

Milton hospital is under construction now.

The Ontario farm accident survey began this week.

The days are getting longer! Could be a sign of spring!

Acton Minor Sports Hockey Schedule will wind up this week.

Building projects are continuing in Acton, in spite of recent layoffs.

The rush is on for license plates from the local license issuer.

Next thought in mind will be baseball for the Minor Sports officials.

Easter is just three and a half weeks away—the last Sunday in March.

Mac Sprawl was guest speaker at the Milton Rotary club meeting this week.

The holes in the road are a menace to car drivers and also to pedestrians.

Bob Brown of Acton won the $10 fourth prize in the Milton Merchants hockey club draw.

A few winter sports enthusiasts were out on the hills near Acton last weekend skiing and tobogganing.

March came in like a lamb. While that proverbially has an unhappy consequence, it was a nice change.

Milton Merchants bowed out of the hockey playoff picture in Milton Friday with an 8-6 loss to Bradford.

Films of the Amalgamated Home and School Association Fun Fair were shown on the Kitchener television news Saturday.

Rivulets of water poured down the streets and roads this week as a promise of spring ahead. It was good for the eyes but bad for the feet.

The prospects for new jobs for the many men and women laid off at Milton continues to be of prime interest. Some have located positions, some have been recalled to the plants, and many more are still wrestling with the problem of re-establishing their wage earning pattern.

A huge bologna hung in the window of Bradley's Meat Market was eyed by customers who were making entries for a draw there. The winner of a three pound tinned ham was Mrs. Colin MacCull, Cameron St., who guessed the weight of the meat at 19 lbs., 2 ozs. The right answer: 19 lbs., 3 ozs!

Mothers are Guides' Guests For Buffet Supper, Program

Girl Guides entertained their mothers at a buffet supper in the scout hall Tuesday. Mothers were greeted at the door by the neatly uniformed girls who were working on their second class badges. The group in the hall was swelled to near 70 when supper was served, buffet style. Cold meats and salads were followed by tea, coffee and cookies, passed by the Guides. Of the company of 49 Guides, 38 were present, with 33 mothers as guests.

Barbara Churchill welcomed the mothers and Jill Morton said Grace.

Local Ladies Conduct Pentecostal Service

Women's Missionary Council Day across Canada was marked in Acton Pentecostal church on Sunday, February 15, when the ladies of the local W.M.C. took charge of the morning church service.

Mrs. H. Norton conducted the service and Mrs. P. Barker presented the message. The scripture reading was taken from first Corinthians, chapter 12, verses three to nine, with the text of the scripture being "While we are working together with God."

In her message, Mrs. Barker pointed out that the believers in Christ are the body with Christ as the head. The importance of each member working in harmony with the other was stressed by Mrs. Barker.

The speaker recalled the words of Christ when he said, "The harvest is truly plentiful but the laborers are few."

A solo was rendered by Mrs. G. Bowen and the P.M.A. girls sang a missionary chorus. The service closed with prayer.

Hold Funeral Service For Mrs. B. Walker

A mourning service was held for Mrs. B. Walker of England passed away this week after a short illness.

The mother of Mrs. F. L. Wright and Mrs. W. J. Finlay of Acton, she was born and raised in Kendall, Westmoreland, England, and lived there up to the time of her death.

Besides her two daughters in Acton, she leaves to mourn her loss four other daughters and one son, eight grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

An avid reader, Mrs. Walker was well informed on current affairs and had a particular interest in Royalty. A regular reader of the Acton Free Press during the last 40 years, although she had never been in Canada, she had followed the news of the late Mrs. Walker in the affairs and progress of this country.

Funeral service was held this week in England.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie Chairman Of Acton Ministerial Association

Officers for 1959 were elected at a meeting of Acton Ministerial Association Monday. Rev. Andrew McKenzie, who has been replacing Rev. R. Groenboer, was elected to continue as chairman for 1959. Rev. H. B. Stokreef is vice-chairman, Rev. Kenneth Reid secretary and Rev. Gordon Holmes treasurer.

Plans were made for Holy Week services, which will all be held in the United Church this year. Rev. Crossley Hunter will be the guest speaker.

On Palm Sunday, March 22, all the Protestant clergymen will attend a special service in the evening.

There will be special music, and civic, church and community organizations are expected to attend together on different evenings.

Driver Fined $25 Will Attend Clinic

Pleading guilty to a charge of failing to yield the right of way, J. David Carter of Georgetown was fined $25 and costs in court in Guelph last week. He was ordered to attend the local driving improvement clinic next month.

The charge was laid by the O.P.P. following an accident in Ermosa township which resulted in serious injury to Father A. Callaghan, Rockwood. The priest is able to get around now with use of a cane.

The accident occurred November 15 and damage was estimated at $2,500 to the Callaghan vehicle and $900 to the Carter car.

Minister Declines To Accept Acton Call

The clerk of the consistory of the Acton Christian Reformed church, H. Kuipers, received word from Rev. G. J. Hartman of Clinton that he had declined to accept the call extended to him by the Acton congregation.

The call was extended about three weeks ago.

