment of bills was authorized group Clarinet solos by Gerald

Mrs. Mason

Parks Board Given $500 Bond;

A $500 tond has been presented od The change station facilities will to the Acton Board of Parks Many likely not be in fullest use until club when the tourd met Westnes- Mrs. M. Root was employed to day evening of last work Ralph supervise the junior swimming board chairman George Bartieau, a Permission was granted the contribution from the club to help YMCA to hold soccer games in A full-time park attendant will George Fryer, reported $400 had water attends the made Mrs J Crusten attends the panied by his wife, of Young St. pected to arrive at Malton at $ 2 71.

ear also clipped off a pole and Jimmy and Billy.

Constables William Bonnett and ertson has not met in 22 years.

The accident was investigated by Chicago, Illinois, whom Mr. Robbe hired for the park, it was decid-, been taken in at the park gates

To Hire Full-Time Attendant

McKeewn handed the bond to parks, paol during the summer agement by the Acton Y's Men's that time may for the new change stations in the park

Sustain No Injuries

The four occupants of two cars which side-wiped near the junction of the seventh line and No 7 highway north of the CNR tracks near midnight Friday, ewaped in-

The southbound car was driven by Frank Ansele, accountant at the Bank of Nova Scotta here, aecom-

The northbound car was driven by Limehouse, with Helge Prigaard as a passenger. The cars met on the brow of the hill. The Prestensen came to rest short of a 15-foot embankment. Damage was estimated et $125, to the Acton car and $300.

David Hardy of the Milton deto the Prestensen car.

techment, of the OPP.

Fleming Prestensen of R.R.

juries but both cars were damaged

In Two-Car Crash

the park

located on the street.

window saw three men round the made their escape that way

St Mrs Doug Manning also caught One piece of glass was forced in by a glimpae of the men after being hand, and was taken by the police Heavy pieces of glass flew into Police believe a car was parked the display window crushing coatume jewellery and aplintering crystal goblets as the men anatched their loot At loast eight watches C. K. Browne in 80th L.O.L. Parade or musing and four bracelets A rasor stand and cord were taken but the rator left toppled in the window. The useless cord and stand were tossed away on Church

> The robbery occurred at about 350 Tuesday morning The loss was covered by manrance The large show window was

-Father Macdongall of Guelph

Mrs. Agar Hostess

To United W.M.S.

Lard's prayer in unisin

The Woman's Missionary Solicity of the United Church met at the home of Mrs 1. Agar on Tuesday evening with president Miss M. Z.

Bennett, presiding. The meeting opened with a hymn, a short pliem by Jane Scott, prayer and the Secretaries of Departments reported, for the Baby Band, Miss

Warne: Temperance, Miss D Simmons, Community Friendship, Mrs.

Scripture and devotional were taken by Mrs C W. Mason and her Wieck and vocal solos by Miss Lillian Philips were enjoyed A paper given by Mrs. E. Lambert.

and Mrs. B. Mowat stressed using the Bible as it is preferable to any other book. The meeting closed with a hymn and benediction by A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Agar for her home-and to all the helpers on the lunch and program. Very refreshing cake, icc cream and cookies were served by Members were pleased to hear

Rev. C. L. Poole and Mrs. R. R.

Arnold are improving in General Hospital, Toronto, and also Miss

M. Mainprize is able to be home

-The band is planning to play

-Edward's harness shop is being remodelled and will be opened as a beauty shop by Mrs. Edith Me-

Eachern and Mrs. Jean Russell.

a concert in the park Sunday.

Mrs. Mason and her group.

Henderson, Literature, Mrs R

is taking services at St Joseph's ton merchants are expected to con- ous and the charge against the mer- remain open on Sundays tinue with the present Monday chants was dismissed Magistrate cleaning as provided for under the Langdon, prior to giving a ruling. by-law that was disputed in Ma- explained, "The court is not always gistrate's Court on Monday, according to Frank Terry, chairman lating to municipal by-laws withof the retail section of the Cham- out study of acts relating to them ber of Commerce charged for infractions of the by- all shops operating in Acton", he vell Bros. Carrolla Grocery Ltd was $25 law when they remained open on suggested Monday, June 30, prior to the Tursday, July 1st holiday.

Charges Dismissed

astute in disposing of charges re-"It might be passible to sponsor

The weakness of the amendment

"By-Law Irregular"

Les Hotchen, represented by A Braids, pleaded not guilty to the Monday charge on the grounds the amendment to the by-law was irregular Others charged were E Marks. and Ladger's IGA

The Magistrate suggested a which as presented, could be in- ings on the subject but he sek the ned to council at this time.

chants would be continuing with held there the Monday closing He noted those charged had all indicated they planned to continue closing on ed during vacation All of the out-

Maximum Plas $25

Maximum that could have been Seven Acton merchants had been a petition broad enough to regulate George Benton, Cliff Bradley, Lo- imposed under the closing by-law

For Fresh Air Fund Mr Terry explained the addition Mr Terry on Wednesday morn- of a comma to the by-law would to the by-law providing for Mon- ing noted the retail section of the make the necessary difference and day closing, lay in the wording. Chamber had not had any meet- no new submission was being plan-

province's centennial celebrations

Then she sweeps cast across six other provinces to the Atlantic seaween July 30 and August 5 when She will also stop in Alberta.

