Guelph's Largest Seller of Homes

$750 Down Payment

Attractive 5-room bungalow in a desirable location overlooking Fairy Lake, centre hall plan with large living room and kitchen, 3 good size bedrooms, hardwood and tile throughout, oil air conditioning heat. The present owner is willing to take this low down payment and give generous terms for the balance. So here is your chance to buy a home as economically as renting one.

Safe Cul de Sac

For someone with small children to worry over, here is the answer. No through traffic to keep your nerves on edge while the youngsters are out playing. And the house is a joy to behold inside, a perfect example of immaculate housekeeping. 3 bedrooms at the rear of the house, away from the living area, is another feature to appeal to parents of younger children. Transfer of the owner is the reason for this sale, so a rare opportunity occurs for some lucky buyer.

Make an Offer

Here is a modern, beautifully maintained bungalow that is going to move fast. 5 professionally decorated rooms in spotless condition, aluminum doors, storms and screens throughout, asphalt driveway, fully landscaped and a picket-fence around the lot. Despite its many extras, the price will compete with any in the neighborhood. See this and you will be convinced of its value.

For information or appointment to view these homes, or many others in this area or Guelph, call TOM FLEMING at Acton 633-J or Guelph TA 2-8191.

Authority Okays Park Purchase

The 12 Mile Creek Conservation Authority has adopted a plan to purchase 256 acres above and below the escarpment at Mount Nemo in Burlington for conservation purposes.

Burlington Council recently decided to support the authority in the move.

Bus Tour In May

A bus tour of the creek watershed is planned for early May.

It will be sponsored by the conservation authority in conjunction with the department of planning and development.

Members of advisory boards and municipal councils will be invited to participate.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Many Visitors At Eastertime

Easter church services were well attended in this area during the past weekend and many visitors were reported.

Reginald Austen spent the last month in England on business.

Friends of Mrs. Jack Stokes are sorry to hear she was hospitalized last week with a cut arm requiring 14 stitches, when she fell through a glass door at her home.

Flies to West

Harry Purdy flew to Lethbridge, Alta., to have Easter with his brother there.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mahon and sons of Windsor are spending the Easter vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Mahon.

Home from Coast

Commander Crawford Mahon of H.M.C.S. Naden, Esquimault, Mrs. Mahon, Lynne and Ian are spending the Easter vacation with Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Mahon before being transferred to Ottawa where Cdr. Mahon will be Deputy Director of Naval Education at the Naval Headquarters there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glendinning and daughters of R.R. 2, Campbellville, moved on Monday to Grimsby where the former will minister at the Baptist churches.
