

CLEARING THE HIGH JUMP, Jim Frank displays the proper method to clear the bar. Taking part in the Acton High School Field Day on Friday, September 19, Jim was competing in the intermediate class. The boys in the background seem to be giving the jumper a little assistance as they kick their feet in the air.

Acton Guests at Wedding In Timothy Eaton Church

Timothy Eaton Memorial United Church, Toronto, was the setting for a wedding of local interest when Paula Muriel Cherris and David William Robertson were married. Standards of white mums and gladioli decorated the church for the double-ring ceremony, conducted by Rev. C. Andrew Lawson.

David Ouchterlony was at the organ. The choir sang "Come Let Us Worship," by Mendelssohn, and "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings" Fair by Brahms.

Both the bride and groom are members of the choir, and the bride's father was soloist for a number of years before his death. The groom is also a member of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Cherris and the late Mr. William Norman Cherris. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Robertson.

Traps Lines

The bride's gown of white Chantilly lace was styled on trapline lines with a fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The trapline back fell to a slight chapel train. Her tiny hair box was of satin trimmed with a veil of tulle illusion.

Her bouquet was of white stephanotis and carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Lynne Pringle of Montreal. Bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn King, Toronto, and Mrs. R. Palmer, Uxbridge.

They wore bell-shaped dresses in soft gold and emerald green velvet, with matching shoes and hats. They carried yellow and bronze mums, with bronze roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Peter Norman Cherris.

Groomsmen were Bruce Sprout, Ushers were Douglas and Robert Robertson, brothers of the groom, William Shelly, Gordon Schwager and Melvin McGrath.

Reception at Church

Following the ceremony, guests were received in the church. Mrs. Cherris wore for her daughter's wedding a dress of brown draped satin, with a chartreuse orchid corsage.

Mrs. Robertson chose a dress of wood-rose imported lace with a pink orchid corsage.

Guests were present from Acton, London, Windsor, Clarkson, Oshawa, Orillia, Kingston, Hamilton, Montreal, Florida, Belleville, Barrie, Toronto, Uxbridge and Pasadena, California. The bride's brother had come from England to give her in marriage.

The couple left on a motor trip to Washington, D.C. Leaving the bride wore a grey Pierre Cardin suit and a pearl de la chee, chemise in styling, with a sapphire mink collar. Her hat was of fuchsia shaded ostrich feathers, and she wore gloves to match. A white gardenia corsage completed her ensemble. They are making their home in Toronto.

Named Acadia when it was settled by the French in 1803, 20 years later Nova Scotia was renamed when it became an English possession.

SPRING SCHOOL CHUMS SHOWER GUESTS

Mrs. Joan Aitken was hostess on Friday evening for a shower for Mrs. Sandilands' three Jean Smith, the guests being former school chums.

Mrs. George D. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alton, Penetanguishene and Mrs. Lillian Suter and Miss Lois Black of Elora.

Judy Buck entertained her school chums on the occasion of her 11th birthday. The guests enjoyed roasting wiener, hotdogs, ice cream and birthday cake concluded a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Hawkes and children of Barrie spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Stewart and family. On Saturday they visited with their grandmother, Mrs. Johnstone Sr. at Walkerton who has been quite ill.

Nipples Withdrawn

Due to anniversary services at Erin Presbyterian church, service was withdrawn in the local church and several members attended the Erin services.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan of Toronto were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Murd McCutcheon and Murd.

Funeral service was held in Toronto Wednesday, followed by interment in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Number of persons employed fishing is the leading industry in Newfoundland, along with forestry and mining.

Give Golden Hand To Three Brownies

The Golden Hand Ceremony for three Brownies flying up to Guides was held at the meeting quarters in the Scout House on Monday September 22, with many parents and friends present.

Flying up to Guides on Tuesday of next week will be Margaret Guthrie, Sally Wilson and Victoria Newton.

Taking part in the ceremony were "Tawny Owl," Mrs. G. W. McKenzie and "Brown Owl," Mrs. Florence Bowen, two guides, as packies Mardie Paul and Jean Hart.

This ceremony followed the regular meeting and games, after which the group said the Brownie Prayer and sang taps.

Excitement is running high in the Brownie circles awaiting the Flying Up ceremony next Tuesday.

Judy Buck entertained her school chums on the occasion of her 11th birthday. The guests enjoyed roasting wiener, hotdogs, ice cream and birthday cake concluded a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Maddock Dies in Toronto

Mrs. P. C. Maddock, sister-in-law of Mrs. Chester Matthews, passed away at her home in Toronto on Monday. Mrs. Maddock, the former Anna L. Matthews, was the daughter of the late Mr. James Matthews who was postmaster here for many years, and Mrs. Matthews

Her husband and one son predeceased her, but she is survived by a son Edwin G. Maddock, and two grandchildren, Doris M. Maddock and Mrs. Gilbert Wilson.

Funeral service was held in Toronto Wednesday, followed by interment in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Number of persons employed fishing is the leading industry in Newfoundland, along with forestry and mining.

FOR APPLIANCE AND TV REPAIRS

Call —

MANNING ELECTRIC

230

2 SHOWS NIGHTLY

REGULAR FEATURES

2 SHOWS NIGHTLY

REGULAR FEATURES