

Rollin' Down the Alleys

WITH KEN HULFORD

High School

Nov. 17 Well, there's a new leader obtaining in first place. Natellites, with a two and totals win from Hula Hoops have taken over the top spot. D. Lombardi's 825 triple was the outstanding score in this go and strange to say it was for the short-enders.

Relief bowlers did themselves a lot of good as far as points were concerned. They cracked the Cracks for all games.

Mistifs had the box on Bird Dogs for two games, but Bird Dogs single win was a big one and then grabbed the single in for totals. For Mistifs it was G. Hulford 647 taking top honors, with H. Shannon 604 being likewise for Bird Dogs.

If you're still with us, well tell of the top singles: H. Shannon 240, J. Foley 203, W. Hildy 236, P. Hunter 207, A. Williams 212, H. Malvern 208, D. Rodlock 221, P. Hart 208.

Beardmore

Nov. 17 Paper Peeler made a gain on the front running Cats when they took the Beardmore for all games. J. Zapa was the upper dumper for the winners with 678 (303) & H. Hertz for Beardmore finished 600 in a losing cause.

Outside won the first from Currys, dropped the second by four pins, got perturbed and romped home with the finale for a two and totals win. Sharing top honors for Currys were H. Mackon 602, F. Kretmer 619, J. Pink 629. Currys failed to place in the upper brackets in fact one, Timmie Masala went in reverse. He plucked a 25.

Four of the Ten Yesters were being over. H. Rogers 658, A. Buchanan 620 (312), H. Thompson 612, P. Lawson 614 and they won two games from Rolling Horns. H. Lantier's 610 for Rolling Horns, which included a 302 single helped them to win one game and snatched totals.

Legion Ladies

Nov. 17 Fly-by-Nights were flying high and it was pie in the sky for all games when they knocked off the South Paws for all games. J. Buchanan with a hot 726 triple headed up the win. J. Martin turned in a nice choice for the South Paws with 615.

Worry Warts won their first game from Firecrackers. Then the latter came with a hot 700 triple in the last two and totals and knocked off the Worry Warts off their top rung perch. Firecrackers' top trundler was E. Bowman with 553 (286) and in a like position for Worry Warts, L. Bradshaw 560 (216).

The top single shooters were: P. Jordan 213, A. Wheeler 211, E. Wagner 200, D. Thompson 214, S. Foley 229.

Blue Spring Nursery

Nov. 18 Golets tucked away five points when they took Astors for two and totals. Singles of 235 and 213 from W. Smith and A. Reber were best for Violets with Astors getting an E for effort. Carnations and Mums' hooked up place and the Lamb Real Katers coming up fast on the outside in the show position with a three-way jam on the turn with Hanson, Shook, Corona Shook and Hushin Jewellers.

The takedown on the night's play found Hushin Jewellers taking Prong Motors for two and totals. Lovell Hosa did the same to Benson Shook and the absence of the Sidney K. Lamb Real Kater (what a mouthful!) outfit did a like thing when they met up with Corona Shook.

Two of the gals pointed with pride to their trivants. A. Nedy with 660 and P. Ballentine 612. Seemed to be an off night as far as top singles were concerned. M. Pope 200, D. Sprylock 217, E. Robertson 241, J. Hosa 200, capturing the honors.

Acton Major

Nov. 20 (what it seemed as if the Dominion Hotel was due to get knocked off the top rung they turn around and clutter the opposition to stay up in there. This time it was the Ten Pins taking the zero count from the Hotel crew. Putting the paw into the hole for Dominion were E. M. Gilloway 723 (312), H. Skidgmore 703, G. Masala 711, C. Pevcha 729 (300), H. Phelan 410 double. Ten Pins were trying as well as J. Kelly 627 (300), H. Lawson 620, J. Dennis 603 double.

Firemen brought the Casuarin Flyers to earth in the first go by five pins and kept them grounded for the next two with a second exhibition of science and skill. M. Holmes 621 and P. Wathie 611 double emerged as the top trundlers for the host toters. M. Cove 602 was the only Flyer to soar into the upper brackets.

