

A WEDDING of local interest was solemnized in St. Christopher's chapel, Wolsley Barracks, London, Ontario, when Marilyn Sigsworth became the bride of Cpl. M. Kilby. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sigsworth of Acton and the groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kilby of Eganville, Ontario.

Bride in Traditional White Attendants in Lilac, Orchid

With Rev. Kenneth Reid officiating, Acton Pentecostal Church was decorated with tall standards of white and pink gladioli on August 30 for the marriage of Catherine Ann (Kay) Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton, Limehouse and James Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bailey, Brampton. The bride is a member of the Alliance Paper Mills office staff and the groom is associated with his father in the fuel oil business.

Mrs. Gordon Bowen, Acton, was soloist and sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "Because during the signing of the register Miss Violet Vincent of Brampton was accompanist.

Traditional Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of silk organza over taffeta and net, fashioned with a short train. Lace and seed pearls enhanced the neckline. Her hairdress was of pearls and sequins with a finger-tip tulle illusion veil. She carried a white Bible with gardenias and stephanotis.

Carol Ann Thomas, Brampton, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's cousins, Elaine Morrow, Toronto and Carole Lane, Georgetown. The groom's niece, Norma Jean Bailey, Brampton, was flower girl.

Attendants were gowned in lilac and orchid silk organza over taffeta and net. The bridesmaids wore lilac and the others in orchid. They carried cascades of gladioli to match their gowns and the flower girl carried a basket of gladioli.

Honor Acton Couple On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacColl, Cameron Avenue, Acton, were honored at a surprise party last Saturday feting them on their 25 years of married life together.

Held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Coles, Church St., friends, neighbors and relatives were present from Guelph, Hamilton, Brantford and Acton.

During the evening games were played and the couple were presented with many lovely gifts and cards. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The couple have spent most of their married life in Acton. Mrs. MacColl is the former Mary Gibbons. Mr. MacColl is caretaker at the M. Z. Bennett public school.

Chicken thieves are active in the district. O. D. Vaughn, Ballinacree area farmer, reported 12 of his were stolen this week. He placed a value of $450 on each one.

Ladies' Aid Plans Annual Fowl Supper

The Ladies Aid of Knox Church after a holiday for two months, met at the church parlor on Tuesday afternoon, earlier in the month than usual owing to the plans for the anniversary luncheon dinner.

The president Mrs. McLeod gave the "thought for the day" and led the worship service reading responsively the 23rd Psalm. Mrs. Margorie Hall led in prayer.

The business at hand was dealt with. The committee reported the carpet had been cleaned and demoted during the summer and further plans were made to have the basement painted this fall.

It was unanimous to have a turkey dinner at the anniversary season and the preliminary plans were made in preparation for it.

Mrs. Gess Simcox and Mrs. F. Anderson were appointed to plan a program for the evening.

Mrs. R. L. Davidson contributed two fine readings and the meeting concluded with a hymn and the Mizpah Benediction.

The Group of the Month, convened by Mrs. Dodds assisted by Mrs. Lappin and Mrs. McLeod, provided lunch and a period of social fellowship was enjoyed.
