A. Robinson, Life Members, 4-H's Honored at Dinner

The fifth annual Directors' Dinner sponsored by the Acton Agricultural Society was held in the United Church on Monday.

Head table guests, when set down for a beautiful meal prepared by members of the Friendly Circle, were Mrs. and Mr. Stan Hall, M.P. for Halton County, Mrs. and Mr. J. E. Whitelock, agricultural representative for Halton County; Mayor Cook and Reeve J. Goy of Acton; Mrs. and Mr. Geo. Wallace, reeve of Erin Township; President William Thompson, first vice-president Lloyd and Mrs. McKenry, secretary; treasurer Mrs. and Mr. Wallace Swackhammer.

Given Plants

In appreciation of the many years of faithful service to the Agricultural Society, life members and then wives were presented with lovely kalanchoe plants. Recipients at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. C. McKenry, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peeren and Mrs. G. W. Murray. Unable to be present were Mrs. and Mr. S. H. Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swackhammer and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wadler.

Mrs. Floyd McKenry thanked the ladies for the supper.

Congratulations and best wishes were expressed to the gathering by Stan Hall, M.P.; Mayor Cook and Reeve Wallace.

Nervous Diploma

J. E. Whitelock made the presentation of an Agricultural Service Diploma to J. A. Robinson for his faithful service to this Society and to the community.

Ray Everdell introduced the guest speaker, Prof. John Clark of the Horticultural Department of

Forums Fear Loss of Freedom From Vertical Integration

Four groups said vertical integration would give more stable information, and sixteen groups thought it might provide capital for some farmers who had none, and help young men get started.

But some added a warning that vertical integration might lead to a loss of freedom in the farm community.

All groups were pretty solidly of the opinion that this new system held grave potentials for farm life both economically and socially. They felt that if there was to be vertical integration and contract farming, it would be to the advantage of the farming communities to have this done through co-operative effort and producer control.

Two questions were posed to the groups. First, "What do you fear from vertical integration?" and second, "Loss of control of the product, loss of land and livestock, disappearance of community." Reports from the groups indicated that the groups were almost unanimous in answering "yes" to all four parts of the question, the main fear being loss of freedom in all respects, and particularly loss of control of the product, and loss of the farm community.

The second main question asked the groups was, "Will vertical integration help you stay in business?"

Thirty-five groups gave an outright "no" to that question. Fifteen other groups said, "Yes, if done through co-operative effort. A feeling even more strongly reflected in comments made by groups.

Representatives Named at Inaugural Meeting of Espuesing Township Council

The inaugural meeting of Espuesing township council was held in the council chamber, Stewarttown, at 11 a.m. on Monday, January 5. Taking the declaration of office were George Currie, reeve; Campbell Sinclair, deputy reeve; and Wilfred Bird, Walter Lamban, and George Leslie, councillors.

Rev. J. E. Maxwell conducted a short devotional period, after which the business of the New Year was commenced with the reading and confirmation of the minutes of the last meeting of 1958.

The reeve and treasurer were authorized to borrow $125,000 from the Canadian Bank of Commerce to meet the current expenditures of the municipality until the taxes are collected.

Amounts paid for foxes destroyed in Espuesing under the county by-law included sums ranging from $20 to $75 to Calvin Armstrong, Milton; Edward Kirby, W. Wilson; John Scott, Chas. Heaney, all of Georgetown; Robert Bruce,

The BIBLE Today

Not much more than 150 years ago, copies of the Sacred Word were so costly as to be quite beyond the reach of the poor, and even the great Revival of Religion had not quite awakened men to a sense of responsibility of giving the word of life to nations beyond the pale of Christendom.

Out of the spiritual awakening which gave birth to the great missionary movements of the early 18th century came the British and Foreign Bible Society. It was a time when men's hearts failed them for fear when trade was poor, the country on the brink of ruin, in fact the most unpropitious of all times to begin a new movement. How significant then, that the century turned out to be the century of unparalleled progress.

Since its beginning, the Bible Society has maintained its objective of "A Bible for every man, in his own tongue, at a price he can afford to pay," and wherever the objective has been met, there has followed physical, moral and spiritual uplift among nations.

