

A MIXED CHOIR filled the stage at the Robert Little Public School Auditorium on Wednesday, December 17, during the School Christmas Concert, as they sang carols during the entertainment. Over 500 children from the Robert Little and M. Z. Bennett Schools took part in the program. Included on the program were solos, duets and choir selections, as well as readings from the Bible. G. Banks, music teacher, and D. Copeland of the teaching staff directed the choirs during the program.

Rollin' Down the Alleys...

(Continued from Previous Page) dlers won their various awards for bowling the most over their averages. Stella Brunelle was a lucky girl, not only did she win herself a turkey, but Santa also drew her name for the I.C.A. voucher.

League standing: Cheerios 64, Rebel Housers 49, Nicksies 49, Head Pins 40, Hula Hoops 41, Sugar Jets 40.

Avro - Orenda Mixed

Dec 19: Near onward seat onward. O Arrows in the flight. You bowled jolly good. To skunk Sportsmen tonight.

By their three game win, Arrows knocked the Sportsmen out of first place. The Arrows squeaked through the first game by five pins, then H. Earle got oriented and with the rest of the Arrows getting sharp, it was a bye blackbird or in this case the Sportsmen. The top trundling trio for the Arrows was H. Earle 623, M. Mount 615 and E. McDonald 606. 'Twas a tough pill for Sportsmen to swallow, especially as G. Malesm gave them a 734 (319) tricornet to work on.

Bees buzzed the Headpins for the first chucklet, then the Headpins got on the headpins and battled the Bees down for the last two and totals.

Leaders led all the way in the first two, then sneaked in their eyes or something and Tatters came on with a lurch to win the last by plenty to cop one and totals T. Davison expanded his chest over his 625 for the Leaders. B. Jordana's chest measurement also expanded on the strength of his 604 for Tatters.

Wolves, paced by B. Taylor's 634 and J. Pope's 622 (Jims first 600 of the season, incidentally) had the Wolves chewing on the Can Nots for a two and total win. Can Nots top shooter was W. Hart with 640.

Can Doss dropped the first can to the Jets, then someone told him a win would put them in first place, so they went to town and snuffed the last two and totals to perch on the top rung all by their own power. Robert the Bruce led the Can Doss with a 699. Jets' burners were firing as far as trophies were concerned.

Top bowlers in the CHATHBAS society this trip were: R. Kirkness 264, R. Whitham 256, G. Wilkinson 252, A. Rainford 243, F. Wallace 242, C. Roberts 234, C. Loughlin 233, D. Earle 227, J. Buchanan 223, D. Davanth 221.

League standing: Can Doss 70, Sportsmen 68, Arrows 54, Leaders 45, Tatters 43, Bees 40, Headpins 39, Wolves 35, Jets 34, Can Nots 31.

Teen-n-Under

Dec 20: Blue Angels are fallen angels. The up and coming Bird Dog took them for both games. True, the Bird Dogs won the first go by only four pins, but it was still a win. The second game was more decisive.

Rocking Robins took advantage of the lapse of the Angels and won one and totals from Red Teddies to take over the top spot.

The Sputniks are still trying to get into orbit and succeeded for one game to break their losing streak.

Some nice doubles were forthcoming from the Saturday morning kids with C. Wedge 367, G. Morales 307, John Duffield 331, J. Jennings 310, R. Henderson 301, C. Evans 321, J. Beckman 372, M. Saugent 309.

League standing: Rocking Robins 40, Blue Angels 39, Red Teddies 37, Riders 36, Bird Dogs 29, Sputniks 14.

Headpin Hilites

Acton Merchants tucked away another seven point this time at the expense of Oakville. This kept the under-counts bunch in first place. The end test comes on January 1st when the gang hike Streetville way to do battle with the second players. Seems as if one name was omitted last week from the turkey winners in the Avro-Orenda Mixed so, bereft of the info, Art Rainford won a turkey. A hot 400 triple from O. H. Cool Waters won the Henry's Clothing award. No one topped Uke Zata's 360 single and he clocks for the Gord's Hardware award. The cleaning job of the Tops' Cleaners' got by Doris Townley for her 714 tricornet.

The Ledger's I.G.A. groceries can be delivered to the home of Janet Wilbers. Her 287 single made her a winner. Those timber toppling Teeners who bettered their average to win the Romharts, Coors-Cola and Seven Up refreshments were: Jim Jennings, Mike Sargent, Barbara Gibbons and Gal Rozzell.

The Dominion Hotel rollfest came around. Some of the boys went to town. McCrellan and McKay picked up the tab.

Which made the rest very glad. And that, my friends, brings us to the place where all of us at the Acton Bowling Lanes wish you and yours a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Acton, Ontario.
