OBITUARY

William H. Moore Dies in 29th Year

A brother of George Moore of Acton, William Henry Moore of Guilford, died suddenly here on December 17 following an accident. He was in his 29th year.

He is also survived by sisters Mrs. E. L. Symington (Girard), Newark, Del., Mrs. P. Burcombe Margerets and Mrs. Evan Tudhope (Hobart) and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Moore of Guilford. Funeral service was held Saturday, December 21, in Guilford.

A few residents have ignored the police warning about overnight parking and cars are sporting tickets on their windshields in the morning.

C.W.L. Plans Donations, Gifts At Meeting in Eramosa Twp.

The Rockwood and Oustie Catholic Women's League, "Our Lady of Fatima" subdivision held their December meeting on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. Gillilan, in upper Eramosa Township. 31 of the 37 members were present for the meeting that took on the air of a festive Christmas party, during the second part of their program.

During the brief business session a letter was read from a member of the Jesuit Seminary Association, thanking the members for a gift.

A monetary plaque recently purchased was passed around for all to see and examine.

Business Report
Mrs. R. Bacon gave a successful business report commenting that the Christmas bingos was looked upon by their director, Father Callaghan as a "Thank you" bingo.

Plans were completed to give the 136 children in the two parishes gifts of holy cards and candy canes on Sunday following Mass.

It was decided to make a gift of $25 to St. Martin's Manor. It is a very worthy cause, remarked Mrs. H. Saunders, league president. She explained further that St. Martin's Manor was under the patronage of Bishop Ryan and it was an obligation on their part to help money for the care of the old and infirm from membership funds.

A special bouquet is to be presented to Father Callaghan as a Christmas gift from league members. He is still a member of St. Joseph's Hospital Guild.

The six girls who teach the catechism to the children in the Rockwood and Oustie parishes will receive Christmas mail cards paid chased from the Jesuits, from league members.

Nature Memorial

Mrs. Vanderkroft read a true story "The Christ of the Andes" that told about a remarkable statue of Christ, made from old canyons and placed on the border between two South American countries, Chile and Argentina. It is a memorial to the two countries who have kept peace together for many years.

Christmas carols were sung and enjoyed by all preceding the scriptural supper of Christmas dainties served buffet style.

A highlight of the evening was the exchange of gifts that had been placed under a lighted tree. Katherine Gillilan enjoyed the part of Santa delivering the gifts when each name was called.

White Gifts Given Sunday

The junior congregation White Gift Service in Acton United Church Sunday evening was well attended. The junior choir, wearing their white gowns, sat in the choir loft and led the singing under the direction of their leader, chorister George Elliott.

Sunday school superintendent Cyril Leighton read an introduction to the simple but impressive service.

Carmen Woodburn gave the call to worship and Janet Rogvaldsen read the scriptures. Pat Blundell read a story "If I had not Come." Carmen Woodburn read a prayer and Mr. Leighton pronounced the benediction. Hymns and prayers were included in the service.

White gifts were presented as the offering.
