Dublin W.I. Will Take Part in Survey

The Dublin Women's Institute meeting was held on January 15 at the home of Mrs. James Van Fleet Park Ave., Acton. On account of the icy roads, the attendance was not as large as usual.
Mrs. Mansell Nellis, the president, presided for the opening exercises and Mrs. Clark Armstrong, the secretary, read the minutes and called the roll. The roll call was answered with a verse containing the word, "Grandmother."
It was decided to place pictures of the Royal Couple in each of the four schools together with a flag. Mrs. Fyfe Somerville, and Mrs. Wm. McIntyre were appointed to look after this. Members were informed about the safety survey being made in the county. All accidents and the nature and cause of the accidents are to be reported to the co-chairmen for this district, Mrs. G. R. Somerville.
Plan Events
A euchre and penny sale will be held in April and members were requested to bring articles for the penny sale in the form of groceries to the next meeting.
Mrs. N. Elliott offered her home for the Third Meal Course early in February. The usual euchre parties will be held in each of the schools during the winter.
As this was the Grandmother's meeting, Mrs. Somerville conducted a contest on making words from the word, "Grandmother," with Mrs. A. Near and Mrs. B. Remick the winners.
Another contest was conducted by Mrs. Somerville, naming the counties of Ontario, with Mrs. J. C. Dennis and Mrs. M. Nellis being the winners.
Mrs. Van Fleet, assisted by Mrs. Fyfe Somerville, Mrs. C. Armstrong and Mrs. C. Davidson, served a beautiful lunch to the ladies.

Start Euchres At Local School

The first euchre after the holidays was held Friday evening at the school with eight tables in play. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harold Theaker, T. D. McCutcheon, Robert Clarke and Brian Robertson.

Mrs. G. Somerville Greenock W.I. Guest

Mrs. William Ballew, Queen St., was invited to the members of Greenock Women's Institute for the January meeting. The topic was Agriculture and Canadian Industries and the guest speaker was Mrs. George Somerville, Acton, past president of Halton County.
In her address, Mrs. Somerville gave several ways to make an Institute a failure. Then in comparison she reviewed each line of the Institute. One said and each member should always be willing to do her part and should feel that she is just as important to the meeting as the meeting is to her.
The roll call was a verse of scripture pertaining to agriculture. The minutes were read and approved as well as the secretary's report and financial statement.
Greetings were read from the provincial president, Mrs. James Haggerty, also a list of the board directors.
New Procedure
Mrs. Haggerty's term of office will terminate in the Fall so the new president will be chosen by the sitting board members but a choice may be sent in from any branch, providing the director has signified her intention of running for that office. This is a new procedure from former years.
A social evening was planned for later in the month in the school. Greenock Institute will be hostess for Centre Wellington District Annual this spring so the members approved holding it in Ospringe. Presbyterian church if permission is granted from the church board.
Mrs. E. Patterson as program convener presented the motto, "A nation builds on sinking sands unless its roots are in the land," ably given by Mrs. T. Hemley, "City Cousins" was read by Mrs. C. Allen.

Auxiliaries, Mission Band Meet Shower Held for Garton Couple

Mrs. Owen McEnery was hostess for the W.A. meeting on Tuesday. In the absence of the president who is under the doctor's care and we trust will soon be out again, the chair was taken by the first vice-president, Mrs. Tom Given. The meeting opened with the theme song, hymn and prayer. Mrs. Marshall had charge of the Scripture study.
Roll call, pay your fees, was answered by 13 members and one visitor. The ladies were pleased to welcome some new members.
Items of business were dealt with. It was decided to send $500 to the strike in Sudbury.
Mrs. Robert McEnery had charge of the program which included a reading, John and Jim, also two contests.
Two Meetings
The evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Ernie McEnery on Thursday night.
