KEN HULFORD

High School

Dec 8 Crackpots were cracking along in high gear for the first two against the Hula Hoops and then D. Lindsay unceremoniously found out a 751 trounce to enable the Hula Hoops to grab one and totals. The three points enabled Hula Hoops to take over the top spot from Satellite who were absorbing a three game defeat from the Muffs, who for the first time this season, ran up a three game win. G. Hulford's 613 triple sparked the Muff win.

Bird Dogs were on the mark for the first game win then the Rebel Browsers got their licks in and wound up with the last two and totals. A. Williams 654 triple headed up the win with 12. Reals 622 being tops for Bird Dogs.

The single games were falling by the wayside with T. Wilson 200, S. Dicks 201, M. Otterburn 207, T. Masales 213, J. Jeffers 231, W. Mason 210, C. Bradley 215, M. Rogers 212, C. Goodwin 220, P. Barr 235.

League standing: Hula Hoops 44, Satellites 41, Bird Dogs 38, Crackpots 37, Rebel Browsers 36, Muffs 35.

Beardmore

Dec 2 Outside continue to cut capers with the opposition, taking the Chrome for two and today getting them a six point lead. B. Agnew with 600 and R. Morton with 603 were the force in the Chrome win. H. Jank's 616 was a bright spot for the Chrome.

Alas Alack and woe is me, or in this case, the Leatherettes. Once again the girls saw all three games go to their opponents, this time the Upper Leatherettes. Case the girls credit - they keep at it. J. Zapp with 607 was tops for Upper Leatherettes. H. LeSueur's 592 headed up the females trundling.

Rolling Room were a powerhouse in the first against Curry. They fell off a bit in the second but won by 20 pins. The third was a close one right to the finish, 10 pins being the margin of victory, and again it was Rolling Room, to give them a clean sweep. F. Gibbons 640 and J. Dunn 601 rolled the most for the Rollers, with W. Allan 643 being ditto for Curry.

The Tan Yard outfit is beginning to shape up and with H. Rogers 641 spearheading their play, the Yard took the Beamhouse for the two and totals count.

League standing: Cuttle 69, Upper Leather 61, Curry 49, Rolling Room 48, Beamhouse 41, Chrome 31, Tan Yard 31, Leatherettes 4.

Legion Ladies

Dec 9 The league of the Legion Ladies is so doggone close, every week sees a change in the top spot. South Paws took over from Fly-by-Nights when they swept all games from said Fly-by-Nights. I. Martin 560 (200) and J. Holloway 576 (220) topped the South Paws with J. Buchanan 539 (226) and J. Angell 544 (216) were best for the losers.

Worry Warts worried through the first game with Firecrackers, stole the second by seven pins, and then someone lit the fuses of the Firecrackers and they exploded with a big last game win to grab three out of the seven points. Being some good single game rolling were: M. Allan 202, D. Thompson 205, D. Angell 211 and P. Jordan 221.

League standing: South Paws 46, Worry Warts 42, Fly-by-Nights 41, Firecrackers 39.

Blue Spring Nursery

Dec 10 Ashes tried hard to clip the Roses but wasn't to be. The Roses made every game a winning one. Glads sneaked the first game from Carnations by one pin and Carnations apparently took a dim view of this cause they established off the next two and totals. Mums won a close first game from the Violets, six pins being the difference, and then Violets perked up considerably and snuffed the last two cantos for a five point win.

Leading lady for the night was G. Hulford 613 (243), followed by J. Masales 530 (203) and L. Toth 567 (242). Finding the scores to their satisfaction for one game were: C. Wallis 206, N. Wilds 203, J. Constantine 205, M. Gibson 211, A. Nolan 206, G. Nolan 232, E. Dobbie 229, D. Townsley 206, M. Ware 219.

League standing: Roses 64, Carnations 47, Mums 45, Glads 43, Violets 33, Ashes 20.

Action Mixed

Dec 9 Alley Cats, with a two and totals win from the Gutter Rollers, hung onto a slim one point lead in the league race. Hurricanes were in a rough go. The Jokers made off with all the games. Crazy Kats pounced on the Ivy Leaguers for a three game win, to move themselves up a notch.