Four days of her stay in Ontario

Although the princess has travel-

She will travel from Toronto to stratford to attend an evening per-

Mrs. Annie Paul

Patsy Manes, Douglas McLean

ists Promotions

Grade 6 to 7: Sandra Blyth, John de Blauw, Billy Diamond, Stella

Dorothy McLean, June O'Gorman.

Grade 3 to 4: Jimmy McArthur.

Grade 1 to 2: Dorothy Kuiken.

Sandra Varcoe, David Varcos.

Hamilton, Carol Thomson.

formance at the Shakespearoan

Saskatchewan, Quebec, New

Hamilton and Toronto

aill be in Ottawa

weys, are as follows:

Joan O'Gorman.

Brunswick and Nova Scotia

given to the Toronto Daily Star

Fresh Air Fund by the office of a few children. Immediately after school finished, these children arranged an entertainment, which was held in a garden in Roseford Terrace on Friday night All dances were arranged by the children, and music was supplied I from a record player The children designed all the costumes, and what did it matter if big sister's County | last month learned the rite of the held by the OMB, County Council salary increase for county road en- skirts disappeared. It was all in a

One of the many highlights of the ! fall hearing The debenture ty-law county pays $150 and the Depart-

two hour program was the two had made the annexation request ditions in Georgetown and Acton | Council will skip this month's re- clowns, who performed better than

The following children took part Ann. Lynn, Tessa, Michael and Patrick Vale, Vivien and Denys Reynolds, Rosemanie Preston, Patricia Taggart, Donna Lastger and Sally Wilson

W.I. Holiday Week No word has been received at the j of social duties that see her travel Underway at O.A.C.

More than 150 women from various parts of the province are in The 27-year-old princess is Guelph for the Women's Institute spending 13 days in British Colum- Holiday Week being held from Attending from Action Women's Institute is Misa Margorie Hall. Others are also attending from board She will be in Ontario bet- | various Institutes in the district Three main groups will be chorher stinerary includes a visit to all singing, under the direction of Ottaws, Stratford, Nisgara Falls, Mr and Mrs Ralph Kidd, textile painting led by Isabel Leslie, and the making of stuffed tors and dolls taught by Mrs E V Thompmin A demonstration in floral designing will be given by Marilyn . Walker of the horticultural department of the OAC

A bus trip to Stratford to planled widely throughout the Com- ned for July 18 to see "Much Ado monwealth, this is her first visit to About Nothing. The group will have supper in the Festival park. Guests were welcomed by Dr. J.

D MacLachian, president of the OAC and Mrs. James Haggerty, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario

Scouters at Services

Here Sunday Morning The Part Two Course for Troup Scouters is underway this week at the Blue Springs scout reserve. west of Acton Scout leaders from all over Ontario are taking the stiff of Grade 7 to 8: Virginia Hami'ton, training course which started Saturday

About 35 -Scouters came into town to church Sunday morning. O'Gorman, Joyce Thomson, Ronald with several attending St. Joseph's first Mass and the rest attending Grade 4 to 5: Randall Hamilton, the early service at the United Peggy Blyth, Stephen Hamilton, church.

-Now that school is out for the summer, motorists are urged to keep a wary eye for children play-Grade 2 to 3: Robert Blyth, Susan ing on the streets. Children, too. should use extra caution to keep the summer holidays safe and Mrs. Annie L. Paul, Teacher. | happy.

McLaughlin Family Congregates Sunday

The McLaughlin brothers, Ellis harles. Tom and Mac, formerly of Namegaweya, held their family reunion Sunday, July 13th, at Edgeword laxige Park, Waterloo ..

and her husband were present from Miami, Florida Mr and Mrs Herbert Allan and Mrs George this week Stephenson of Toronto were also included among the sixty guests.

eral hours on Sunday. July 27 for large group of students toured Ot : shortly the yearly maintenance of substa- tawa together. An Acton student

In the meantime, Milton council also covers costs of high school ad- ment of Welfare, $350 to the Ontario Municipal Board and 'Also approved by by-law at gular meeting and reconvens any clowns in a circus

although the hearing has not been Thursday's neeting was the $1,000 August 19

Student Describes Trip to Rotarians Ted Hansen officially took over

Their sister, Mrs. Elmer Pickett his duties as the new president of Acton Rotary Club at their regular meeting at the Dominion Hotel Acton station as yet concerning the from coast to coast before depart-

Princess Margaret Expected Here En Route to Festival

royal train taking Princess Marg-Miss Marilyn Young gave a resilated to Stratford early next month port or her trip to Ottawa on the However, it is believed the train bia where she is attending the July 16 to 18 at the OAC "Adventure in Citizenship", which will pass through the lown Official .. The power will be off for sev- is sponsored by the Hotary clab A notification will likely be sent

The Princess has begun a whirl

-Staff Photo HOLDING THE BANNER HIGH, members of the Acton Orange Lodge 469 prepared to join the three mile march through the streets of Brampton on Saturday. Thousands of spectators lined the route of the parade to watch the Orangemen, bands and baton twirlers as they celebrated the 12th.