

Local Herd Owners Purchasers At Winter Fair Sale of Stars

In the Jersey Sale of Stars held in connection with the recent Royal Winter Fair, the second high priced female in the sale that averaged $1,150.00 was from the herd of Maurice C. Healy, Milton, Lancashire, Royal Prince, a three year old gelded bull, sold to Lee Marsh, Pioneer Jersey Farms, Old Lyme, Connecticut. Healy was second in the two year old class at the Royal and was one of the most beautiful cows in a show that had many entries.

The cow is Brumpton Bar Royal. Her father, Mr. Healy's former herd bull, has sired many prize winners in his herd, and was the junior get of sire at the Royal Winter Fair.

The dam of Royal Prince is Landale Design, who is an excellent cow with several R.C.P. records third place three year old and over, at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Home Cooking, Tea Supplied Mothers At Home Ec. Class

On December 11, Mrs. Alice M. Smith, a home economics teacher at Acton High School, will demonstrate how to prepare tea, coffee, biscuits, and cake mixtures for the Christmas season.

At the same time, Mrs. Smith will demonstrate how to prepare the decorations for the Christmas tree, including a Santa Claus, a reindeer, a snowman, and a snowflake.

Mrs. Smith will also demonstrate how to make a Christmas stocking, and how to make a Christmas wreath, and how to make a Christmas tree skirt.

Mrs. Smith will also demonstrate how to make a Christmas card.

Adds Another

Mr. Healy sold an outstanding cow, but he added another to his herd in the name of Esmakille Royal Prince, sired by Mr. Healy and son of Esmakille.

Healy is an outstanding young dairy cow with a record of over $800.00 of milk as a two year old.

Mr. Healy paid $100.00 for this cow. She is a daughter of the former herd sire at Esmakille, Shadwell Royal Prince 2nd, a bull that has sired many prize winners both north and south of the American border, and who has 35 tested daughters that average $833.00 each and 441 lbs. of fat, and 22 classified daughters that average $833.00.
