

Member Reviews Florida Trip For Knox Ladies' Aid Group

The Knox Church Ladies' Aid met for their monthly meeting in the church parlor on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. M. McPherson called the meeting to order with a "beautiful thought for the day". Devotions were taken by Miss Marjorie Hall and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan.

The work for the summer months was discussed and decisions made to make some changes in the church kitchen and also necessary improvements to the minister's study.

Projects to be arranged: Mrs. F. J. McCutcheon and Mrs. A. M. McPherson were appointed to arrange for these projects.

Miss Robena Clark delighted all with a word picture of her holiday in Florida. The romantic story of the little green benches, the well attended churches and open air postal service were some of the interesting places and things told about.

The committee served lunch and a social time was enjoyed by all. Mrs. J. C. Dennis expressed appreciation to Miss Clark and the group for an enjoyable afternoon. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

United Church W.A. to Purchase Tea Wagons, Frig. for Kitchen

The ladies of the W.A. of the Acton United Church met in the church parlor for the June meeting with the president, Mrs. Moore, in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode, followed with prayer by the president and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The devotions were in charge of Mrs. A. Shoemaker. The study was reviewed from Luke 7.

The reports of the secretaries were read and approved. This included a report of the visiting secretary, Mrs. Shoemaker, who called on the shut-ins. Aside from this 45 calls were made by the ladies during the month.

Mrs. J. Moore was appointed a delegate from the W.A. to attend the conference to be held at the McMaster University in Hamilton, June 9, 10 and 11.

Buy Tea Wagon

Upon a carried motion it was decided to purchase two tea wagons for the church kitchen to add to the serving convenience for dinners and banquets.

The purchase of a refrigerator for the kitchen was also decided upon. The meeting closed with the mizpah benediction and a dainty lunch of sandwiches and cookies was served by the committee in charge.

Doreen Plouffe, Arthur MacLeod Married in Ballinacraig Church

The United church at Ballinacraig was decorated with baskets of snapdragons and tulips for the marriage of Doreen Plouffe and Arthur MacLeod. Rev. M. G. McFarlane officiated at the double ring ceremony on Saturday, May 1 at 3:30 p.m.

Miss Margaret McFarlane played the piano for the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plouffe of Ballinacraig. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacLeod of Acton.

White Gown

The bride's gown was of white lace over tulle, made on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline. The small jacket featured long sleeves coming to a point, and a high collar.

A train of pearls and sparkling beads held her fingertip veil of embroidered nylon net. She carried a bouquet of red roses and fern.

Mrs. Eileen McWhinney, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz length gown of embroidered net over green satin and a floral headdress. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and fern.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Yvonne Morden, sister of the bride, who wore a waltz length gown of net over pink satin with a floral headdress. She carried pink carnations and fern.

Two Flower Girls

Linda Plouffe, sister of the bride, and Charlene Armstrong, niece of the groom, were flower girls, dressed alike in pink satin with tiny hats and white accessories. They carried baskets of pink carnations and white baby mums.

Charles Plouffe, the bride's father, gave her in marriage.

Groomsmen were Ivan MacLeod, the groom's brother, Ushers were Charles Plouffe, the bride's brother and Mervyn MacLeod, the groom's brother.

Reception Follows

A reception followed in the Sunday school room of the church. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a dress of blue-green nylon chiffon with white accessories, accented by a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother wore grey with white accessories, and a contrasting corsage of pink roses.

The couple left on a trip to the United States. For travelling, the bride wore a powder blue fitted suit with white accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

They will make their home in the Acton district. Guests were present from Burlington, Guelph, Acton, Georgetown, Milton and Hornby.

Bride Entertained

Prior to the wedding, the bride was the guest of honor at several gatherings in the district. Mrs. Leona Smith gave a miscellaneous shower at her home near Acton. Mrs. Alice Listaway of Georgetown was hostess at a miscellaneous shower.

The I.G.A. Foodline staff at Georgetown made a presentation of a beautiful tri-light lamp.

To Keep Scrap Book For Heather Club

The Heather Club held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Tom Watson. The scripture was taken by Mrs. Ray Mason and Mrs. Watson followed with prayer.

It was decided Mrs. C. Kirkness would purchase a scrap book for past and future activities.

Mrs. Ray Butler agreed to convene a rummage and baking sale on Friday afternoon and evening. September 25 Plans were made for the annual picnic.

The study book "Why we believe in God", was read by Mrs. Kirkness.

A pleasant social hour followed.

Two Teachers Feted Prior to Marriage

Miss Ora Carson and Doug Copeland, who are to be married in August, were taken completely by surprise when Mrs. Jessie Gallo-way was hostess at a party in their honor Saturday evening. Friends and fellow teachers were guests for dinner and the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott, Bower Ave.

The couple opened miscellaneous gifts, many of them humorous, and a presentation was made.

The two teachers are being married on August 15 in Guelph. They will be living in Glenora.