The church has been without a pastor since the first of the year, when Rev. Groenboer and his family moved to British Columbia. Members of the congregation hope to have a minister of their own again as soon as possible.

Assistance to New Canadians Outlined at Knox Ladies' Meet

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held in Knox Presbyterian church school room, Monday, March 2, with a good number of members in attendance. The president, Mrs. H. Price, opened the meeting and Mrs. H. Coles introduced the guest speaker, Miss M. McAdam, public health nurse, of Acton.

Miss McAdam gave a very informative talk on the work of the Public Health Unit and outlined her duties in Acton and district. Mrs. W. McKnight, Mrs. G. Jordan and Mrs. M. Jordan conducted the worship service.

Mrs. W. Spielvogel acted as a TV commentator and introduced her guests, Miss H. Holmes, Mrs. H. Price and Mrs. H. Coles. The panel outlined means of assistance to be given to new Canadians on their arrival in Canada and this community. Plans were completed for a Daffodil Tea to be held in the near future.

A delicious lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting and a social hour was spent.

Unemployed Meet

Continued from Page One

Each the banks individually as suggested in the mayor's remarks to council recently.

It was pointed out by Mr. Lawler that he didn't believe everyone would find employment through the newly organized bureau but a good number of the unemployed could benefit from the plan.

The audience were notified by the chairman that Roy Goodwin, local businessman, had reported job openings for two or three men willing to work for a few months for a check book.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the newly formed executive board by the unemployed present and began operations in contact for the nearest birthday.

Several games of bingo were

Local Ladies Conduct Pentecostal Service

Women's Missionary Council Day across Canada was marked in Acton Pentecostal church on Sunday, February 15, when the ladies of the local W.M.C. took charge of the morning church service.

Mrs. H. Norton conducted the service and Mrs. P. Barker presented the message. The scripture reading was taken from first Corinthians, chapter 12, verses three to nine, with the text of the scripture being "While we are working together with God."

In her message, Mrs. Barker pointed out that the believers in Christ are the body with Christ as the head. The importance of each member working in harmony with the other was stressed by Mrs. Barker.

The speaker recalled the words of Christ when he said, "The harvest is truly plentiful but the laborers are few."

A solo was rendered by Mrs. G. Bowen and the P.M.A. girls sang a missionary chorus. The service closed with prayer.

PIPES FOR MILK

Pipeline milkers with leaky valves cause acid to form in the milk and give it an unpleasant taste. Extremely long pipelines with many risers cause a churning action that gives milk a rancid taste.

Nearly 40 are Prize Winners At W.I. Euchre, Penny Sale

Friday evening, February 27, in Laxton Memorial Hall, Acton Women's Institute held their euchre and penny sale. Many were welcomed by the president, Mrs. George Fryer.

Nineteen tables of euchre were playing with prizes going to the following for high scores: ladies, Miss Marjorie Hall and Mrs. C. Lindsay; men: Stuart Richardson and J. Ford. The most lone hands was won by Robert McEneaney of Hamilton.

A plant motor blanket was won by James Jesseman. Bouquets of spring flowers went to Mrs. D. Lambert.

Water glasses and holder, Mrs. Mary Graham; apron, Miss John Lovell; cigarettes, Mrs. M. Shutes;

Many Prizes

The following were winners of prizes:

Box groceries, Mrs. L. Woods; fancy apron, Miss E. Coles; cup and saucer, Mrs. J. Thompson; pillow cases, Mrs. J. Wilson; basket groceries, Mrs. J. Inglis; necktie and earrings, Mrs. D. Angell; fancy pillow case, Mrs. J. Lambert; plastic tablecloth, Miss Marjorie Hall.

The new Angus L. McDonald bridge joining Hamilton and Dartmouth is the 3rd bridge across the harbour, an old Metac Indian legend has it that three bridges would be built, and all would fall.

Beatty Home Opened for Tea

At the March meeting of the Duke of Devonshire chapter I.O.D.E. at the home of Mrs. W. J. Beatty, Mrs. K. Knox took the chair for the first time as the new regent.

The usual business and plans for future projects were discussed. The meeting was then closed and the new officers took over and entertained the members and their guests at tea.

A short program included Mrs. C. Heller, a piano solo, Study by Chopin, a duet by Douglas Copeland and Glenn Banks; solo by Mr. Copeland and piano solo by Mr. Banks.

The new officers for 1959 are: Honorary regent, Mrs. B. Mowat; regent, Mrs. K. Knox; first vice regent, Mrs. H. F. Holmes; second vice regent, Mrs. G. Spencer-Lee; secretary, Mrs. J. Whitlam; assistant secretary, Mrs. B. Mowat; treasurer, Mrs. C. Heller; educational secretary, Mrs. J. W. Wolfe; Echoes secretary, Mrs. Gordon Beatty; services at home and abroad, Mrs. J. Jany; convener of Empire and World affairs, Mrs. H. R. Force.

