ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 21st, 1958

DENIS GIBBONS receives his season box seat tickets from Rudy Shaeffer, general manager of the Toronto Maple Leaf Ball Club as part payment for winning the Rocky Nelson Home Run Contest. Denis met members of the Toronto ball club and presented Rocky with a trophy as over 200 Acton fans in the stands cheered the young Acton athlete. For winning guage" on both him and his wife.

when he reviewed that failure

Warden Card closed the matter the contest Denis wins two box, seats for the balance of this season and all of next.

No Halton Deer Season

Austen appeared before council I meant the season was closed. The Tuesday with a petition signed by petition was filed with council any-

Pleas Farmer, Petition

Of Halton's neighboring countres,

Wellington favored an open sesson,

Wentworth was against, and no reounty's attitude there.

ply was received from Peel on the many Nassagaweya residents pro- way

Gibbons Fetes Home Run Ace ads Cavalcade to Stadium

ser, general manager of the Toron- the fans to Maple Leaf ball club, in the At 745 pm Deris presented tay of the Acton Council, and same evening, to see Denis Gibbons, 14 knocking his 35th home run while jacket money for the extra treats year old athiete from Acton, pre- standing on the infield with Rocky sent Rocky Nelson, home run king The couple were cheered by the of the Turonto Maple Leafs, with a thousands in the stands attending Mrs. Nell Gibbons, Main Street, Ac- munching on peanuts, hot dogs and ton, was the winner of a contest drinking cold pop, waved bauners recently in which he guessed the and cheered for their two heroes. day, inning and within one minute until the echoes could be heard of the time that Rocky Nelson, ace far across Lake Ontario first baseman and home run king. of the Toronto Club, would rack up his 35th homer.

Wine Prise

contest, Denis was presented with Stadium sented a trophy to the Toronto and steady one alugger and could invite all his friends in the Acton Minor Sports Eucals.

Masta Rarky

ed for photographers and chatted the proud and amiling youngsters Batt Club the state of the s

Over 200 children from Acton with the home run king, much to from Acton a safe, clear passage Legion Minor Sports baseball lea- the envy of all the children who through the city gue, managers, coaches and car grouped around the acreened-in. At the stadium, each child from grivers, were guests of Rudi Shaef- action separating the players from Acton was supplied with a hit dog the game Down the third but line Bienis, 14 year old son of Mr and section the Acton lads, between hourse as they attempted to en-

Maternade

two tox seats for the balance of | Co-operation of Provincial Police this year and all next season, at Brampton police and Toronto City returned after the game with their the stadium On Tuesday he pre- police, made the journey a safe silver motorcycles and led the motorcycle officers of the Toronto excited child dozed off som after to the game in Toronto as his force, with red lights flashing on the cars left the city motorcycles and airens wailing the motorcade from Acton was led first trip to Maple Leaf Stadium Young Denis, after meet- along the lake front as officers and an occasion to well remember ing Rocky in the players' room, pos- waved cars to one side to allow as they were guests of the Toronto and cold drink through the court-Toronto on Tuesday Rocky Nelson with a trophy for lafter were dipping into their own her consumed

While Toronto and Buffalo playad ball on the diamond the tiny Acton molers cheered themselves ourage the Toronto team to vicory They were disappointed as

At the end of the game when the wagelasard showed Toronto had last to Buffalo 7-1, and fans were A niotorcade of 35 cars loaded racing for the exits Minus Sports with children and led by an OPP Bawt-ill managers were rounding cruiser, left Acton Park at Ma up youngsters to get them to the For his efforts in winning the o'clock and headed for Maple Leaf cars parked at the east end of the atadium

> The two Tord to police officers motorcade to the city limit

Met at the Humber bridge by two | Drivers reported that many ar For many a child this was their

Gift to County

Offer 100 Acres for Conservation taked to accept a gift of 100 acres Crown Attorney was paid at the paying half the construction cost of farm-land, for reforestation and county level Council agreed to of a bridge on the Peel-Halton town conservation purpuses ing, solicitors Ryrie and McCul- September meeting to clarify the lough of Oakville, writing on be- procedures. half of clients Dr Juliet Turney and Mrs. Hazel Mathews, asked if Poel asking an amendment to the fat, architects, for the additions and council would accept the property Child Welfare Act was approved. which is located on the Base Line The resolution would give Judges Manor of Trafelgar between the fifth and permission to extend wordship for committees are to study the pro- education. position and report at the September meeting

