Bruce Storey, Laura Bidwell Married in Barrie Ceremony

Guests from Acton were among those attending the marriage of Laura Jessie Bidwell and Bruce A. Storey at Barrie on Saturday, November 15. Rev. John Riddell officiated in St. Giles' Anglican church, Barrie, at seven o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Bidwell of Shanty Bay. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Storey of Acton.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon net with satin floral stitching, topped by a small net bolero. Her fingertip length veil was held by a floral headband. Red roses formed her bouquet. She was given in marriage by her father.

Three Attendants
Her maid of honor was Patti Graze of Midland, who wore a gown of pale blue taffeta with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white and pink mums. The bridesmaid was Patti Ray of Edgar, who wore pale pink with white accessories and carried white and blue mums.

The bride's cousin, Judy Partridge of Shanty Bay, was flower girl. She wore pale green taffeta with a matching headband and carried white and cream mums.

Groomsman was Robert Ascott of Barrie. Ushers were the groom's brother, Ed Storey of Acton and the bride's brother, George Bidwell of Shanty Bay.

The organist was R. B. Cumming and the soloist, Alfred Page, sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and the Lord's Prayer during the signing of the register.

Many Guests
The wedding reception was held at Craighurst community hall, with many guests from Toronto, Acton, Scarborough, Bellefountain, Caledon, Brampton, Brant, Columbia and the Barrie district.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, New York, the bride wearing a pale blue nylon dress with a corsage of pink and white carnations, and contrasting accessories of black and white.

This will make their home in Barrie.

The bride's mother wore for the occasion a dress of teal blue with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and white mums. Mrs. Storey wore for her son's marriage a dress of royal blue lace with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses and white carnations.

Rockwood Priest Improves Steadily

Hospital officials at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, reported this week that Rev. A. S. Callaghan's condition is improving satisfactorily. Father Callaghan was injured in an automobile accident in Eramosa township.

It is expected that the pastor of Sacred Heart, Rockwood, and St. Peter's parishes will be hospitalized until the end of December. Last Sunday both congregations held special services with Rev. J. Flaherty of Church of Our Lady conducting services.

An appointment is expected to be made soon to replace Father Callaghan until such time as he is well enough to resume his church duties.

He suffered broken ribs, a fractured pelvis and internal injuries when his late model car collided with another vehicle on the seventh concession of Eramosa.

Bannockburn W.I. Plans Three Euchres

The regular monthly meeting of Bannockburn Women's Institute was held on Thursday, November 20 at Bannockburn school. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect.

Eleven members answered the roll call by naming "an article we should have in our medicine chest". The business consisted of planning three euchres and planning for layettes for the Unitarian service.

A letter was read from the School for Bannockburn Children, stressing the need for additional funds for the necessary expansions which will follow with the addition of more members each year.

Mrs. W. McDonald gave a report on the Guelph area convention Mrs. J. Fox, in charge of home economics and health, had Mrs. T. O'Rourke give an interesting reading.

The meeting closed with the Queen, Lord's Prayer and Institute Grace. Lunch was served, concluding the evening.

Mrs. E. Jennings Club President

The nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1959 at the regular meeting of the Friendly Circle held in the United church parlor, Wednesday evening of last week.

Officers are as follows: past president, Mrs. M. Nesset; president, Mrs. E. Jennings, vice-president, Mrs. M. Nellis, secretary, Mrs. V. Mastice, corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Waterhouse, treasurer, Mrs. D. Van Fleet, reporter, Mrs. C. Rogstadson, visiting committee, Mrs. M. Symon, Mrs. W. Struthers, Mrs. L. Youngblut.

It was decided to draw up a constitution, and to work in bazaar groups, such as knitting groups, sewing groups etc., and to work as a whole group rather than four separate groups.

Final plans were made for the Presbytery dinner and fall bazaar.

The group in charge took over the worship with scripture read by Mrs. Jennings. Mrs. Don Bothwell read a poem entitled "Greatness" and Mrs. Ellen Wolfrey led in prayer. Mrs. F. Thompson was the pianist.

Lunch was served by the committee and a social time enjoyed.

New Baxter Plant Opened to Visitors

Sunday afternoon the premises of Baxter Laboratories in Alliston was opened to the public. Prepared route guided over 1800 people past the varied departments and operations of the plant.

Foremen and supervisors explained the functions of their equipment and the overall production that is conducted in the individual departments.

The general reaction of the guests was great surprise at the great variety of work carried on at Baxters.

A pleasant climax to the tour was a bountiful buffet dinner served in manufacturing area of the plant.
