Baptize Seven Children Sunday Annual Tea Held by Ladies' Aid

Rev. Hawkes conducted baptismal services at the local Presbyterian Church on Sunday for a number of children. Sandra, Carolyn and Margaret, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McEwen; Billy and John, sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. Fuller; Muriel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murd McCutcheon; Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bruce.

One new member was received into the membership.

April Tea
Mrs. E. Fisher was hostess for Annual April Tea of the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Hawkes gave a splendid address on her trip to Mexico and Miss Doris Fines showed her pictures taken on a recent trip to the West.

Later, all enjoyed refreshments served at attractive tables set up in the recreation room.

Mr. Duncan McLean of Winnipeg, visited with former neighbors in the community, one day last week.

Little Perry Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart, returned home from the hospital last week.

SILVERWOOD

Elect New Officers At Annual W.I. Meet.

The annual meeting of Silverwood W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. D. Williamson on Thursday evening, with a very good turnout of 17 members present.

After the singing of the Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect, roll call brought suggestions for program improvement and the payment of dues for another year.

Following the reports of the conveners, the election of officers took place, with Mrs. E. L. Miller in the chair.

The executive was returned as of last year, but several new conveners were elected, with two on each committee, instead of the usual one.

The evening meetings will be continued, with an occasional one in the afternoon, if more suitable.

Mrs. H. Marchington reported on the District Directors' meeting at Milton, giving the date of the District annual as May 26th, and the place, Acton United Church. Mrs. K. C. Lindsay and Mrs. Marchington form the Tweedsmuir History committee, with her hope some help from non-members in the community.

The following is a list of officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. W. H. Norton; first vice-president, Mrs. Bert Corbett; second vice-president, Mrs. Russell Miller; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Geo. E. Burt; assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. George Henderson; District Director, Mrs. H. Marchington; alternate, Mrs. E. L. Miller; Branch Director, Mrs. T. Appleyard; Mrs. H. Landauer; Mrs. F. Campbell; pianists, Mrs. D. Lindsay; Mrs. G. Henderson; auditors, Mrs. R. Corbett; Mrs. E. Miller; Conveners: Agriculture and Can. Industries, Mrs. G. Sault; Mrs. H. Scott; Citizenship and Education, Mrs. D. W. Shaw; Mrs. K. C. Lindsay; Historical Research, Mrs. D. Peck; Home Economics and Health, Mrs. Ian Carmichael; Mrs. H. Landauer; press reporter, Mrs. H. Marchington; courtesies, Mrs. F. Miller; flowers and fruit, Mrs. D. Williamson.

Recent Visitors
Mr. Frank Miller of Vancouver and Mr. and Mrs. O. McLeod of Sudbury were recent visitors with Mrs. W. J. Roe and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miller.

Miss Lillian Hare spent the Easter holidays with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Marchington.

Agriculture in Manitoba is mainly devoted to grain growing, cattle raising and dairying.

LIMEHOUSE

Maori Tribes Described Spring Thankoffering

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Crawford of Galt, were guest speakers at the Spring Thankoffering of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society meeting, held in the church last Thursday evening. As a nurse, Mrs. Crawford had worked among Indians in North Saskatchewan and later as a student missionary in the Bahamas and she told briefly of this.

After showing an interesting film of their trip by land and sea to their mission field among the Maori tribes of New Zealand, Mr. Crawford gave an enlightening talk on their work there and some of the customs of the natives.

The speakers were introduced by Mrs. A. Benion and thanked by Mrs. E. Sanford.

BALLINAFAD

W.I. Cup, Saucer Presented Secretary Mrs. Archie Lawr

The April meeting of Ballinafad W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Gibson on Wednesday afternoon last week. 10 members were present. Roll call was answered by payment of members' fees.

A letter of appreciation was received from the Board of Children's School in Milton, expressing her gratitude for a donation received from the W.I. Mrs. C. E. Snow and Mrs. Archie Lawr were appointed as Institute representatives on the Georgetown Women's Auxiliary Hospital board.

Three quilts which had been made were displayed one of which and a wool blanket are to be given to a family in the district who lost their home by fire.

Name Delegate
The report of the district directors meeting in Milton was read by Mrs. A. McEnery. Mrs. E. McEnery and Mrs. F. J. Shortill were appointed as Delegates to attend the District Annual to be held in Acton May 28. Mrs. M. J. Baker gave the report of the nominating committee.

The annual reports of the conveners were presented. Mrs. Archie Lawr was presented with an Institute cup and saucer as a token of appreciation for her faithful and competent services as secretary for the W.I. during the past five years.

Mrs. M. J. Baker, Mrs. F. Smith and Mrs. G. Wright assisted the hostess during the social hour.

Officers elected for the W.I. for this year: president, Mrs. Jesse McEnery; first vice president, Mrs. Ernie McEnery; second vice president, Mrs. Frank Smith; secretary, Mrs. Tom Gibson.

District director, Mrs. Archie McEnery; branch director, Mrs. Ernie McEnery; Mrs. R. B. Kirkwood; Mrs. Edmonds; pianist, Mrs. F. J. Shortill; welfare secretaries, Mrs. Lawr; Mrs. Snow; Mrs. Kirkwood; auditors, Mrs. Lawr; Mrs. Norman Sinclair.

Mrs. Robertson Heads C.W.L.

The Rockwood-Oustic Catholic Women's League held their April meeting in St. John's Parish Hall, Rockwood. There was an attendance of 41 for this annual meeting during which officers for the coming year were elected.

A pot-luck supper and pleasant social period preceded the business session. Roll call was the naming of a favorite flower.

The retiring committee members read their report of the past year's activities that were interesting and carefully listened to.

Mrs. H. Saunders spoke heartily thanking all who helped her during her two years in office as president.

Mrs. P. Dale was chairman during the election of officers that took place by ballot. The following were elected: Mrs. C. Robertson president, Mrs. P. Dale, first vice president, Mrs. Agnes Holman, second vice president, Mrs. F. Synt, third vice president, Mrs. R. Bacon, and as secretary by acclamation Mrs. W. Giffillan, a treasurer.

The Rev. A. S. Callaghan, director of the group, read the 'Act of Consecration' and gave the new executive his blessing. He spoke briefly, with much encouragement, mentioning the wonderful family spirit that existed in the league.

Mrs. Robertson brought up some new business that included an auction sale on May 7 in Rockwood Town Hall.

Mrs. Don Bexon, Everton, won the lucky draw a sweet doll authentically dressed as a nun.

The photograph of rushing spring waters on the editorial page was taken by the Rockwood correspondent for the paper, Richard Harris. Other very attractive shots of the Rockwood area will be on display in the Free Press window.
