

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE MUSSELLE are pictured as they leave the church following their recent marriage. The bride, formerly Ruth McLaren, is the daughter of Mrs. Rose McLaren, of Rockwood, and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Musselle of Acton. The couple were married in Rockwood United Church. Rev. G. A. B. Moore of Rockwood officiated.

Musselle-McLaren Wedding At Rockwood United Church

The wedding party was piped from the church following the ceremony which united in marriage Ruth Mary McLaren and George Cranmer Musselle. Rev. G. A. B. Moore officiated at the double ring ceremony in Rockwood United Church on Saturday, July 26 at 7:30 p.m. White and yellow shasta daisies decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rose McLaren of Rockwood, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Musselle of Acton.

David Benham was organist including among his selections, How Lovely are Thy Dwellings and I Love Thee.

Sheer Nylon Gown
The bride's floor length gown was of sheer nylon over taffeta. A crown headdress decorated with seed pearls held her fingertip length veil on a white silk fan belonging to the groom's great-aunt, the carried cornflowers and white daisies.

Her attendant was Mrs. Lois Maw of Queensland, Nova Scotia, who wore a street length nylon gown in delphinium blue with a floral design. She carried a nosegay of pink and white rosebuds and blue cornflowers.

She was given in marriage by her brother, Murray McLaren.

Ruth McLaren Guest of Honor

A recent bride, Miss Ruth Mary McLaren of Rockwood, was the guest of honor at several gatherings prior to her marriage to George Musselle of Acton.

On July 11, Mrs. Helen Lavert was hostess for a luncheon and china shower. The Explorer group held a presentation at the home of Mrs. Tom Gellatly on July 16. The bride was given a food chest and cooler.

Miscellaneous gifts were opened at a shower on July 21 when Mrs. Georgina Kelso was hostess.

Her Sunday school class of boys presented her with a maple leaf pin.

The office staff of Homewood hospital, Guelph, held a presentation in the recreation hall there on July 22 when two Kenwood blankets were their gifts.

Miss Stanley Harris home was opened to the choir of Rockwood United Church on July 10 when a lace tablecloth was given to the bride-to-be.

A luggage case was presented to the groom at a stag party at the home of Murray McLaren on July 11.

EYE ON WEATHER

A good skipper always watches the weather. When a storm threatens, head your boat for the closest safe anchorage. If a storm overtakes you on the lake, stay low, throttle down, and head into the waves. Play safe for more fun afloat.
