

DOLLS GALORE could be the caption for this picture, as dolls (members of the Y's Menettes' Club) in Acton take their pick of the gaily dressed dolls, at their bazaar held in the Y.M.C.A. last Saturday. Club members have been busy the past few months making special little dresses and other wearing apparel to sell at the bazaar. Also for sale was homemade baking with the ladies serving coffee and doughnuts. Pictured above, left to right are: Mrs. E. Masales, Mrs. M. Nellis, Mrs. J. McGee, Mrs. E. Lidke, Mrs. D. Bohlwell, Mrs. G. W. McKenzie and Mrs. W. Toth as they display some of the wares for sale.

BELL RINGERS, sleigh bells that is, were quite entertaining at the United Church Junior Sunday School White Gift and Christmas concert last Sunday. Members of the primary class, their teacher is Mrs. J. Whitham. The group sang "Jingle Bells" and "Silent Night".

Buffet Supper Ends Meeting

The Sunday school room of Acton United church was decorated in the Christmas tree featuring a Christmas tree trimmed by the girls of the CGIT, for the Friendly Circle Christmas party held on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. Mae Synon gave the commercials for a hilarious skit "Keep Talking," a take-off on the popular TV show. Mrs. S. Arano dressed as Santa Claus, was master of ceremonies and started each skit off about getting ready for Christmas. The contestants were four talkative ladies, dressed in red flannelette, nightgowns, and slippers, with Mrs. F. Keitner and Mrs. R. Armstrong matching their wits against Mrs. T. Thomaid and Mrs. R. Miller for the most points.

A trio of Mrs. F. Keitner, her daughter, Mrs. G. McKee, and granddaughter Brenda sang a medley of Christmas carols with Gord McKee on the piano. Mrs. W. Little led the devotions with the reading of the Nativity story intermingled with Christmas carols sung by the group accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. Marchington.

Real Meaning
Mrs. Little said that many people would be looking for new tobacconists or that special dress made of the new wonder fabric and perhaps forget the real meaning of Christmas. She then read the poem of the Old Cabbler, who dreamed of meeting the Christ child, and who did so many acts of kindness toward the poor. She told the story of the Little Pine Tree and led the group in prayer.

For the buffet supper, the table was adorned with a centerpiece of pine boughs, red Christmas balls and all red papers. Each paper plate was decorated with a small message arranged to add a festive look. The ladies served themselves and the group in charge served coffee. With the lights turned low, the group carried in tapers with a candle in each.

Good old St. Nick presented each lady with a gift before he (Mrs. Jerome) left wishing everyone a very Merry Christmas.

Mrs. C. Bagwell thanked Mrs. Armstrong and her group for the wonderful Christmas party. After a social that the evening concluded.

School's Out
Schools out this Friday. The young students have 16 days of vacation before they go back to school on Monday, January 5.

The regular Hi-Y dance was held Friday evening in the Y.

Mrs. Wilmer Watkins Hostess For Dublin Institute Meeting

Mrs. Wilmer Watkins was hostess at her home, Mill Street East Acton for the Christmas party of the Dublin Institute. Last Thursday evening. The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the festive season.

Mrs. M. J. Nellis, the president, occupied the chair for the business portion of the program. All the opening exercises Mrs. C. K. Armstrong read the minutes and a list of the roll which was read to by the deployment of a hand made gift of Christmas decorations. These were quite interesting to the ladies and showed skill and ingenuity.

Donation Made
A gift of $1000 was made to the Salvation Army. In addition, a check for $100 was given to the Dublin Institute for the purchase of the equipment of the year.

Mrs. A. Neal, Mrs. C. Davidson and Mrs. C. Armstrong were the committee in charge of the party and an enjoyable program was prepared with some TV panel shows and contests.

Ladies taking part in the contest were Mrs. W. Frank, Mrs. M. Nellis, Mrs. W. McHenry, Mrs. J. Butler, Mrs. D. McPherson, Mrs. C. McHenry, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. J. A. Van Fleet, Mrs. C. Thompson, Mrs. H. Butler, Mrs. H. Kelly, Mrs. W. Butler, Mrs. P. Kennedy, Mrs. M. Nonville, Mrs. N. Elliott, Mrs. W. Watkins and Mrs. C. Somerville.

A jolly time was spent and many good laughs were enjoyed. The winners in each contest were paid off with candy money, but later each member was given a silver coffee spoon as a memento of the Christmas party.

There was a beautiful attendance of ladies and all enjoyed the annual festivities. Mrs. Watkins, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Van Fleet, Mrs. Somerville and Mrs. Dennis, served a Christmas lunch to the ladies and a social time was enjoyed. Mrs. H. Kelly was especially conversant.

B. A. C. NEWS

Last Saturday afternoon saw another successful B.A.C. Fun Fair and Bazaar draw to a close. Complete with Santa Claus, Christmas tree and gifts for kiddies it was well under way at starting time.

A steady flow of patrons called through the well-laden tables of the fun novelties. Toys, literature and gift certificates of various kinds were sold.

It is of course regrettable that the holiday season brings the time when the church is closed. While patrons were busy with their shopping, the church was closed.