Mrs. Cam Leishman Hostess for Meeting

Mrs. Cam Leishman was hostess for the recent meeting of the Heather Club, with 15 members present. Mrs. Stan Norton, the president, opened the meeting—Mrs. Gordon Colquhoun led in prayer after which Mrs. Leishman read the scripture.

Following the roll call Mrs. Lois Mackenzie read the correspondence, and Mrs. John Mann gave the treasurer's report.

Plans were discussed for saving coupons from Canada Packers products for a coffee maker.

Mrs. Mike Cox was appointed convener for the coming tea and baking sale on March 14.

Mrs. Pat Walde read a chapter from the study book, "Why we are Presbyterians."

The meeting was closed with the Mizpah benediction following which the members enjoyed a social hour.

3,000 Miles-Away Woman Offers Help To Unemployed Man

Charles Forster, 18 Meadvale Road, received a letter this morning (Thursday) from a woman living in Los Angeles, California, over 3,000 miles away, which contained the want ads from her home town paper.

The letter, signed only with the initials M. L. W., stated the writer had read a recent article in a Toronto daily regarding the Forster family's plans to return to England following the recent lay-off at Malton.

The letter suggested Mr. Forster write to some of the firms in the United States advertising for skilled labor in an attempt to find employment.

Mr. Forster remarked to the Free Press, "It certainly gives me a warm feeling to think someone thousands of miles away is concerned over the situation at Malton."

Asked if he intended to apply for any of the positions mentioned in the Los Angeles paper, Mr. Forster remarked he would certainly do so.

WE SELL AND SERVICE MYERS WATER SYSTEMS

FREE ESTIMATES

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

FRANK CARNEY & SONS

HEATING - ELECTRIC

SHORTILL SHEET METAL

PLUMBING & HEATING

Gar Wood Furnaces

Eavesstroughing

184 Churchill Road

PHONE 464

PRE-SPRING

Out they Go!

USED CAR

	WAS	NOW
1958 EDSEL Corsair Hardtop Demon. 14,000 miles	4485.	$3,295.
1955 PLYMOUTH Savoy Sedan	1295.	$1,095.
1957 4-Door, 6-Passenger Country Sedan Ranch-wagon, 6 cyl.	2295.	$2195.
1952 METEOR Coach, Radio	495.	$445.
1951 CHRYSLER Windsor Sedan	595.	$395.

BUY NOW - PRICES UP IN SPRING

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

THOMPSON MOTORS

(ACTON) Ltd.

45 Main St. at Bowyer

PHONE 69

IGA festival of foods CONTEST!

YOU MAY WIN ONE OF 5 FREE HI-FI CONSOLES

OR YOU MAY WIN ONE OF 250 ELECTRIC CAN OPENERS

All Food Prices Effective March 5, 6, 7

On Saturday, March 14th at 6 p.m. the first correct answer will be selected in each IGA store for an Electric Can Opener. The winner's name will be posted in that store during the following week and he or she will be notified by phone or mail.

On Saturday, March 21st at 6 p.m. another correct answer for an Electric Can Opener will be selected, and the winner notified in the same manner. All entries will then be forwarded to IGA Head Office where the 5 winners of the HI-FI Consoles will be selected by a local celebrity on Tuesday, March 31st. The names of the winners will appear in the IGA advertisement in the Toronto Daily Star and The Telegram on Wednesday, April 1st. They will also be notified by phone or mail.

Decision of the judges will be final. Employees and their families of IGA Stores or their supply depot, not eligible.

ENTER THE CONTEST AS OFTEN AS YOU VISIT YOUR IGA STORE DURING IGA'S "FESTIVAL OF FOODS".

SOME OF THE MANY FEATURES IN

TABLERITE QUALITY MEATS

Loin Roast o'Pork

Rib Portion 3 lb. Average 42c/lb Tenderloin Portion 3 lb. Average 52c/lb

ONE OF OUR MANY PRODUCE FEATURES

Chuck full of juice, U.S. No. 1, Easy to peel Navels

SUNKIST ORANGES - 43c doz.

FEATURE VALUES

French's SPAGHETTI SAUCE MIX and Ed Smith's TOMATO PASTE Both for Only 25c

Save 4c 16 oz. Pkgs. IGA SPAGHETTI - 2 for 29c

Save 11c Pkgs. of 20 TOM THUMB MALLOWS - 25c

ROYAL GOLD CHEESE SLICES - 2 for 49c

OFFICIAL ENTRY BLANK for the IGA festival of foods CONTEST

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 4th to SAT., MAR. 21st, 1959

TO ENTER THE CONTEST - Simply fill out this entry blank and deposit it in the ballot box in your IGA store.

TO QUALIFY - You must correctly answer the following question:

WHAT DO THE LETTERS "IGA" STAND FOR?

I G A

(FILL IN YOUR ANSWER ABOVE)

Name _____ Phone No. _____

Address _____

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL

OVEN READY

SPARE RIBS

3 LBS. for 1.00

FREE A LEDGER'S IGA Easter Fruited Ham

WITH THE PURCHASE OF ANY SUIT OR TOPCOAT OR SPORT JACKET AND PANT AT

NICOLS of ACTON

LEDGER'S I.G.A.