April 13: Mighty close race again on in the High School league. One team is in front by two points. Two teams are crowd- ing the second placers, being only three points off. Right on their heels, one point behind, are the other two teams.

Hula Hoops, the current leaders, won their first game from Satellites, then the Satellites stole the second game by six pins for the equalizer. Both teams tried hard to win the third and deciding game but it went to the Satellites by seven pins. Hula Hoops gleamed some satisfaction by taking the odd point for totals by 24 pins. Hula Hoops' P. McGeechie stood out in this game for 624.

Bird Dogs rolled a big one against the Misfits in the first for their initial win, then the Misfits grabbed the next two by the identical number of pins, 22. Bird Dogs' single win won them the odd point for totals.

The last place Crackpots got back into contention when they took the second place Rebel Rousers for two totals with C. Bradley leading the winners with a 639. The Crackpots almost won 'em all. They dropped the middle stanza by four pins. A. Williams with 608 was the Rebel's top trundler.

Rachlin Jewellers, who have been holding down last place so long the rest of the league thought they had first and second mortgages on it, shored the "little lambs" of Lane Real Estate for a games and vaulted into third place. M. Arbie 612 and J. Barr 606 headed up the Jewellers' win. D. Spinel- gel rolled a 663 in the Lambs' effort.

With I. Kilby, who after a low start of 166 got hot for the next two games with 332 and 349 for a total of 647, Can Doo's had one game and totals in their clutches to top top spot. B. Taylor was the head man for the Wolves with 606.

Arrows did all they could to make off with the championship. They won all games from the Tattlers but with the Can Doo's grabbing three points, the Arrows had to stand by and be content with second place.

Headpin Hilites

And it came to pass, Streetsville took the Acton Merchants into camp for two and totals and fin- ished in the coveted top spot.

Acton - Beardmores shut out the boys from Oakville, so it's Streetsville getting the bye, while the Merchants and the Beardmores will all try to batter one another's brains out this Saturday in a five game semi-final to see who takes on the Streetsville gang in the finals.

Whichever team meets Streets- ville will have a battle on, that hasn't because after many years of frustration, the Streetsville bow- lers have finally welded together a powerful outfit.

Both manager Don Glen of the Merchants and Ph. LeSueur of the Beardmores are busy planning for the semi- final and if the Merchants lose out, we are given to understand that Shes and a certain famous Station are to be eaten.

The Hoops' Clothing award went to Bill Williams for his neat 897 triple while Ivan Kilby can't wait to see who takes on the Streetsville boys award on the strength of his 349 single. Joyce Masalles was a double winner, Sam Jacks for the Ledger's I.G.A. and the Ten Pros' cheerers' awards with his 684 triple which included a 291 single.

Being the best over their re- corder to win the Coca-Cola Rec- ords and Seven Pin records were Carl Evans, Dr. Thompson, John Duggan and Kevin Hall.
