CARDS OF THANKS

The expressions of condolence extended during my recent bereavement were very much appreciated. I wish to convey my heartfelt thanks to my neighbours, friends and relatives for the many acts of kindness, floral tributes and messages of sympathy.
a-4-1695 — Mrs Wm E. Smith

I wish to thank the friends and neighbours who were so kind during and after my recent robbery. The members of the Ontario Provincial Police we feel did a fine job in response to the early morning alarm. Mr and Mrs Bruce Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Manning also are to be commended for their efforts. I would also like to thank an unidentified couple who were near the scene. There is some consolation in knowing that the entire loss was covered by insurance.

POET'S CORNER

HILLS TO CLIMB
by Mary Ellen Varley

I would climb the warm green hills of friendship
As though the sun in easy stages led me
Across the summer, and on the summits
Of the years, no lovelier path I'd see

I would climb each day the white hills of truth
Stretching up for that purity of soul
That is only reached when the lonely star
Beyond the peak is the beginner's goal

And I would climb the unseen hills of God,
For I have heard His voice within me call
Until I am His. Knowing this, what matters else? —
No other way is possible at all!

Should I stumble and come hurtling down,
I would begin again, sure of His love,
And search each niche with firmer hands and feet,
And keep my eyes upon that light above!

—Gerald Wieck, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wieck, Bower Ave., received word this week he had placed eighth but of 23 in the cornet solo in the 15-year-and-under class at the Waterloo Band Festival held June 28. Players from all over Canada entered the event.

New Water Supply

Expect Operation in August

J. H. Coy, chairman of the water and sewer committee of the town council, this week reported the new water supply on Churchill Road should be in operation within a month's time.

It was pointed out that the new pumping station on the third line was approximately 24 feet by 17 feet in size, of concrete block construction, a cement pre-cast roof with a bonded roof material on top.

When the pumping station is completed, a 7-foot wire fence will surrounded the entire area.

J. B. Mackenzie and Son were the contractors for the building and the International Water Supply Company have the contract to supply the pumping and metering equipment.

Owned by the municipality is a hydro line and transformer system installed by the Acton Hydro department to service the new station.

6,975 Feet of Main

The chairman reported that 6,050 feet of 12 inch main has been installed from Peel Street to the road entrance to the pumping station and 875 feet of 8 inch main from the roadway to the pumphouse.

Proposed Reservoir

Mr. Coy pointed out the council has agreed to have the engineers present a present day cost of installing a 12 inch main from the pumphouse to a proposed underground reservoir further up the third line.

In explanation of the proposed reservoir, Mr. Coy noted the plans would possibly call for a million gallon storage that could be built in sections according to present day demand.

He explained however that 350,000 gallons would be adequate at present.

Asked if the new water test differed from the present supply the chairman remarked it was softer and more applicable to human consumption than the present supply.

It was suggested the new supply when put into operation would be used 100% for town consumption.

Future Expansion

At the present time, the town is consuming approximately 60,000,000 gallons of water per year and future expansion of the town could put the town in the position of supplying Dominion Mr. Coy explained.

Mr. Coy explained the present water system was installed in 1930 and the rates set the same year. He remarked it was impossible to get the same efficiency out of the system with today's population and services.

Uiterwyk-Price Vows Given At St. Alban's Church, Acton

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized in St. Alban's Anglican Church on Saturday, July 19 when Miss Beverley Anne Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Price, Willow Street, became the bride of Hank Uiterwyk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick Uiterwyk, also of Acton.

Rev. J. D. Rathbone of St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams, officiated with Mrs. Frank Oakes at the organ. Pink gladioli formed a background for the ceremony, at which the bride was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Fred Wain of Niagara Falls, as matron of honor.

The groom's brother, Gerald Uiterwyk, was best man, and ushers were Jerry Fisher, R.R.1, Guelph, a cousin of the bride, and Donald Price, the bride's brother.

