

Barbara Pickard, Top Speaker To Represent Halton in Finals

Friday evening, October 24th, saw the Halton Junior Farmers stage their annual Inter-Club Debating and Public Speaking Competition at the Milton High School.

Under the able chairmanship of Roy F. Ford, president of Halton Junior Farmers, ten young people participated in the two debates and public speaking competition. The official judges, R. F. Hornbudd, Geo. E. Elliott, Q.C. and E. W. Foster, had a difficult task but came through with flying colors. The resolution under debate was, "Resolved that rural youth in Ontario is being adequately trained for modern agriculture."

Two Debates
The first debate brought together Evelyn Booth and Don Taylor of the Palermo club, who upheld the affirmative against Novala's negative team of Bill Wilson and Hugh Cunningham. After a split decision the Palermo club secured the judges' decision.
Doris Thompson and Pat Hitchcock of the Acton club upheld the affirmative in the second debate against Milton's team of Sandy Hepburn and David Wilson. In this case the negative team from Milton won the honors as the subject is still open to debate.

In addition, the judges had the added and even more difficult task of selecting the four young people who will represent Halton in the provincial inter-county debating series which will get underway during the current month. Those selected were as follows: Evelyn Booth, Sandy Hepburn, Bill Wilson and Dave Wilson.

Two Public Speakers
Following an enjoyable and songably led by Bill Marshall one of Halton's provincial champions in 1958, president Ford introduced the two public speakers, Mark Marquardt representing the Milton club, and Barbara Pickard, the Palermo club.

Certainly those in attendance were more than compensated for any effort they had made to be in attendance, not only by the quality of the two debates, but also by the interesting and educational presentations of these two speakers.

Mark Marquardt vividly portrayed some of the historic background and impressions of his native country of Germany, while Barbara Pickard ably discussed the controversial topic "Should nuclear tests be discontinued?"

B. Pickard Winner
Here the judge's decision went to the latter speaker, who will now represent the Halton Juniors in the provincial competition in Toronto in early January.

One of the many pleasing features of the evening's program to those of us who had played some small part in coaching Halton's debaters was the fact that we could derive evidence that a goodly number of those who had been members of Halton's four championship debating teams over the past six years had been judged a hand in coaching the new crop. Congratulations Halton Juniors on a job well done.

Though Ontario is the most highly industrialized and urbanized province, yet it has the largest number of occupied farms.

International Champion Plowman Demonstrates at Halton Contest

Charles Bonney of Princeton, newly crowned champion tractor plowman at the recent International, again demonstrated his uncanny ability with a tractor plow by winning first in the open tractor and the open utility classes at Halton's annual Match held on the Milton Van der Boven farm near Milton on Saturday, October 25.

Weather conditions were disagreeable to say the least and reacted on the entry and attendance alike.

In all, 40 judges were turned out according to Wendell Timbers of Stouffville and George Hoffmeyer of Kitchener, who were the official judges. The quality of the work was high and compared favorably with that seen at any Match this year. Both judges commented on the excellent teamwork shown in the two utility classes where no handling or coaching was permitted.

Esso Specials

The Esso Walking Plow Special, which is awarded to the Halton plowman with the best ridge, was won by Lloyd May of Milton, R. R. 4.

A similar Special from the same company, for the best tractor ridge plowed by a Halton plowman was won by Arnold Howden of Milton, R. R. 4.

The Eaton's of Canada Special for the best ridge by a Halton contestant under 18 years, was won by Keith Leslie of Georgetown, R. R. 4. The top plowman in the Ernest Irvine Utility Class, open to Halton, was won by George Dixon of Georgetown, R. R. 4.

Approximately 175 were in attendance for the evening banquet held in the main hall at the Milton Fair Grounds. Here, under the chairmanship of president Leonard Laster of Hornby, an interesting program was run off, following the delicious dinner catered by the ladies of the Scotch Block W.M.

Brief Speeches
Rev. G. L. Royal of Norval, who was introduced by Stanley I. Hall, M.L.A., took as his subject, "Oh, for the Good Old Days."

"Let us first," stated Mr. Royal, "ask ourselves this question: were the good old days really so good, or is it just my imagination?"

"The need of the past and the need of the present is leadership," added Mr. Royal, and on this he based his most stimulating and interesting address.

Another pleasing feature of the program was the recognition and presentation made to Halton's popular and charming Dairy Princess of 1958 - Mrs. James C. Reid of Georgetown, R. R. 2, who it will be recalled was reserve to Janette Lockman of Brent County in the Dairy Queen Contest at the Canadian National Exhibition, which contest brought together 45 of Ontario's top young ladies from as many different counties and districts.

The Bible is a well used book in the Royal household. The connection of the Royal family with the Bible and the Bible Society has been long standing. Our kings and queens are anointed in the King James Authorized Version. The printing of the Bible in England is supervised by Royal Charter.

Royal Palms
Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and the Queen Mother are both members of the Bible and Foreign Bible Society. The Duke of Edinburgh usually reads the Scripture lesson in the churches when the Royal couple attend divine worship.

Considerable thought is given to the Bible in the Royal household. It is based largely on the fact that the Bibles were founded on the traditions of the Royal household. The Bible.

THEIR LIVES—HIS LIVELIHOOD—DEPEND ON OIL

Imperial contributes to a better life for Canadians through constant leadership in oil... finding new supplies... pioneering more useful products

There are more than five tractors for every six occupied farms in Canada... one motor vehicle for every four Canadians. More than half the homes in Canada are heated by oil.

Canadians consume half again as much gasoline today as they did in 1946, nearly five times as much heating and diesel fuels.

Imperial has been a major contributor to this better life, more productive economy. In 1946, Canada produced less than one-tenth of its oil needs. In 1947, Imperial discovered oil at Leduc, in Alberta. Today, Canada's own fields produce nearly 60 percent of our requirements.

Through its nine refineries from coast to coast... and in its research operations, larger than the rest of the Canadian oil industry put together, Imperial has constantly been able to lead in the development of newer and more useful products... to make a fuller life for Canadians.

Since 1941, gasoline-fueled equipment on farms has risen sharply.
