Turkey Supper Precedes Baptist Church Concert

A visit from Santa Claus illuminated the evening at the Baptist church on Friday, December 19. Turkey supper was served at 6 P.M.

The entertaining program which followed included music and recitations. Rev. Gordon Holmes gave a prayer. Mrs. W. Gordon's primary class presented two numbers.

The members of Mrs. R. Trapp's class each had a verse on the Christmas theme. Mrs. C. Battles' class gave a recitation. A short play, "Santa Claus," was put on by Miss Helen Landborough's class.

Christmas, Christmas, Every where was the title of a play by Mrs. G. Wagner's class. Helen Landborough, Ruth Landborough and E. Crisp's members of Mrs. G. Hattap's class sang a trio.

Many Numbers Presented
Roy Dank and Ralph Trapp of Loyal McCubbin's class gave recitations.

The Explorers presented a play called "No Room in the Inn." Leaders of the group are Mrs. J. Chapman, Mrs. G. Holmes, Mrs. G. Wagner and Mrs. Dank.

There was plenty of music during the evening. Charles Landborough played his concert, Mr. Graham played his violin, and these two joined with Miss Helen Landborough at the piano and Mrs. Holmes at the organ for the singing of carols.

The pastor expressed his Christmas greetings.

Santa Claus brought candy, fruit and nuts for all the youngsters to conclude the evening.

We welcome the holiday season with the sincere hope that it proves to be the happiest one ever for you and your family.

Junior White Gift Service Girls' Candlelight Service Held

On Sunday, December 14, a Junior White Gift Service was held out to Mr. and Mrs. Know and family.

Each member of the Junior Choir marched up from the basement and placed a white gift on the table and took their place in the choir.

While the organist played music, the rest of the Sunday School marched up and placed their gifts also and then took their places in the front seats.

It was a very impressive service with Mr. McHugh in charge, bringing out the true spirit of Christmas. The junior choir sang very nicely.

Extend Sympathy

We were sorry to learn of the passing of wee Paul, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snow. The twin boys were born several weeks ago and have been in an incubator at Gairloch General Hospital. Peter had gained enough and was brought home this week. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Snow and family.

Social Evening

The Evening Auxiliary Ladies and their husbands and families enjoyed a social evening in the church basement on Saturday night.

The CGET met in the church on Monday night.

Mr. Neill was in the community one day last week calling on friends.

The CGET held a very fine candlelight service in the church on Sunday night. A Young People's meeting followed.

Miss Beattie left on Sunday night to visit with her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kenton of Rosevean, Manitoba.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the editor, staff, correspondents and readers of the Acton Free Press for 1930.

Season's GREETINGS

Best wishes of the season to all our friends. In the spirit of this holiday time, we wish you a heart full of good cheer, a home full of friends and loved ones, and a life filled with happiness. May all the joys of the Yuletide be lastingly yours, to brighten and enrich every day.