Bridal Gown

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride chose a waltz length gown of white tulle over nylon with soft folds of tulle forming a draped neckline, and falling in streamers over the back of the fitted bodice. The full skirt was molded by crinolines and her fingertip veil flowed from a sequin trimmed crown. The bride carried an ivory bound Bible in a setting of American Beauty roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor wore a street length frock of cornflower blue polished cotton designed with a tie-back basque. Her accessories were pink with a corsage of pink roses.

Reception

Fifty guests attended a reception at the home of the bride where her mother received wearing a fitted dress of turquoise crystalette with a corsage of American Beauty roses and pink accessories.

The groom's mother was attired in cocoa brown nylon. Her corsage was of yellow roses and she wore yellow accessories.

For a wedding trip to the States, the bride donned a blue shantung suit worn with a corsage of pink roses and beige accessories. The couple will live in Acton.

Council Plans Study Of Reservoir Costs

United Church B was noted the church grounds were to be landscaped to the level of the sidewalk and presently the cenotaph grounds were lower than the sidewalk.

The Magistrate's monthly report showed fines in June of $591 with the town receiving $287.16.

O.K. Tag Day

Council also approved a tag day for the Canadian Save the Children Fund, proclaimed August 4. Civic Holiday approved $90 expenses to William Williams for his firemen to the Burlington convention.

An amendment to the by-laws of the Board of Parks Management was approved allowing admission charges on holidays during June to September inclusive.

Approve Amendment

Council approved preparation of a by-law amending the present building by-laws as recommended by the special building committee.

This action followed a report by Theron Jones, building inspector and chairman of a special committee of the mayor, fire chief and planning board chairman to review the by-laws. The committee recommended adoption of the National Building Code with some minor deletions and additions.

It was noted, on questioning from members, there was presently nothing in the by-laws to limit the length of time a sidewalk could be blocked during construction. The committee was to review these two problems.

Discussing the bulky multi-paged national building code, Councillor Ratclin suggested it should be studied to determine if it is too restrictive. Mayor Cook explained that was what the committee had been doing.

To Cut Weeds

Council agreed to follow the recommended procedure for cutting weeds as outlined by the County Weed Inspector. He noted it was not necessary to serve notice to the owner before entering the land to cut the weeds and if the account for the cutting, submitted by the municipality was not paid it could become a charge on the property's taxes.

Members approved for county adoption, a new method of collecting tax arrears. The method avoids tax sales and allows the municipality to claim on vacant land after two years arrears rather than the present three years. The owner has a year to redeem the land and if this is not done it becomes municipal land.

Pass Accounts

Accounts were approved of for $10.41; roads $136.33; police $43.15; administration and finance $1,734.08; buildings $6.85; welfare $56.45.

Council adjourned at 10.30.

Tips on Touring
By Carol Lane
Woman's Travel Authority

Touring Canada on a sea shell safari is a delightful way to plan up vacation fun.

Any shell collector worth his weight knows that shells differ not only from Atlantic to Pacific but along the same coast. Collector finds the most specimens at low tide and full moon or after a storm.

The secret of collecting shells is to find those with two matching sides when separated or joined. The best method is to dredge in shallow water with a sieve and pail. Probably you can search the beach looking up from spots more. As soon as you find a specimen, make an accurate identification as to its name and other pertinent data. A beach on shells collected on the Gulf Coast of Florida.

Next clean shells thoroughly, using a stiff brush and soapy water. Rinse in clear water. Remove animal matter from shell by boiling for 15 minutes. Remove remaining flesh with a pick. Soak shells in a solution of 1 part bleach to 4 parts water for 24 hours. Rinse and dry on surface clear with a stiff brush or a weak solution of muriatic acid.

When you have collected specimens for mounting, use a wire brush dipped in egg white or shellac to cover each shell and make it glossy. Then take a piece of cotton backing and attach the shells artistically. Place shell in a picture frame covered with glass. The result will be a delightful and decorative specimen mounted.

This Year

It is still anticipated the new provincial School for the Deaf will be started this year on the 97 acre Kingdon farm on highway 25, Stanley Hall, M.P.P. revealed this week.

He indicated there had been no later reports following the March announcement of the $3,500,000 project that is to be completed in two years.
