Mrs. Nickell Dies at 95 Club, Accidents in News

The monthly meeting of the United Church Men's Club was held in the Sunday School hall last Wednesday evening. Gordon Harris, president, called the meeting to order and announced the hymn. "O happy is the man who hears instruction's warning voice," with George Day at the piano. Lloyd Marsden read the minutes of the last meeting. Some discussion relative to club matters by Ross Gordon was taken up. A brief song was conducted by Stanley Harris.

A feature of the evening was an interesting talk by William Stevens of Gypsum Lane Co. of Guelph, who brought with him a large collection of stones and minerals of different sorts which he had collected in different parts of the United States and others from India. The specimens were shown from 7:30 to 9:00. At the conclusion of the talk refreshments were served by a committee and a social time was enjoyed.

Was in 50th Year
A well known citizen in the person of Mrs. Ethel Nickell widow of the late J. H. Nickell passed away last Thursday at her home in her 50th year, following a long illness. When able to get around in the summer time she had great pleasure in her flowers.

Mrs. Nickell leaves to mourn her loss six daughters: Marie and Ethel at home; Margaret (Mrs. Murray) in the West; Mabel (Mrs. Morrison) in Ohio; U.S. (Mrs. Kate Ames) in Duluth, Minn.; and Kate in Hamilton. Funeral took place Saturday with service in the Presbyterian church. John Hutch was in charge, assisted by Rev. Fred Williamson of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Guelph. During the service, Rock of Ages was sung.

Bellflowers were seven nephews, Duncan, Pollock, Douglas, P. Beck, Gordon, Campbell, Thomas, Evans, Ernest, Russell, William Sharp and Philip. Rose Interment took place in Rockwood cemetery beside her late husband. A number of floral wreaths bore silent tribute to her memory. A large number of relatives were present for the funeral from out of town.

Remembrance Theme
The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Douglas on Thursday evening for a service, the theme of Remembrance. Two minutes' silence and prayer were offered in memory of those who gave their lives in two world wars and in Korea. Scripture was read by Mrs. Benton and prayer by Mrs. Goby followed.

Brotherly love was a prominent note and Mrs. K. Kostrik read an interesting account of the life of Dr. Albert Schweitzer. Text "Wood, Nation" was answered by a verse of Scripture.

W.I. Bazaar Held in Hall
The W.I. held a successful bazaar in the High on Saturday. Jacqueline Crickton won a crocheted flower basket in a draw.

Prize winners at the bazaar following were: Mrs. R. Davidson and Joe McDonald and second went to Mrs. Edith Thompson and H. E. Davidson who won in a draw with Charles Meredith.

Joy Patterson spent the weekend with her cousin, Marilyn Patterson at Rockwood.

At an annual community meeting for business of the Linn House Memorial Hall Mr. Ed Eudley was appointed to replace a retiring member of the hall board.

Boy's Accident
Much regret is felt in the community for Rev. A. H. Callaghan, who figured in a serious motor accident on Saturday afternoon in Erasmus township. His car sustained damage of over $1000 and another, owned by D. H. Carter of Georgetown, was damaged $1000.

Father Callaghan sustained injuries in broken ribs, fractured pelvis and other injuries. D. H. Carter and a passenger, C. Colbert, were examined by X-rays for injuries and later released. Father Callaghan is in St. Joseph's hospital. The High O.P.P. Constable Hugh Alton investigated the accident.

Mrs. MacDonald Paintings
The 11th annual Guelph Creative Arts Association Exhibition came to a successful conclusion in the Armory on Saturday evening. A large number of groups were well up in different lines of art work. One interesting feature was the cooperation of some. Most of the art students along with high public library with several books dealing with different subjects.

Displayed was work done by some of the Guelph separate school students as well as other schools including kindergarten pupils which were interesting. A large number of paintings by E. J. MacDonald were much admired by visitors.

Richard Harris had four engagements in the Camera Club display, dealing with Rockwood scenery and one of the Canadian National Exhibition, a statue in a fountain along Lakeshore. Boulevard Craft work from the Ontario Reformatory was on exhibit.

Miss Elva Pearson and Mrs. Callaghan attended the tea and bazaar at Ovington on Saturday. Miss Ethel McNabb of Toronto was home for the weekend.

Wilbert Freeman is at the Royal Winter Fair, assisting J. M. Fraser in an exhibit of Halton cattle.

Clayton Corbett visited Newfoundland in 1941 on behalf of the Portuguese.
