P. McGrath Heads Association For Area Retarded Children

The annual election of officers for Milton and District Association for Retarded Children was held in the Sunshine School on Brown St. Milton, on Thursday evening, December 11. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer. Pat McGrath was appointed, along with the president, G. Addison, to attend the regional meeting in January.

Mr. Addison told the meeting that the teachers, Mrs. Jeffares and Mrs. Mitchell, would receive an increase in salary in the New Year.

Pat Cross, first vice-president and finance convener, gave his report, followed by a very interesting report from Mrs. A. McGrath, second vice-president and education and institutions convener.

Balance Up
The treasurer, Jim Sprout, gave his financial report, stating that the balance at the beginning of the year was approximately $600 and was slightly higher at the end of the year, with returns still coming in from the recent campaign.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. Howard, gave her report, as did the recording secretary, Mrs. Audrey Kingston. Mr. Addison addressed the meeting concerning the recent campaign and outlined future plans that the executive should be considering for the coming year. He stated that the area covers Milton, Georgetown, Acton and many smaller towns and rural communities. He also told the meeting that due to pressure of business, he would be unable to continue as president.

Thank President
Mrs. Sillars, on behalf of the Association, thanked Mr. Addison for his untiring work as president for the past two and a half years.

Mrs. George Agnew very ably chaired the meeting for the election of officers with the following results: honorary president, G. Addison, president, Pat McGrath; first vice-president, Fred Cross; second vice-president, Mrs. Ann McGrath; treasurer, Jim Sprout; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. Sillars; recording secretary, Mrs. H. Howard; auditor, Earl Black; recreation convener, Robert Ross; public relations and bulletin convener, Mrs. R. Ellenton.

It was moved and seconded that the honorary president have a vote on the executive committee.

Introduce Officers
Mrs. Agnew introduced the new slate of officers to the meeting and Mr. McGrath, the new president, spoke to the meeting. He noted there are 12,000 homes in the area covered by the association, that there are at least three big problems to contend with in the new

Christmas Vesper Service Held By C.G.I.T. of United Church

The Canadian Girls in Training of Acton United Church held their national Christmas Vesper Service Sunday evening at seven o'clock. Groups of girls across Canada are observing the same form of service this Christmas season.

Pat Adams read the investigation Scripture was read by Donna Ledger, Diane Angell and Diane Robinson. Pat Adams and Nancy Wallace read stories.

Donna Andrews began the candle lighting service when she lit the tallest taper on a candleabra. Elaine Dainith and Alyson Hill continued the ceremony.

Trim Court

Reardon employees have removed some of the large elm trees at the local tennis courts and trimmed branches off others at that spot.

Since the mid-thirties, university equipment in Canada has increased from 35,000 to about 90,000.

Accompanied by the organist, George Elliott, the girls sang several numbers including the Huron Carol and the Coventry Carol.

Leaders of the girls' group are two teachers at the W. J. Bennett public school, Mrs. G. Adams and Mrs. Ken Allen.
