Major Renovations Underway at Baxters

Major changes in the interior of H. W. Baxter's Drug Store are almost completed with the installation of a new ceiling, lighting and wall displays as well as alterations to window displays and counter counters.

Beginning some time ago, Mr Baxter had workmen install a new acoustic tile ceiling and fluorescent lights, before installing side wall display stands equipped with counter lighting.

One window display area has been removed to allow a larger array of merchandise and counter side displays have been rearranged for more advantageous shopping convenience.

The store's owner reported this week that pointing of the interior will complete renovations for the present time.

Mr Baxter who began his 30th year as a druggist this year graduated in 1923 and has operated the drug store at his present location in Acton for the past 13 years, after coming from Kenora, where he was in business.

Billy Places Fifth In Ontario Orating

Campbellville orator Billy Andrews, the 11-year-old grade seven student who won honors in school, township, county and regional public speaking contests, was a fifth prize winner when he competed against the cream of Ontario's skillful public speakers Tuesday night.

Billy placed fifth in the contest in competition against 30 others. It was held as part of the Ontario Educational Association's 99th annual meeting at the Crystal Ballroom of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

Wednesday Billy and the other contestants were guests of the sponsoring Ontario Orators on a tour of the Niagara Falls district power plants. Mr Andrews accompanied his son.

Fifth Line Resident 45 Years Mrs. E. Freeman Loved Music

In failing health for the last month, Mrs. Edward Freeman passed away at the home of her son, Frank, on March 23.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her son Frank, 64, Fifth Line, and Elsie (Mrs. Skeoch), Toronto, also three grandsons, Ted Freeman and Alan and Eric Skeoch.

The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon from the Rumbley-Shoemaker funeral home, conducted by Murray McBride of Churchill United church. Interment was in Churchill cemetery.

Pallbearers were six close neighbors, Angus McEachern, Archie Kerr, Wm. Butler, D. A. Russell, A. Saunders and B. Leitch.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Freeman had been a resident of the Fifth Line, Erin Township, for the past 45 years, except for the past four months since her husband passed away on December 10, 1958. She spent that time with her daughter, Elsie, in Toronto, but came back to the Fifth Line for the last 10 days, which was her wish.

Born Louisa Amelia Buffon in Staffordshire, England, in 1898, she was married to Edward Freeman in Pembroke, Ontario, Herefordshire, on April 27, 1898.

Moved in Canada

In 1908 the family moved to Canada, arriving at Halifax on Good Friday, and disembarking at St. John on Easter Sunday. Thence they came to Toronto, where they settled in Islington for a few years. Mrs. Freeman was organist at Ebenezer Baptist church there.

Then they moved to Englehart and Mrs. Freeman was organist there in the Church of England. In 1914 they came to the Fifth Line and settled on lot five. Here her organ was always a pleasure to

Couples Honored at Euchre On Wedding Anniversary

The Rifle Club held their regular euchre on Saturday evening in the Community Hall with a good attendance.

Following the euchre, a surprise party was held to honor Mr. and Mrs. Art Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jackson, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversaries during the weekend. Paul Donaldson as chairman called the couples to the platform and Mrs. Elias Cheyne read the address.

Mr and Mrs. Turpey were presented with a beautiful silver tea pot and candle holders and the Stauffer family presented them with a beautiful wall mirror. Mr and Mrs. Jackson were given a lovely silver tea service. All four replied very fittingly, reminiscing over the past 25 years.

A dainty lunch was served, followed by wedding cake, which had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Elias Cheyne.

W.A. Meeting

The regular meeting of St. John's W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Weeks. Mrs. Wm. Nevills, president, opened the meeting with all singing a hymn and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The devotional was taken by Rev. Ewart Culley and the roll call was answered by repeating 10 books of the Bible.

Car Accidents Blame Snowfall

A heavy snowfall through Thursday evening of last week was partially blamed in three district accidents on Friday and Saturday.

Friday, a car driven by Paul Marshall of R.R. 1, Campbellville, went out of control on slippery pavement, and turned over on its roof in the ditch on the Guelph Line north of Campbellville. Damage was $75.

Stop Suddenly

Saturday afternoon cars driven by Rev. Frederick Elliott of Woodbridge and Neil E. Langille of Clinton were involved in a rear-end collision on Highway 7 at Silvercreek Hill, when traffic stopped suddenly. Total damage was $450.

An hour later, a car driven by William Richmond of Orangeville received $400 damage when it slid, turned around, entered a ditch and landed off its roof on the Seventh Line of Esqueping near Ashgrove.

No Injuries

Police said no injuries were sustained in any of the accidents.

The world's first electric cooking range was developed in Canada in 1893.

Local Items

Mr. Charlie Thompson saw a ground hog and wild geese last week.

Mr and Mrs R. L. Davidson attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Hugh Lashby at Guelph on Monday.

Mrs. Albertson returned home on Saturday from the Guelph hospital. Friends were sorry to hear the loss of their home by fire on Friday of Mr and Mrs. Sam Snow and Miss Janice Given.

The flowers placed in the church for Easter were from Mrs. Freeman's funeral.

Mrs. Freeman Passes On

One of Erin Township's respected citizens in the person of Mrs. Ed Freeman passed away on March 23, 1959, at the home of her son Frank. Mrs. Freeman took an interest in social affairs.

She leaves to mourn her son, Frank, R.R. 2, Acton and one daughter, Elsie (Mrs. A. Skeoch) of Toronto.

The funeral took place from Rumbley-Shoemaker funeral home on Thursday. Mr. Murray McBride conducted the service.

Pallbearers were neighbors Alf Saunders, Archie Kerr, Bruce Leitch, Dave Russell, Angus McEachern, Bill Butler.

Interment was in Churchill Cemetery.
