

Rollin' Down the Alleys

WITH KEN HULFORD

High School

Oct 8. W. Hudley was the lug bow wow for Bird Dogs when they met up with the Satellites. They knocked the Satellites out of their orbit for the first two games. Satellites swung back into the scene with a last game win to avert the shut-out.

Crackpots cracked down on the Mafias for the first two contests. When the unappointed ones scored heavily in the last for the win and the top game totals. G. Hulford with 607 topped the trundling in this go. Rebel Rousers really got roused up for their go with Hula Hoops. Put the Hulas through the hoops for all games.

The up and at 'em for the singles were B. Shannon 215, J. Hurst 200, J. Jeffers 200, H. Barr 247, A. Williams 207, T. Scott 229, D. Woodburn 234.

Beardmore

Oct 8. Upper Leather held the upper hand over Tan Yard and tanned 'em for the works. L. Masals 807, J. Robinson 872 and M. Laferriere 872 were the upshots for the Upper P. Lawson 622 stood out for the lower totals.

Outside cut the Hooling Boom down to size with J. Fiver 671, A. Little 632 and F. Kentner 624 being the cut-ups. For the Hoolers it was a sad night. Beamsome fattened up their point standing by shutting out the Leatherettes. C. Hubler came to life for the winners with 650. The girls tried Curry grabbed the first from Chronon, dropped the second and then came on to score the third and totals.

Legion Ladies

Oct 8. Warty Warted tested the South Paws around and handed them the short end of a 5-2 battle. Worry Warty are now perched alongside the South Paws on the top rung.

Fly-by-Nights were in full flight for two games but the Fire Crackers exploded for one for game. To take totals Top triple for the night was M. Sorenson with 618. Chasing her for the honors was J. Hurlough with 600.

Those big singles still keep scrippin' up for the girls and E. Bradshaw 220, J. Jordan 242, S. Drew 220, J. Buchanan 227, A. Nolan 216, A. Urquhart 222, M. Bonnette 220, D. Townsend 224, D. Earle 226.

Blue Spring Nursery

Oct 7. Violets must have been afraid of the Roses, thorns cause they let said Roses trundle off with all games. Mums were mums as far as points were concerned, and Glads chalked up a seven point win. Carnations were in for two and totals when they met up with the Astors.

Toppling the pins for the top triples were M. Ware 601, G. Hulford 604, N. Wilds 616 and L. Toth 639. Making the mostest of the bestest for top flight singles were J. Masales 200, C. Wallis 231, P. McHugh 220, J. Watters 213, A. Nolan 216, A. Urquhart 222, M. Bonnette 220, D. Townsend 224, D. Earle 226.

Action Mixed

Oct 7. That scowling you hear could be emanating from the Alley Cats. With a two and totals win from Jokers, the Cats took over first place. E. Ryan 622 and D. Green 606 did their best for the losers with a 614 from R. Hulford heading up the winners' play.

Krazy Kats bowled like crazy and calmed the Hurricanes down to a replay when they took all games with a hot 705 (222) from D. Williams to spark the play.

Gutter Rollers had the edge for two games against Ivy Leaguers with B. Martin's 610 featuring the win. J. McLean's 644 triple made the Ivy Leaguers score respectable and they snared the odd point for totals. Shed a tear for M. Oehlrich started off with a 326 single and failed to hit the 600 track.

Top angles were bowled by L. Bradshaw 200, R. Brooks 210, C. Ryan 225, H. Townsend 227, J. Hurlough 246, H. Rogers 214, C. McLean 214, J. Ayler 230, S. Oehlrich 230, I. Martin 210, H. Crayce 228.

Industrial - Commercial

Oct 8. D. Green 717, B. Johnson 643 and B. Stewart 614, along with D. Wilds' 449 double, and Reliable

Avro Aircraft Seen on Film At Men's Club First Meeting

The Men's Club of the United Church held their first meeting of the fall and winter season last Wednesday evening in the Sunday School hall with a fair attendance.

Considerable discussion took place on club matters. Another plan was being considered for an interesting feature of the evening.

Rockwood lost another citizen in the passing of Albert (Beet) Richardson last Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, following a brief illness.

The funeral took place Friday with services at Holy Family Home, Acton. Rev. H. B. Stokroff of St. Albans Church conducted the service. Pallbearers were Messrs. F. D. McCubbin, Robert Farries, Cameron Kitching, Lloyd Marsden,

Can Nots seemed to be climbing out of the cellar when they muzzled the Wolves in the first stanza, but the Wolves had other ideas and made off with the last two and totals. H. Taylor posted a 605 in the Wolves' case.

Winding up the team action was the Headpins grabbing a two game win from the Bees. The Bees managed enough pins in their single win for totals.

And now for those who missed the big triples but were on the ball for the singles. B. Buchanan 203, J. Buchanan 241, D. Earle 205, G. Malcolm 220, D. Malcolm 211, A. Johnson 204, B. Garton 214, V. Drinkwater 216, H. Jordan 205, J. Kelly 242, F. Wallace 202, J. Pope 219, A. McGowan 220, A. Ricketts 202.

Tea-n-Under

Oct 11. Riders were riding high when they took on the Spunkies and made both games winning out-ers. Red Teddies dished the treatment to Rocking Robins. The Blue Angels had the edge over the Bird Dogs for a one and totals go.

Headpin Hilites

Herb Jordan posted a 604 to win the "Tops Cleaners" weekly award while Laurie Ritchie can pick up some Ledgers IGA foodstuffs on the strength of her 202 single. Bob Agnew can make a selection from the stock of Henry's Clothing. His 757 made him boss man in the triple field. Martin Oehlrich won the Gordon's Hardware weekly award with a neat 338 single.

Action Friends

Oct 9. Nickies nipped the Cherrons for a two and totals win as did the Sugar Jets against Hula Hoopers. Rebel Rousers also made it two against Headpins but dropped the odd point for totals. L. Ritchie surprised the menfolk when she trundled a 645 trounce to lead both sexes in the triple field. Best the men could do was a 633 from G. Walker.

Avro - Oranda Mixed

Oct 10. Biggest point winners in the A-O league this trip were Spottsmen. They won two, first one point, snared totals from the boys for six points. T. Scott 639 and G. Richardson 600 were in there for the winners with B. McDonald 741 and H. Earle 601 tops for the losers.