Asks Kalary Hike

Governor E. G. Ryder of the county jail, Millon, appeared to ask council for higher guard salaries He pointed out his failure to hire an additional guard since April. because of the $2,800 starting sal-

Warden William Card. Oakville. reviewed the salaries had been studied earlier in the year and found equal to others in the Pro- day meeting soon to review the situation Veto Rales

Council refused a request from Magistrate K M Langdon for an increase in salary as judge of the Juvenile and Family Court sultative Committee on high school, alities should give donations to education's recent report was given schools for retarded children, notat Tuesday's meeting. The committing a recent request for aid from North Halton high school district Warden advised that the Ontario

Trafalgar township queried of Education for grants to all such charges to the individual municip- | schools, which would relieve inalities by the Crown Attorney, ex- dividual municipalities.

Halton County council has been plaining they thought that the: & Arrangements were made for | have Mr. Russell of the Attorney- line near Terra Cotta Peel County At the Tuesday afternoon meet- | General's department attend the is doing the work teriliant students until the age of the County assume all base line The finance and agricultural 21 for the furthering of their > with the Wentworth County comtion of East Flamborn now in the vince Reeve Tom Millward. | Council is to give notice to all near Stewarttown on the Seventh Bronte, chairman of the finance Halton municipalities that in Sep- Line were approved, and the encommittee, said his committee tember a by-law to licence nurs- gincer was instructed to apply to would need with the Governor ing homes will be presented Each the Board of Transport Commis-Imunicipality is to be asked for aps somers for approval to do the work welfare grants.

. Deputs-Reeve Jack Greer of Formal acceptance of the Con- Acton asked if individual municipboard remain in its present setup Mayors and Reeves were presently Give Denation?

asking the Provincial Department

Disrusa Trades The Special Annexation committee of council was asked to meet solution asking an increase from 50 mittee to discuss adjustments of plowing subsidies liabilities and assets on that por-

from Wentworth

pristal of the scheme, which is expected to help in obtaining federal tee had recommended the present, the Sunshine School in Milton The

The second section and the second section is the second section of the second section in the second section is

Architects Hired

. Three readings were given an A resolution from the County of agreement to here Shore and Mofalterations to Halton Centennial

> A Burlington suggestion that roads separating townships for uniform maintenance, was handed to the roads and planning committees

. Council and cated it didn't ! concur with the Bruce County reper cent to 80 per cent, in show

King Gets Joh

◆ Of seven tenders received. town of Burlington The January 1 council chose the one of King Payannexation had brought a $13,000, ing. Oakville, for the sum of $73,-000 assessment into the County, 213.25 for the construction of asphalf pasements

Other business at council's Tues- | Pluis for the improvement of the approach to the CNR tracks

Public Hearing

Clerk J McGeachie announced this week that the public hearing regarding the application by the Corporation of the Town of Arten for annexation of parts of the Township of Enquesing has been set for Friday, September

The hearing will be held in the Council Chambers and all persome wishing to speak in support of or in apparition to the applieatlons will be heard at this

-Staff l'acto

PETER HILTS celebrated his 91st birthday with friends and relatives, on Sunday, August 17. The nonagenarian has lived in the Acton district for 76 years and is presently living at Mrs Smith's nursing home on Bower Avenue. He received many cards and gifts on his birthday.

Building Permits Nearly Double Last Year's Total

Building permits issued so far w this year total almost double last building inspector, released figures. a total value of $931,935.

1957, the total was $185,320, climb- Highland Games at Fergus

$305,000 for H K. Porter plant and games several permits for Thomas and 'In the-two mile race, Alan Glenica subdivision. Biggest months last year were September, with a permit issued to ion, and June, including the per- seconds. mit for the Pentecostal church. Break-down for months this year follows: January, $10,000; February, $308,400; March, $488,300; April. $1,000; May, $5,000; June $12.

showed up at the wading pool at afternoon. the park, the shivering attendant closed up shop and went home.