Vagabonds pulled the Tiger Cats lanky in the first look to the hole when the Cats started back on the second. Then did an about face and tied knots in the Tiger tails for the finale. Final result: Vagabonds two games, Tiger Cats one and totals. For the Vags W. Wagner 606 and J. Fryer 604 were best with A. Williams 627 and K. Hulford 620 being the same for Tigers.

Acton Friends

Nov. 20 Overcast went all out against the Headpins and made every game a winning one. G. Walker and H. DeForest came to life for the winners with 691 and 626 respectively. H. Rogers with 613 tried to get Headpins on the winning track but it wasn't to be. Relief bowlers made it three consecutive wins against the Sugar

Industrial - Commercial

Nov. 19 A-1 Delvers loved with Station Hotel for the first two games but the Station outfit hung together and grabbed off the last go by eight pins to salvage one game. Delivering the goods for A-1 were C. DeForest 760 (320) and L. McGiloway 706.

Acton Ladies

Nov. 19 Times are mighty close on the ladies league, mighty close. Prong Motors grinds hang onto first place with Lovell Bros, crowding them on the rail for good singles but space restricted on to the top ten and here we go. J. Mackon 250, V. Mark 253, G. Malvern 250, D. Malvern 250, C. Loughton 226, Art Johnson 225, H. Jordan 223, C. Richards 250, G. Jordan 215, G. Wilkinson 211.

Yeen-n-Under

Nov. 22 Blue Angels took over top spot last week and hung onto it this week by taking Hiders for one and totals. Spilling the pins for plenty in the win were Joe Defford 603 (240) and H. Struckey 550 (280). For the Hiders G. Maxwell 603 (214) and F. Wedge 320 (178) were best.

Headpin Hillies

Elvis Swift who in one week became converted from a stand up ball thrower to a ball thrower, pitched a 200 single to win the weekly 14-A. greatest. Joyce Buchanan gets a chance to try out the Tops Cleaners system on the strength of her 726 triple. Bill Williams 701 was top high for the men this week to

Avro - Oranda Mixed

Nov. 31 Can Bess are still sailing along in first place. A three game win from Headpins keeps their lead secure. J. Kelly's 810 finished topped up the win.

Although Red Turtles took them for one and totals, Bird Dogs showed impressive form. They won their one win conservatively and just missed total by 14 pins. J. Hosa 520 (180) and P. Graham 500 (145) paced the Red Turtles, with captain L. Woods getting Bird Dogs pick up the Henry's Clothing vouchers. A dead heat for the (Goshen Hardware voucher that week. McGiloway chalked up a 332 only to have Hank Kato to it.

With the Saturday morning hole, Lynn Vatey Junior, Platt, Joe Defford and Allan Hall were the best bowlers over their average and treated their team mates to the Com-Cole Membrals and New Year's Up awards. The inter county team played host to Milton last Saturday and treated them rather shabbily. They won all games. First week the team goes back to work. Leo and Alex were the eye in the Dominion Hotel Saturday evening rolled. And that brings us to the end of the week.

Rolling Horns paced by Beerman 343 (183) were the good for Spouticks and took last game 4-1. Vary's 201 (132) was top for the Spouticks.

Although Red Turtles took them for one and totals, Bird Dogs showed impressive form. They won their one win conservatively and just missed total by 14 pins. J. Hosa 520 (180) and P. Graham 500 (145) paced the Red Turtles, with captain L. Woods getting Bird Dogs

Subdivision Shade

Trafalgar Project

(OAKVILLE) Steps to bring trees to greenery starved subdivisions were taken as Trafalgar Council approved the first stage of its proposed tree-planting program which hopes to replace trees in favor of a sidewalk next spring.

Council gave its assent to a form letter which is to be sent to ratepayers and home and school associations. The letter puts forth the idea of spring planting by group, and gives knowledge a chance of full and orderly types of trees for which they may pay by enclosing a small amount of money.
