WILDS In loving memory of my dear husband James Wilds, who passed away December 4, 1957

(with came sorrow and tears,
But you left me beautiful memories,
I will treasure through the years
Sadly missed by loving wife, Lillie a-23-2301

But when we saw you sleeping,
So peacefully free from pain,
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again.
Lovingly remembered by his sons, daughters - in - law and grandchildren. a-23-2306

Interest Overcomes Cold On Farm Woodlot Day

Farm Woodlot Day, held on November 19th on the farm of Earl Hindley, Eramosa township, near Ospic, drew a large crowd of spectators, all keenly interested in learning as much as they could about trees

The full program was outlined by W E Steel, Reforestation Supervisor, Lake Huron District At least 15 members of the forestry branch were present to lecture and give advice

Following the welcome by John Rood, M.L.A. groups were formed and made their ways along the wooded paths in Mr Hindley's 23-acre woodlot, stopping to watch a demonstration on one of the subjects that interested them most

Eight Topics

Eight topics were discussed by men in each particular subject some of them being Selection of Trees to Cut Tree Farms and Cattle Destroy Maple Seedlings

Trees had been felled of different types showing the proper time to cut and when a tree was at its best

A good crowd stayed with the lecturer of maple syrup, Doug Drysdale, at the building that housed the evaporator Mr Drysdale was assisted by N S Marsden Both stressed cleanliness in the processing of the syrup from start to finish

He compared the New England marketing of their syrup and the excellent job done of "packaging" Done attractively, this brings repeat business

Warns Against Disease

Dr J M Reid from the Dominion Forest Pathology, Maple, Ontario, warned against the dreaded Dutch Elm disease It is not in Wellington county, he remarked but was in neighboring Waterloo county He passed around booklets that contained an outline of the history of the disease It was first noticed in the Netherlands in 1918 It is caused by a fungus spread by beetles The disease was first discovered in Canada in 1944 in Sorel Quebec

Tree spraying was recommended as a cheaper method of getting rid of them Removing a large tree could cost $400 and was hard on the ratepayers

Many demonstrations took place such as one of a nail blowing machine and another a wood chipper Chips made this way are in use in the New England states as bedding for farm animals, in poultry pens and as mulch

Noisy Exhibition

Many chain saws were demonstrated at one time giving the watchers a thrilling if very noisy exhibition of what these saws can do

Two contests were watched with real interest Franklin Armstrong won in a Swede saw event by sawing a nine inch log in 2.5 seconds George Barrie came second His time was 28 seconds

Jim Parkinson won in the log chopping, getting through a nine inch log in 55 seconds Ab Moyer was right behind with 58 seconds

A draw was conducted by a farm equipment company, Earl Hindley being invited to do the actual drawing W Steel won a chain saw and Mr Hindley drew his own name second, winning an axe

The weather was somewhat sharp, with a cold wind at times It was, however, an almost perfect day for such an event in late autumn The sun shone occasionally just enough to brighten the afternoon but giving no warmth Everybody was warmly dressed and too busy seeing all that went on to feel cold

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of Mimosa United church catered for the afternoon, offering hot coffee and delicious home made pies, making the event a truly memorable one for those who like the open air and nature

Tenders Disappoint Georgetown Council

GEORGETOWN — Disappointment at tender prices submitted by two purchasers for five of a total of 18 building lots in the park district offered for sale by the town, was expressed when tenders were opened at last week's Georgetown council meeting

The prices were far below the council's idea of the value and tenders were filed Mayor Armstrong said no lot in a residential area sells for less than $2,000 and Cr Fred Harrison said in his opinion lots with the frontage of those the town owns should be worth at least $4,000

Council will leave the lots open to tender at any time, and signs will be erected on the property advertising their availability

Correct time service from the Dominion Observatory in Ottawa is based on sighting by photographic telescope of a group of "clock stars" that always pass a certain point at a certain second

The first flag flown in Canada was early England's flag, the red cross of St George on a white background, later incorporated in the Union Jack.