785; July, $12,850; August until the 15th. $2,700.

year's already Theron Jones, the Bruce Andrews Takes Monday that indicated permits, Highland Games Win one distance race and second in to be entirely out of the beverage, new lighting fixtures topping off in the booth and change stations. During the first eight months of another when he took part in the by the end of this week ing to $493.145 by the year of the! Phil Caddick and some of the members of the Junior, Pipe Band Big items on this year's list are were among the spectators at the

Thomas for construction in the Claremont of Guelph won with 9 minutes, 45 seconds, followed by Bruce Andrews. Bruce headed the runners in the one-mile event to Thomas and Thomas for construct- cross the line at 4 minutes, 26 sent a concert in Oakville. Band week from 40 to 35 hours. members will be marching through part of the town to the park on ing a return visit here.

Sunday Concert

Parks Board Sees Damage at Park Approves Change, Check Charge Halton will again this year have | feeting any move by Halton to open no open deer season, it was learned the season to hunters. Mr. Austen Need Numervillen The Board of Parks Management

Tuesday afternoon at County coun- leviewed that he spent the last sea-Tuesday night, after a survey of Noting the need for continual filed cil's August meeting in the Court son protecting his property against careless hunters who tore and shot down "no trespassing" signs, trespassed at will, and used "vile lan-

- BLAIT PROMO

ing thecking privileges Campbellville farmer Reginald announce an open season by July at the outset of the meeting from open without charge caretaker Peter Edge on the use Trustee A. Irwin noted the need this point was not known, the public was making of the new- for additional benches in pried off, locks had been loosened, resulted in revenue of $6.90

damage done

tavatory, toulet controls had been ney noted a recent drowning ir avoid any liability on the company tampered with, metal shouthed Trafelger township and segretted in case of secutent. doors had been dented and other municipalities should approve bylaws requiring lifeguards at simil-

AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTY OF Peter Hilts, 91 Last Sunday

District Resident 76 Years Peter Hilts celebrated his 91st be married in Acton's old Congre-; ment and diving pier donated by birthday on Sunday, August 17, gational Church Mrs Hills died in the Y's Men's Club when many friends and relatives 1944 and Mr Hilts continued on the l dropped in to offer congratulations chomestead until recently Mr. Hills along with his friends en- joys a chat about olden days and at avoid any liability to the club in es over a cup of tea the 91 year old man who sat chat- time ting about the companion of the modern mechanized methods of Hilts is described as a person who farming against the old fashioned never pulled a mean trick on my-

The nonagenurian pointed out to help a person in need that the borses were cheaper to less trouble to hand'e was 10 years old and came to Acton, seen walking the two mile stretch. as a boy of 15 He has lived in this from his home on the third line. fiftrict ever since Working was always Mr Hills | air.

forced his retarement former Ellie Swackhammer whom him abreast with local news joyed birthday take and sandwich- 91 admits that he has never danced case of accidents a step in his life but always enjoy-Cards and gifts were received by ed seeing others having a good A quiet unassuming man, Mr > one in his life and always willing Described as an excellent work-operate than modern tractors and er, he worked in Hotchens' Bakers for ten years Believing in shanks ponies, Mr Born in Coningsby Ontario, Mr. 1

Hiltz moved to Meaford when he Hilts, until a year ago, could be into Acton, just to enjoy the fresh hobby and he never retired until. Now living on Bower Ave, the two years ago when failing health nonagenarian has never smoked and is a tectotaller, he has sub-A 50 acre farm on the third line scribed to the Free Piess for about two miles from Acton was number of years and still enjoys home to Mr Hilts and his wife, the the hometown paper that keeps

Beer Supply Low Fix Church, Home Hope for Pastor

to go elsewhere for their beverage after this weekend according to reports from Socal hotels and Acton

The retail supply store closed at 430 pm Wednesday of last week as their supply was exhausted, but nearing completion. remained open a few days longer

The strike, 12 days old today, has put a stop to all deliveries and has throughout Ontario.

after the company rejected non- church shortly. mbnetary demands in a new contract. The union also seeks in-Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, creases ranging from $9 to $14 per | It's on Friday and Saturday, Septthe Acton Citizens' Band will pre- week and a reduction of the work ember 19 and 20.

> Negotiators for five breweries tributing outlets.

During the summer, willing volunteers have undertaken an ambitious program of renovations at the Baptist church and parsonage.

A new gas furnace is now installed in the church with move adequate heating for the winter Roof-Local managers report their sup- ing was replaced. The church is arena committee of council was taken out so far during 1958 have. Bruce Andrews placed first in ply is running low and they expect even more attractive inside with being charged for the power used the work of rewiring The men of the church are still stalled in the booth. Many memworking at their projects but are bers pointed out the Women's In-than a number of neighboring to the end of blown fuses when they try to make a cup of tea following a meeting!

