Sewing Machine Demonstration Highlight of W.I. Meeting

Mrs Clark Armstrong, Lake Ave, Acton, was hostess for the September meeting of Dublin Institute

There was a good attendance of members to see the demonstration of the Necchi sewing machine Mrs Brown of Guelph skilfully demonstrated the various attachments of the machine and how they could be manipulated to do various stitches etc

She gave a practical lesson on many of the difficult problems in sewing and also embroidered darned and made button-holes on the machine, which was all very interesting to the ladies

Bring Quilt Blocks

Mrs M Nellis was in the chair and Mrs Clark Armstrong the secretary, called the roll which was answered with an 8 x 8" quilt block It is the intention of the ladies to make an autograph quilt and sell tickets on it amongst themselves

Congratulations were received for being awarded an honorable mention for Grandmother's Quilt Blocks in the Salada Tea Company contest

Mrs D Moffat distributed the Mental Health bags for contributions Mrs N Elliott and Mrs Frank will attend as leaders at Milton to take the third Meal Course

Allied Convention

Mrs D Moffat and Mrs A McCarron will look after the exhibits at the Georgetown and Milton fairs exhibits Plans were made for a number of ladies to attend the convention banquet in Guelph on Wednesday evening Mrs M Nellis is the delegate who will be attending the sessions Some donations were received for the layettes

A request from the London Area of the Womens Institutes to display the Dublin W I Book of Grandmother's Quilt Blocks at their convention at Parkhill was granted and it will be forwarded to them

The ladies enjoyed a social half hour when a dainty lunch was served by the hostess Mrs C Armstrong Mrs A Winfield Mrs W Watkins Mrs D Kennedy and Mrs M McCullough Mrs George Somerville was courtesy convener

Supply Bale Packed By Albert Auxiliary

Mrs Eli Masters Mill St was hostess to the Knox Evening Auxiliary on Wednesday evening of last week

Mrs Frank Terry convener presided and led the worship service assisted by Mrs Clarence Coles and Mrs Earl Marshall

The new study on our work across Canada was introduced by Mrs H Mangle as of the Afternoon Auxiliary who made each one feel that the program for the months ahead would be most interesting Mrs Coles expressed the thanks to Mrs Mangle for her interesting story of church work

Conduct Business

The president Mrs M McCullough conducted the business An invitation was received to visit Armagh Hom at Clarkson and the Thankoffering of Burlington Evening Group

Members brought in gifts for the bale consisting of a baby's layette and clothing for patients of a home Mrs J Van Loon and Mrs Masters in charge of supplies packed the gifts during the evening

The life membership committee is working for a life membership this fall in charge of Mrs J Inglis and Mrs Dodds

Meeting closed with Lord's prayer and the convener Mrs Terry announced a contest while lunch was being prepared

A period of social fellowship was enjoyed to conclude the evening

Mrs E Marshall passed on the thanks to the hostess for her kindness in having the meeting

Application Forms Given at Fair, Shops

Applications for night school courses must be received at the high school by September 30, noted Mrs Ewart Layland, president of the night school committee this week

Application forms are available at various stores in Acton and in the district, as well as in the Free Press They were also given out at the display at the fair, for when much comment on the proposed courses was aroused