Taking straight, place and show in the evening's top triple trundling were Jack Bullough 753 (318), B. Williams 715 and D. Green 672. J. Knight made a good run for the third spot. She was nosed out with 683. J. Ayles 622 and H. Rogers 610 were trying.

The one game sharp shooters were W. Storey 207, C. Ryan 207, E. Ryan 231, Jean Bullough 207, S. Oehlrich 204, R. Hulford 200, E. Tuffin 228, B. Martin 231, R. Atkinson 236 and I. Martin 213.

League standing: Alley Cats 55, Jokers 54, Crazy Kats 52, Gutter Rollers 49, Ivy Leaguers 38, Hurricanes 25.

Industrial - Commercial

Dec 10 Due to the power shortage and subsequent blackout, the boys didn't get to trundling till 7:40 pm and judging by some of the scores, maybe they should have bowled in the dark anyway.

However, when the final pin had toppled over, Goya's Carriage had scored a big upset. They cleaned the clock of Ledger's IGA outfit. G. Lee 724 and C. Poycha 689 were free-wheeling for the Goy's with D. Manes with 632 set an example for IGA, but no one followed it.

Jolly Rogers threw a good game at Reliable Taxi to top the first then struck a skimmer by two pins. The Taxi outfit got a little more traction in the final to grab the win for the short end of the 5-2 game. B. Skidmore paced the "piratical crew" with 608. D. Green 692 and H. Stewart 667 were the boomers for Reliable.

Station Hotel's triumph, after the first game win from A-1 Delivery, was short lived. The A-1 came back strong and wound up with two and totals. E. McGilloy 605, Don DeForest 630 and E. McGilloy 617 packed the punch for A-1 with J. Cunningham 628 being best for Station Hotel.

League standing: A-1 Delivery 58, Reliable Taxi 49, Ledger's IGA 47, Jolly Rogers 44, Goy's Carriage 42, Station Hotel 33.

Action Ladies

Dec 11: The Christmas Roll came early for the Action Ladies this season and for bowling the most over their average to win the turkeys were Vera Arber, Bea Anderson, Lois Norton, Pauline Harrington, May Wilds and Mabel McKay.

For the chocolates it was Mae Gervais, Charlotte Holmes, Alice Sidel, Dorothy McCurdy, Jackie Blow and Ev Louett. Puffing smoke rings will be Joan Knight, Muriel Hills, Nan Hurst, Mae Hoare, Doris Creamer and Faye Pink.

Congratulations to the winners and maybe turkey winners, will save the bones to make soup for the losers.

Action Major

Dec 12 Dominion Hotel smarting after being shut out in last week's bowling, bounced back and took the Turbos for two and totals. Keeps the Hotel boys in first place. J. McGilloy sparked the win with a 644 trounce. The balance was supplied by doubles from H. Phelan 481, D. Anderson 433 and J. Pink 437. For Ten Pin P. Lawson 647 and I. Kelly 412 of doubles write best.

Carolin Flyers are still in full flight. For the second week in a row they won all games. This time they hung it on the Falcon and moved up to the fourth spot. K. Rogers 612, M. Carstairs 613 and M. Cox 647 fronted the attack. M. Holmes with 686 headed up the Falcons play.

Vagabonds had Turb's Cats number in the first, then the Cats glomped onto the last two and totals to keep themselves breathing down Dominion's necks. N. Morton 621, K. Hulford 645 and D. Green 684 were top trio for the Cats. J. Fryer with 682 stood out for the Vagabonds.

League standing: Dominion Hotel 57, Tiger Cats 55, Firemen 48, Carolin Flyers 43, Ten Pin 38, Vagabonds 32.

Action Friends

Dec 12 All is cheery in the Chevro ranks. They won two and tied a third to pick up six points. Head Pins were the recipients of the single point. G. Banks 658 and H. DeForest 649 were pace setters for Chevro's. H. Rogers with a 578 2x's headed the headpin hitting for Head Pins.