New flooring has been laid in sewer and water service to the some of the rooms at the parson- park and change statues totalling affected more than 1,200 workers age. The members of the congrega- $2,045.42 was delayed pending tion are hoping that a full-time clarification on the number The workers walked off the jobs minister will be assigned to their man holes installed.

-Rotarians have been enjoying led $649.15. the lakeshore where they will be will join Brewers Warehousing re- shuffleboard at the home of mem--This week when no children the only band playing during the presentatives to-night (Thursday) ber Amos Mason following their in an attempt to seek a settlement summer meetings. They are ex- on public holidays as well as Bun-The Oakville band will be mak- to cover both the plants and dis- pecting a visit from the District day was approved with three read-Governor early in September.

for swimming pools. The letter was

THE HOMERUN KIND of the Toronto Ball Club received a trophy from Denis Gibbons, 14-year-old schoolboy from Acton, at Maple Leaf Stadium on Tuesday night of this week.

Rocky Nelson, star home run hitter of the ball club was presented with the trophy prior to game time. Denis won the Rocky Nelson Home Run Contest and guessed within a minute

the day, inning and hour the batter would hit his 35th homer.

damage and indecent use of the supervision of the use of the build- A discussion on liability coverchange stations in Prospect park, ing. members agreed to the change age for any accidents in the park decided to charge 10 cents for the and check charge enabling the at- noted the difficulty of determining use of the change stations includ- tendance of a full time attendant, the beginning of park land and the The lavatories, reached from the Beardnure land It was explained Board members heard complaints, outside of the building, will remain the Beardmore firm owned the land to the high water mark but the Trustee R R Parker suggested ly constructed building and later change rooms It was also ex- the Beardmore firm should have went to the park to view the sit- plained the check room had not some agreement with the town uation A disor moulding had been been operating since five tlays use that they were operating the swimming in the lake as part of change rooms had been used as a | A letter from the Crown Attor- the town's recreational facilities to

> The town, holders of the liability policy, was to be asked to discuss the problem with their solic-

Turn Over Equipment

Y's Men's Club representatives J Price and D Docherty, appeared and by letter sought to turn over to the board the playground equip-

The representatives noted their desire to be sure the equipment In the regular festive fashion. Now in fair health, Mr Hills en- was in the control of the board to Coverage on the awimming boom was complicated by the fact it was presently on Beardmore property since it was in the water. The relative ments of the beam we're discussed and members noted some complaints that it constituted a

"As long as there's six inches of water in the lake, it constitutes a hazard," trustee Parker concluded since it was possible to drown in that much The town's liability policy was acceptance of the equipment, presently covered in a policy of the Y's Men's Club. Park for Fall Fair to be investigated prior to official

W Thompson and N Braids, representing the Acton Fall Fait Board, asked use of the park for the annual fair on September 19 and 20 Use of the park was granted at a cost of $50 Members understood the town provided an annual grant of $300 with $50 returned for use of the park

Fair Board representatives agreed to this arrangement but were not certain they were to receive the $200 this year "The mayor told us we'd get $150 this year," one representative noted A check of the approved budget showed $200 allowed and the arrangements were

Councillor W. McLend noted the He suggested a meter should be institute owned the booth. Mr. Me-The ladies are looking forward Lend noted the meter had already been urdered installed

Aresunt Delayed An account for installation of the

A cheque for $50 from the Acton Minor Sports group for use of the park was received and the, Board -Just a month till Acton Fair. approved a grant of $25 to the group for their work in Acton. Secretary Mrs. Pryer, reported gate receipts to last Sunday total-

> A by-law amending the present charging by-law allowing a charge

SIK FRANK ENGLEDOW, & retired professor, of Agriculture from Cambridge and one of six trustees of the Lord Nuffield Foundation, visited this week with Mac Sprowl, R.R. 4, Acton. In 1954, Mr. Sprowl was one of two young Canadian farmers selected to study agriculture for six months under the Lord Nuffield Foundation Travelling Scholarship in Agriculture. The two are pictured above as they examine one of the Sprowl herd. Sir Frank is touring Canada visiting former scholarship winners.