

PERSONALS

(Continued from Previous Page)

Mrs. J. J. Peden, Mrs. B. Flynn, John K. Keeler, Mr. George Smith, Mrs. John McEachern and Mrs. E. MacLennan of Acton, and Mrs. A. Williams of Georgetown attended the funeral of the late Mrs. H. G. Hunter, in Toronto, Wednesday December 30.

Mrs. L. C. Chapman, Mrs. M. and Mrs. A. Brooks were Misses D. and Dorothy Acton, and Rev. Mr. MacLean, pastor who was serving parishes of St. Paul's at the University of Toronto, Dr. Alan Daniels, a member of the faculty of the University of Toronto, and Rev. Mr. Kenneth Brooks, who is to be the first ever pro-Moderator of the University of Toronto, and Rev. Mr. Kenneth Brooks, who is to be the first ever pro-Moderator of the University of Toronto.

The congregation turned out in large numbers to give the services of the church to their beloved friend, and a full sheet of news is being continued.

FRESHNESS GUARANTEED

ALWAYS FRESH

Available at LEDGER'S

We take great pleasure
in wishing all our friends and patrons a Happy New Year

HENRY'S
MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR

ACTON JERSEY DAIRY

WATCH - NIGHT SERVICES

ACTON BAPTIST CHURCH

WED., DEC. 31st - 11 P.M. TO 12

A Film "Like A Mighty Army" Will Be Shown
GAMES AND REFRESHMENTS 9 TO 11 O'CLOCK

THE PUBLIC IS WELCOME

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICES

ACTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Mon., Wed., Fri., Jan. 5, 7, 9

at 8 p.m.

U R INVITED

LOCKWOOD

Hold Candlelight Service Community United Church

Candlelight service was well attended with the older ones present joining the United church in which young people had just been admitted.

Rev. Mr. Ernest G. Smith presided, with a short sermon, followed by a period of singing.

After the service, the young people were invited to go to the hall

where refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gandy

and Mr. and Mrs. John G. G