

Grass was mowed in the park this week.

The pipe band has been practicing outdoors.

Traffic is detoured on highway 25 as work continues on Highway 401.

There were more boats than ever in the lake on Sunday. Fishing is popular from the banks, too.

There were quite a few news articles squeezed out of last week's paper by lack of space. They all appear today, with apologies. Printers often joke about "rubber" type that stretches and contracts to fit any space. If we knew where to buy some, we certainly would!

Churchill W.A. held a successful tea, baking sale and bazaar in the United church Saturday afternoon.

One school is coming down and another going up. Work is progressing rapidly at the public school demolition and the building of the high school addition.

The north portion of the highway extension on Mill St between Frederick and Wilbur has been completed by the Credit Valley Paving Company this week.

Bunches in front of the post office were to be painted by Chamber of Commerce members Saturday, but the project was washed out by teeming rain.

SEVEN HAPPY GIRLS proudly display the trophy they won in the Acton Ladies Bowling League at the Acton Bowling Lanes recently. Known as the Lovell Brothers team, the winners topped their league in the dying moments of the league. Mrs. A. McKenzie said Grace and Gorgina Calder proposed the toast to the Queen. Gertrud Kubu welcomed the mothers and guests, and graduating Explorers.

The leader, Mrs. James Greer, introduced two of her leaders when she was a C.G.I.T. member in Galt. Miss May Douglas and Mrs. Becky Smith.

Noted Naturalist Horace Mack Dies

Recognized as one of Canada's top naturalists and long active in conservation work, Horace G. Mack of Guelph, died suddenly Monday afternoon at Guelph General Hospital.

Although a successful industrialist, most of his life was devoted to the nurturing, protection and development of wildlife. He spent a great deal of money in development of two game reserves on his farms in Puslinch Township and near Eden Mills.

Guest Speaker From Jamaica

(intended for last week)

Rev. Ewart Cutley conducted services in St. John's United church on Sunday. Guest speaker was Mr. David Brown of Clarendon, Jamaica. Mr. Brown is a Sunday School Superintendent, lay preacher and a lay representative of the Synod. Outside of the church he takes an active part in the Parish in which he lives.

Weekend visitors with Rev. Ewart Cutley were Mr. David Brown of Clarendon, Jamaica and his niece, Miss Brown, who is a nurse at Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto, and Miss Marjorie and Pauline Cutley of Toronto.

Paul Donaldson has completed his year at University at Waterloo and is at present holidaying at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donaldson. We all wish Paul every success.

Rev. E. A. Currey of Shedden has accepted the invitation of St. John's United Church to be guest speaker at their anniversary services on July 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dearing of Toronto visited recently with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McEachern and Robert attended a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith on Sunday in honor of Mr. Nasa King who celebrated his 80th birthday. Congratulations to Mr. King. In spite of his advanced years he still is a keen gardener and does the work himself.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hurd were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Coulson and Wayne of Milton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hurd and Miss Barbara Myers, Toronto, and Mr. John Derry the 7th line Erin.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Galbraith spent Sunday in Toronto.

Mr. Tom Brooks visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hale, Grand Valley.

OSPRINGE Prayer Topic For Fellowship

(intended for last week)

Mrs. Jesse McKerny of Ballinacree was guest speaker at the meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Everton church. Mrs. McKerny chose as her topic "Prayer" - stressing that prayer is a very vital part of Christian life.

There is a tendency to get away from a prayer life but unless we get back to it one can not accomplish anything in our Christian life. She continued, prayer and the scriptures go hand in hand. Prayer is one talking to God the Bible is God talking to us and we must be tuned in or on the right beam.

We are eager to thank earthly friends for favors received, but not so eager to thank God for our many blessings. She urged women to spend more time in prayer as we go about our daily work.

To conclude a very uplifting address, two recordings of Tennessee Ernie Ford were heard "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "My Task".

Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury read the minutes and business items. The roll call, "A Bible Mother", was responded to. The scripture, Acts 8: 1-20 was read alternately.

In the absence of the worship convener, Mrs. H. Horlop, the worship was conducted by Mrs. D. Stewart who also read a poem, "My Garden".

An invitation was accepted to a tea and bazaar in June at Barrie Hill Church. Good used clothing is being packed for Rev. Richardson for his work in the north of the province.

EDEN MILLS Four Baptised on Sunday

(intended for last week)

The sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion were observed in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning with Rev. J. D. Gordon of Guelph in charge. The infants baptized were Scott Eric Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Perry; Beverly Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tolton; Kimberley Anne and James Alfred, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tolton.

Spring Rally

The annual spring rally of the Guelph Presbyterian was held in the Presbyterian church last week. Mrs. McLean and Miss Reed, both of Hamilton, were the speakers. Special music by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Birch in the afternoon and the ladies' quartette of the church in the evening was heard. A very enjoyable and instructive meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. John Shepherd.

Many Visitors

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tolton on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. Nebel and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Don Thomas, Laverne and Ronnie Tolton, all of Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Hare of Guelph visited in the same home on Monday.

Present Yearly Reports During Meeting Of Tuberculosis and Health Association

Officers and auditor's reports were distributed to a large gathering in the Pine Room, Oakville, during the annual meeting of the Health Association meeting, on Wednesday evening, May 13.

Representatives of Acton's representatives on the board were Mrs. G. Bonerville and Bill Benson.

President E. C. Foster expressed his pleasure at seeing the organization during the past year and noted the keen interest and determination of all concerned to promote a more effective program to wipe out tuberculosis.

Mr. Foster also outlined the great strides made during the past year and thanked the volunteers who so greatly assisted the organization.

The auditor's report showed a bank balance amounting to $29,855.94 and the report was unanimously accepted by the group.

Miss M. E. Laman, executive secretary, outlined the meetings during the year and reviewed donations made to various campaigns and hospitals.

The secretary also outlined various conferences she attended and thanked the people of Halton for their support in making Halton the banner county in Ontario.

Dr. A. F. Bull, case finding chairman, informed the meeting that the mobile chest clinic began making visits to towns in Halton and also Centennial Manor to X-Ray residents.

The chairman also reported that during 1958, 153 X-Ray examinations were carried out and although the number of examinations had increased the number of new cases being found had not changed appreciably.

The tuberculosis death rate had reached a new low in 1958, that is 32 per 100,000, stressed the doctor.

Mrs. G. P. McAleer, social worker for the organization, outlined the work of her department and the visits made during the year in hospitals and private homes.

The health education chairman, E. F. Carberry, informed the gathering of the literature distributed to schools and libraries and the Christmas programs made available to churches for their Sunday bulletins. Attending from Acton and district were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Benson, Mrs. George Sougerville, Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodburn, Miss Marjorie Hall, Mrs. George Horgrave, Mrs. S. Matthews, Mrs. M. Nellis, Mrs. Alex. Near and Mrs. Clark Armstrong.
