Bible Story in Pageant, Song at St. Alban's Hall

A pageant, charmingly and reverently presented by members of the Junior and Senior Sunday schools of the church of St. Alban the Martyr, was the highlight of the program presented in the parish hall on Friday evening. Mrs. E. G. Franklin directed the children.

In the musical pageant the story of the Nativity was told in well-known carols and in passages from the Bible. Members of the chorus sang with George Hall at the piano.

Leslie Ann Daby took the part of Mary with Kevin Hall as Joseph. Helen Harris, Nancy Winter and Anne Blum were shepherds. David Hargrave, David Scott and Billy Holmes were kings. Ena Waller and Sandra Hargrave were the angels. Margaret Price, Ruth Ann Leatherland, Sandra Fountain and Christine Blum were the choir. Gail Withers, Kathy White, Jacqueline Lee, Frances and Sharon Higgins, Caroline Williamson, Jeanne McEwen and Sharon Higgins were the chorus.

OBITUARY

Lifelong Resident Of Erin Township

A lifelong resident of Erin township, Mrs. Thomas Mack, 72, of Ballinacree died on Friday, December 12, at Mrs. South's nursing home in Acton. She had been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Mack was Mrs. E. J. South's sister and was the daughter of the late E. J. South and Rachel Overland. Mr. and Mrs. Mack celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last March.

She leaves her husband, three sons, Fredrick, Oran and Charles, and a daughter, Elizabeth. Mrs. Mack is survived by two sons and two grand-children.

Alan Neeson of Illiwaye, a student member of Ballinacree United Church, last year was elected by an Orange lodge to the position of conducting the funeral service on Monday, December 15, of the late Mrs. Mack. The funeral home, Acton Interment was in Excelsior cemetery.

Funeralbearers were: Harold P. Ernie McEwen, Matthew Sheppard, Lloyd Marshall, Lorne Gibson and John Ross, M.P.P.

No Holdups

Postmaster F. Terry reported today his department has been able to cope with the flood of Christmas mail being handled at the local office.

The postmaster noted that mail this season have exceeded last year, with quite an increase in overseas mail being mailed.

With the extra staff increase for Christmas time, there have been no holdups in incoming mail or outgoing mail, stated the postmaster.

It's Everywhere

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas is a-fair!

Christmas in lands of the frost and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas in lands where snow-peaks stand
Sleamy and white.

Christmas in fields of the
Countryside and bright
Christmas in cities, children are
Merry and bright.

Christmas in homes where old men are
Paying a debt,
Christmas in homes where a love
Makes them glad.

Giddy Gals Go For Fun Fads

Here are some party ideas for the indulged. The colored glass balls fast hung on the Christmas tree make fantastic gypsy earrings. Have loops attached to them that you can easily fasten to a pair of stud earrings. Sew tiny bells round the edge of a pair of evening gloves so that they jingle as you move your hands. Put a jewel on your evening dress to glitter as you dance. And here's the most glamorous piece of nonsense we know: Buy a yard or so of Eastwhite fabric, scattered liberally with silver sequins. Stick them on with colorless glue. As music they stay put even when the style is washed.

Wear them for a cloud around your head, or wear them on your shoulders. It looks wonderful with a black dress.

Christmas Vesper Service Held By Knox Church C.G.I.T. Girls

The Canadian Girls in Training of Knox Presbyterian church held their annual Christmas Vesper Service Sunday evening.

The Junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. A. K. Mann led in the singing. They sang O Holy Night.

Marilyn Lamm was leader for the service, reading scripture and announcing the hymns.

Mrs. Jim Gray, the group's leader, read a story, The Shepherd who Didn't Go.

Linda Parker lit the first candle and later in the service Mary Wilde and Linda Coxie lit the second and third candles.

Scripture was read by Julie Holmes, Susan Bundy and Gertrude Kubin.

The Three Kings was sung by four of the members, Betty Lamm, Gail Maxwell, Gail Maitland and Barbara Norton.

Susan Heid, Geraldine Gallo and Pat Stevenson acted as ushers and took part in the offering. There was a good attendance for the annual service. Ted Hansen was at the organ.
