Braves Lead League Defeat Dodgers 17-10

One of the most interesting and best played games of the season was witnessed by spectators at Acton park last Thursday evening when Milwaukee Braves took a one game edge over Los Angeles Dodgers in the play-off series in the American National League of Minor Sports. Taking their first win 17 to 10, the Braves came from behind and tied the game up in the fourth inning and surged ahead in the fifth when they scored 10 runs. Good Pitching R. Shannon, hurling for the winners, appeared a little wild at times but settled down to breeze the ball past the batters. Chuck Shultis, umpire in chief, shared the headaches of big league ump's as managers H. O'Rourke and Bill Quennell continuously argued over plays. Terry Masales, on the mound for the losers, turned in a fine performance but was handicapped as his team mates turned in six errors.

The losers gained two more runs in the bottom half of the fourth inning but were cut off their scoring to end the game. Bill Shannon was the winning pitcher and team mate Brian McCristall gained a pat on the back when he received two hits for two trips to the plate.
