Compares Lives of Pilgrims To Ours at Ladies' Aid Meet

The members of the Ladies' Aid, daughters of Brampton spent the day at their Presbyterian church. On weekend with the latter's parents, held their Thanksgiving meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Sinclair. The devotional was taken by Mrs. Aitken. Roll call was answered with a thought on Thanksgiving.

Homemaking tips were discussed and final plans were made for the harvest fair and tea. Mrs. H. R. Howard was convenor of the program which proved very interesting. The topic "Let us give Thanks" was given by Mrs. Sinclair. This compared the lives of today with those of the early pilgrims emphasizing the many things we should be thankful for good food and meal, real good schools, good working conditions and devotion of worshippers in the church of our choice and that our words of praise should be a constant echo to our thanks to God.

A poem "How joyful and how you live" was read by Mrs. Fisher. A reading "Thanksgiving" was given by Mrs. Elto and Mrs. McLean gave a paper on "What Thanksgiving means". A brief study was conducted by Mrs. Aitken and was followed by Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Fisher. The scriptural questionnaire was taken by Mrs. McPherson.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Sinclair after which refreshments were served to the committee in charge. Visitors Mr. and Mrs. James Struthers and Mr. Gordon Acton spent a day with friends at Bucknowell. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boersma and Mr. and Mrs. John Koenig attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson received the saddle presented by his brother Fred in London. He and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Williamson attended the funeral on Friday.