Will Return To TV Show

Six busy Acton mothers have proved themselves to be very popular with the public who watch Elaine Cole's Telescope program, C.K.O.T.V., channel 13. They are Mrs. J. E. Dowling, Mrs. J. Hunt, Mrs. W. D. Mason, Mrs. C. J. Pope, Mrs. M. Standfield and Mrs. P. White.

Last Friday these ladies went to Kitchener with Mrs. Helen Duckner where they very ably demonstrated how to keep looking fit and shapely by a series of exercises or movements with music.

Proof of their popularity lies in the fact that Elaine Cole has invited these ladies to demonstrate Mrs. Duckner's complete program of exercises on February 13 and March 13.

Mrs. Kathleen Dingle of Guelph was at the piano.

There have been many requests for a record of the music used in these exercises and as a result Mrs. Duckner and Mrs. Dingle are working together toward this end.

Nineteen Members Answer Roll At Ebenezer Ladies' Meeting

The Ebenezer Auxiliary of the W.M.S. held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. George Thomas. Mrs. Mabel Moffat presided and opened with the poem "If God Hears Prayers." The worship service was led by Mrs. M. Moffat and was based on two passages of Isaiah which were read by Mrs. K. Griffiths and Mrs. Wyn Early.

In the discussion, it was found that the prophets of old were often very lonely men for they foretold a day when all men would be brothers. Additional scriptural passages on this theme were read by Mrs. Alt Allen, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. A. Frank, Mrs. C. Robertson and Mrs. Mae Anderson.

Nineteen members responded to the roll call with verses containing "Desire."

Review Study

Mrs. Evelyn Thomson reviewed the opening chapter of the study book, "Concerns of a Continent." After Columbus discovered this New World, two centuries were spent in taming the Indians and settling the country. The earliest missionaries were Roman Catholics, followed by various Protestant faiths.

Today the centre of culture has moved from Europe to the New World. A short review was given of the main countries of the continent. This book will tell us how Christianity helps these people.

Mrs. George Thomas opened the W.A. with the hymn, "O Christ, in Thee my Soul hath Found." After a short business period, Mrs. John Henry gave the closing prayer.

After an enjoyable social period, Mrs. Murray Mahon expressed appreciation to the hostess and those on the program.

Accidents Top Cause Of Children's Deaths

Accidents are the leading cause of death and permanent disability in childhood, according to an article written by Dr. F. W. Jeffrey, chairman of the Ontario Medical Association Committee on Child Welfare, appearing in Health magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

Four out of every 10 fatalities among Ontario children between the ages of one and 14 are due to accidents, and 70 per cent of them are preventable, states Dr. Jeffrey.

The author says that three factors which apply to childhood accidents, whether they occur on the road at home, or on the water, are the nature of the child, his social environment, and his physical environment. All three factors are shaped by the parents, he says, and that is where the great part of responsibility lies.

As children imitate and reflect the behavior of their parents and other adults, adults must first critically examine their own characters. "As parents, we must improve our own safety attitudes and practices for they may become the safety habits of our children."

Our chief responsibility as parents is to develop in our children a comprehensive safety program one that ensures adequate protection with progressively increasing education in the fundamentals of safe behavior.

Lands, Forests Safety Slogans

The following hunter and boat owner safety slogans have been prepared by the Department of Lands and Forests of Ontario.

For Hunters

- Always be careful to remember and obey the ABC's of hunter safety: Always Be Careful.
- Safety is everybody's business. Never take safety for granted. To be here tomorrow, play it safe today.
- Be careful - the life you save may be your own.
- Be careful with fire in any form in the bush.
- Take time to be safe.
- Extra precautions against forest fires during the hunting season will ensure continued sporting pleasure. There's no game in a fire blackened forest.
- Safety in Outboards
- Know your boat and motor.
- Make sure it's in good working order; keep tools handy.
- Have an approved life jacket or cushion for each person aboard.
- Have fire extinguisher on hand.
- Take along oars or paddles in small boats, an extra motor in large ones.
- Keep boat bottom free from gasoline and oil.
- Make certain tank is filled before leaving port or shore.
- Don't overload the boat and don't show off because these are prime accident causes.
- Don't overload your boat. One person per seat is a safe rule.
- Practise safety and prevent accidents.
- Keep an eye on the weather.
- For expert advice consult your boat manufacturer.
