

Summer arrived officially on the weekend.

The two one-way streets in front of the M. Z. Bennett school have been paved.

About 1,000 pheasants will be released in Halton the end of this month, Game Warden R. M. Reid reports.

Site of the demolished school attracts plenty of curious visitors. Many of them recall their school days there.

Since regular school visits to the library are over, the youngsters haven't abandoned books at all. They crowd into the small library every night it's open.

Free Press office will be closed on Saturday mornings commencing July 4 and open till 6 p.m. Fridays.

School classes are having picnics this week to mark the end of the year.

Job registrations at the Guelph office of the Unemployment Insurance Commission show this district has shared in the economic pick-up. The list of jobless is much shorter now.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hufnagel of Acton announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Elaine, to Alan George Spanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spanton of Toronto. Marriage to take place July 18, Acton United church.

Smash New Lock At Park Gates

Park Board authorities this week reported that acts of vandalism have been prominent at the park this summer and the police have been asked to keep a close check on the park area.

Mrs. G. Fryer, secretary for the board stated a new lock had been purchased for the park gates this week and installed after the oiling of the race track had taken place.

The following morning the gate was found with the lock smashed and marks on the race track where a car had driven on the freshly oiled surface.

Damage has also been caused in the change-rooms when fixtures were torn off the wall and defacement to the building took place.

During a joint meeting with representatives from the Acton Agricultural Society, on Monday it was agreed to move the cattle ties at the north end of the park and provide a parking area for cars.

ERNEST BUCHAN, teacher at S.S. No. 6, Eramosa Township, was presented with a gift by Miss Sharon McKenzie on behalf of the class. The teacher is leaving to attend Teachers' College.

Program Precedes Presentation For Teacher at S.S.6, Eramosa

Members of Eramosa Women's Institute and parents of pupils at S.S. No. 6, Eramosa, held a social evening at the school last Friday when a presentation was made to the teacher, Ernest Buchan, who is leaving to attend Teachers' College in Hamilton this fall.

Miss Sharon McKenzie made the presentation of a fine black leather bill fold from the class. She read a short address in which she expressed the regret of all that Mr. Buchan was leaving.

Preceding a square dance by six pupils, Coryll and Cheryl Harwood, Jean Allan, Rita Keane, Catherine Gilliland and Sharon McKenzie, were a number of sports events. Winners were awarded prizes of silver and candles.

Auction Sale

There was an auction sale of many useful items as well as delicious baked goods. Auctioneer was Harold Reed, who kindly gave his time.

Funds from the sale will be used to purchase sporting equipment and books for the school.

This fall, No. 6 Eramosa becomes a junior school when the pupils

Executive Details Dance Club Season

A meeting of the executive committee of the Acton Scottish Dance Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson on Monday, June 22.

Business was mainly dealing with the program for the 1959-60 season. There are to be 16 meetings comprising four family nights with the Acton Junior Pipe Band in attendance, two dances in the Legion hall, St. Andrew's night in November and one in April.

The Burns' Supper will be held in the Royal Hotel, Guelph, in January as usual. The remaining nine meetings will be the regular dances held twice monthly.

Membership was set at $1.00 per person for the program for the 1959-60 season. Cards will be available shortly.

Single Boy Among Tapping Tots At Fourth Annual Dance Revue

A bevy of lissome girls with rhythm in their toes surrounded jaunty tapdancer Michael Wolfe—sole boy on the program—when the fourth annual Dance Revue of Acton Dancing School was staged. Miss Lois Allen's pupils performed this year in St. Alban's parish hall, where upstairs was crowded with craning spectators and standees, while the downstairs was a flurry of tinsel, net and curl-tossing young girls preparing for their entrances, with the help of mothers.

Pianists again this year were the teacher's mother, Mrs. W. A. Allen and Ron Laidlaw. For the Scottish dances, Pipemaster Phil Caddick played the familiar accompaniments.

About 150 watched the 30 pupils in their program which ranged from perky tap dancing to graceful ballet.

Sister is Soloist

Guest soloist was the teacher's sister, Miss Margaret Allen, who is proficient in all the branches of dancing her older sister teaches. She demonstrated the Irish Jig, Sailor's Hornpipe, ballet, tap and complicated baton twirling.

Two groups of Brampton girls also took part, with a chair dance, tap danced most gracefully.

Lois Allen delighted her pupils when, gowned in bright red, she tap danced most gracefully.

One group of scene-stealers was the tiny "Top Hatters". Bright-eyed under oversized bowler hats which kept joggling down over their brows, the pint-sized high-steppers were Sherry Lott, Marilyn Anthony, Susan McGilloway and Sharon Martingell.

Other items on the program were:

Variety on Stage
Highland Fling and Sword Dance; Margaret Sleaven, Christine Foyers, Shirley Klinek, Jane and Ann Watson; Modernettes, Ruth Everdell, Linda Rotz; Petit Ballet, Valerie Lang, Elizabeth Hurst; Guys and Dolls, Karen O'Rourke, Dorothy Anne O'Rourke.

Youngest in the cast was four-year-old Susan Ford, who has been taking "batonics" for the past six months. The tiniest twirler kept her eyes firmly on the teacher while she went through her routine.

Mistakes were few as many of the accomplished youngsters have been studying for several years now.

Mothers had again helped to fashion the wispy costumes, glittering with trim. (Added fashion note: Michael Wolfe wore velvet trousers with full, long sleeved shirts.)

All the girls—and boy—gathered on the stage at the end of the program. Michael Wolfe presented Miss Allen with a bouquet of red carnations, and promptly received a kiss in return. Shirley Klinek gave her a box of chocolates on behalf of the pupils.