Nickies have really come to life. An all-out win from the Hula Hoops has them in a second place. The B. Skidmore with 595 (226) was the top Nickette. Hula Hoops' muffs lost their hoops of hope or something judging by the scores.

Rebel Browsers looked up with Sugar Jabs and latched onto the first two games. Then the sugar Jabs got stirred up and won the last canto to stay on the win sheet. J. McCre 595 (230) was the drivers seat for the Rebels. Sugar Jabs' triples just weren't.

Maybe the high triples were elusive but some good angles were knocked off. S. Brunelle 277, G. Walker 219, R. Bernard 220, W. Wilson 212, W. Dulon 233, J. Zapp 205, H. Tyler 219, H. Ritchie 222, L. Ritchie 204.

League standing: Chevro 59, Rebel Browsers 47, Nickies 47, Head Pins 44, Hula Hoops 38, Sugar Jabs 33.

Avro - Orenda Mixed

Dec 12 With a gobble gobble

here and a gobble gobble there, here a gobble, there a gobble, and a winner here and a winner there, the Avro-Orenda bowlers bowled their darndest to win that Christmas fowl and herewith the front line winners and may they enjoy sinking their teeth into the succulent birds: Marg Bryan, Marg Rainford, Aileen Bruce, Josie Rickers, Doreen Malcolm, Joyce Buchanan, Mel Jordan, Cyril Leighton and Bud McDonald.

The second line winners who will also have turkeys gracing the Christmas table, unless they save 'em for New Years, were Marg Young, Mrs. Wallace, Gwen Andrews, Mrs. Whitham, Bob Taylor, Irene Breen, Jack Cheetham, Will Barr, Tom Davison and Ivan Killby. Good eating, folks.

Oh yes, there were three vouchers for hidden scores, the winners being Doreen Virtue, Beryl Jordan and Fred Wallace.

Yean-n-Under

Dec 13 Bowling Hobbs are crowding Blue Angels for the top spot. They hit the Blue Angels for a one and totals win. The Hobbs almost made it two games. They dropped the first one by six pins. J. Beerman, captain of the Hobbs set his team a fine example. He put together a 200 - 231 for a 460 double.

Bird Dogs since I. Wood took over the captain's reins, have gone three weeks with nary a loss. They rode off with both games from the Hobbs.

Spunkies are still having trouble getting into their orbit. Red Teddies took them for both games.

Plenty of good doubles from the kids. C. Wedge 345, G. Masales 339 (209), H. Henderson 345 (223), John Duffield 306 (200), A. Cheetham 313, J. Hurst 380 (239), C. Evans

302, M. Sargent 034, K. Andrews 307.

The kids had their turkey roll, and bowling the most over their average to lug home the fowl were Janet Sires, Jill Hurst, Sue Walters, John Beerman, Ricky Henderson and Bobby Andrews. The last named winner found the turk too big for him to carry home, so needs be brother Bruce, of first-foot fame, was drafted into service as a conveyor.

League standing: Blue Angels 39, Rocking Robins 37, Red Teddies 35, Hobbs 33, Bird Dogs 24, Spunkies 17.

Headpin Hilites

Action Merchants inter-county team went Milton way last Saturday and had little or no trouble in picking up three games. Alice Sidel, Toronto's gift to the educational staff of Acton, was the double winner this week of the IGA groceries and the services of the Topa Cleaners' with a triple of 687, which included a single of 302 and by way of consolation, they were the same scores. Peggy Lawson rolled last week to top her double win. Jack Bullough can drop into Henry's Clothing and make a selection. He 723 trounce stood up to be won.

And a voice of a schoolboy railed the ranks' Whop! hup, we mean it was a roll of a schoolboy who won the Gordon's Hardware award with a single of 346. Don Lindsay did it while trundling in the High School League. The Seven-Up, Coca Cola and Bernhart's beverages awards were won by teenagers Jackie Bullough, Judy O'Rourke, John Beerman and Bobby Andrews. Losers in the Saturday evening Dominion Hotel roll were Leo McCristall and Don Green. The rest were winners.
